SERIOUS CUTTING AFFRAY IN A SALOON LAST NIGHT NEGRO WEILDING A RAZOR

Robert Hopkins Arrested For Inflicting Terrible Wounds Upon Thomas Burgess in a Quarrel.

With his left arm terribly cut, a deep gash in the stomach and a part of his clothing slashed into shreds, Thomas Burgess, a well known resident of Sheridan avenue, tottered into the mayor's office, being extremely weak from the loss of blood, this morning and swore out a warrant charging Bob Hopkins, a negro of much local notoriety, with cutting with intent to maim.

It required a strenuous effort on the part of Burgess to steady himself enough to file the charge. He at times seemed as if he were going to drop into a state of insensibility and at intervals he could not refrain from giving utterance to sighs and groans as a result of the wounds inflicted.

Trembling like a leaf, and apparently worrying over the probable outcome of his unfortunate accident, he in a quivering, but a firm voice explained his condition and its origin. At the conclusion of the show at the Grand last evening he started on his way home and upon reaching Frank Rigot's saloon, on West Market street, he entered to converse a moment with Mr. Rigot, being an intimate friend of the saloonist and occasionally his bartender. Upon stepping into the place he heard a slight argument and a glance was enough to see that it was between Hopkins and Mrs. Rigot, who was behind the counter.

Hopkins had been in the saloon for some time and had consumed no small amount of liquor. It was near closing time and Hopkins had been ordered to vacate. He remonstrated stubbornly and refused to move unless the money which he had spent was returned to him. Rather than create a disturbance Mrs. Rigot concluded to give the man the money and started to the register for it. It was while she was at the money drawer that the fight commenced.

Burgess heard Hopkins make an insulting remark about Mrs. Rigot and resented it, saying: "You cannot call that woman a name like that while I am here."

Hopkins then became like an enraged maniac. With fire flashing from his eyes, but without uttering a word, he reached to his hip pocket and seized a razor. As he commenced to flourish it in a dangerous manner Burgess knew that there was trouble of the worst kind ahead and quicker than a flash he grasped a chair, and with an unerring aim, landed the rude weapon on the colored man's head, knocking him to the floor. Quickly regaining his stand Hopkins made a dash at Burgess and sank the keen-edged razor deep into the pit of his stomach.

Burgess cried out in pain and rage and again resorted to a chair for defense. This time he was too slow in acting. Hopkins ran upon him, preventing the raising of the chair and once more wielded the sharp instrument. An overcoat, coat and two shirts were no barriers against the terrible blade. It was well guided and carried out the desperate negro's intention. Through the thickness of cloth it carved, striking the left arm of Burgess a few inches below the elbow and taking a circular course around the arm. This cut was by far the most dangerous and painful. It severed the flesh for a length of six inches, and it pierced a tumor to the core.

Blood spurted from the wound in horrifying quantities and for a time the injured man and those present were fearful that the flow could not be stopped. A cord was wrapped tightly around the arm above the elbow, but it seemed to have but little effect, and when the three physicians summoned arrived Burgess was suffering intensely both from loss of blood and excitement. The physicians encountered some difficulty in treating the wound and considerable time was consumed in getting it under control. A number of stitches were necessary to close the parts opened on the arm and two were required for the cut in the stomach.

Immediately after Hopkins had rendered his man helpless he dashed to the street and went home. He is one of the most dangerous and feared men that ever lived in this city. His criminal record is well known to

A SMALL STRIKE

FIVE TRANSFERERS AT WILLIAM BRUNT PLANT HAVE QUIT.

The Trouble is Over the Question of Price to Be Paid For Scheme Ware.

A small strike occurred at the William Brunt pottery at noon today, and as a result five transferers are now out and the remaining two will probably quit work this evening.

The trouble arose over the price to be paid for a certain class of scheme ware. The girls had been receiving 2½ cents per dozen for the decoration, but finding out that others were getting 3 cents for the same work, a demand was made for the prevailing price. The girls state it was refused, and they quit.

The dispute is the same as many others have been up before. The decoration of scheme ware has caused much trouble heretofore in the matter of setting prices.

This class of goods is not as well made nor is there as good decorations placed upon it as in the regular staple lines. It sells for a lower price, and consequently must be made as cheaply as possible. The trouble of today, however, is the first dispute which has been up for several months in this department.

An attempt will be made to settle the dispute with the firm by those directly involved or by the union to which they belong. If this cannot be done, the question will be taken to the Brotherhood headquarters officials.

PART OF THE WABASH

President of That System Confirms Story of Plans Regarding Lisbon Railroad.

Pittsburg, November 6.—President Ramsey, of the Wabash railroad, yesterday held a conference with President J. T. Blair, of the Little Kanawha, over the various plans of extension and more particularly over the construction work of that line. The bids for the extension will be opened here today. The award of the contracts may be delayed somewhat in selecting the most advantageous bids, but an announcement can be expected in a few days at the most. The work is to be rushed as fast as possible.

In regard to the acquisition of the Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western and the other roads in that vicinity by Myron T. Herrick, Mr. Ramsey said: "The purchase of these lines and the proposed extensions are personal plans of Colonel Herrick and Washington E. Connor. The work of financing will not be done by a syndicate, such as was the case in other allied lines in the east, but by these gentlemen personally. The new lines will, of course, be linked to the Wabash and form parts of the system after they are completed. The undertaking has been started with an understanding with the Wabash management."

SIX WERE FINED

The half dozen assault and battery cases from Jethro fined in 'Squire McCarron's court yesterday were tried last evening at 8 o'clock and after long drawn testimony was heard, each was fined $1 and costs. They received, however, in addition to the fines a severe lecturing and a warning that if they are ever brought before the justice on a similar charge again that each of them will get the full extent of the law.

Those fined were: Josephine Smith, Mike Smith, Bella Mozongo, Eva and Ethel Stanley and Mrs. Eliza Jane Stanley.

CASES ARGUED IN CIRCUIT COURT

Road Cases Occupy Much of the Attention of the Judicial Body.

Litigation Over a Road in Hanover Township And the Case of Mrs. Snyder, of Wellsville, Among Those That Were Argued.

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special.)—The November session of the circuit court opened yesterday afternoon, Judge J. B. Burrows presiding. Several cases were quickly disposed of.

In the matter of a township road petitioned for by John and Stewart Patterson, of Elkrun township, which has been taken up on error, the case was dismissed.

The cases of D. E. Mather vs. W. H. Booth and Minerva Shultz vs. Thomas T. Hamilton et al were settled.

The cases of James H. McDowell, trustee in bankruptcy of H. S. Warner against T. T. Church and Mary Rush, executors of R. P. Rush, deceased; N. B. Billingsley vs. I. B. Cameran, receiver; Daniel P. Lawson vs. William R. Wells et al and Amanda Hailes vs. Martin V. Grimes, administrator of the estate of Mary Watson, deceased, were all continued.

The hearing of the case of Reason Barnes et al against Charles Strain et al, of Hanover township, commenced yesterday and continued this morning. The matter in litigation is the right of plaintiff to use a private right of way through the farm of defendant to a state road. Mr. Barnes maintains that the road through his neighbor's farm has been in use 40 years or more, being the only outlet from his property to the public highway. Some time ago defendant forbade plaintiff crossing his farm, justifying himself with the assertion that Barnes left the gates open on his way through. He also said the right to pass through his farm was never granted.

The case of Wellsville vs. Margaret J. Snyder, taken up on error, was argued this morning. Mrs. Snyder had recovered a judgment of $50 against the city and as damages for a change of grade.

IN PROBATE COURT

Administrator Appointed—Controversy Over Guardian's Sale of Realty.

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special.)—Isaiah Flickinger has been appointed administrator of the state of the late William Essenwein. In accepting the appointment Mr. Flickinger filed an estimate of the estate and filed a bond for $1,700. The appraisers are John Weaver, Ed Snyder and Charles Halloway.

In the case of P. B. Moore, of East Palestine, as guardian, against Amos Marince et al, in which the court refused some days ago to confirm the guardian's disposal of real estate at private sale, on the ground that the consideration was less than the law required, the court has rescinded its order of public sale, and again issued an order of private sale. It was shown that the guardian had made an error in reporting the proceeds, which were placed at $1,003, when the amount should have been $1,293.

SURVEYS BEING MADE

For the Jones & Laughlins Railroad Through the Northern Part of This County.

Surveys are now being run for the proposed Jones & Laughlins Steel company's railroad line in northern Columbiana county. Rights of way are being secured easily, it is said, and the line is being built with little care for anything but securing favorable grades.

Surveys have been made three times through the territory by the engineers of the steel company. It is said that final adoption of that route is now settled. John A. George, of East Liverpool, is the engineer in charge of the work.

National Organizer Present.

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special)—J. H. Barlow, of Cripple Creek, Colorado, national organizer of the Retail Clerks' union, attended the local union meeting last evening and made an address. A movement is being made among the clerks in Columbiana for organization.

NOTICES TO QUIT BEING SERVED

Chief Thompson Warning Shanty-Boat Owners to Obey Recent Ordinance.

NEW LAW IS ATTACKED

And the River Contingent Proposes to Go to Court And Defend Its Rights to Live As It Has Been Doing. A Census of Shantytown.

Chief of Police Thompson this morning began serving notices on the shanty boat people to vacate. Contrary to expectations he met with no trouble. The occupants of the boats, however, intimated that they will pay no attention to the notices and that they will carry the matter to the courts. They have agreed each to contribute enough money to employ a competent attorney to defend them, and all are confident that the ordinance passed recently to oust them will have to be repealed. Many of them are living on what they say is private property, and state that, as they pay rent for the ground, they cannot be moved.

Chief Thompson stated that never before did he realize how many marine laws there are in existence. The men of the boats claim to be well posted on the laws and cited to him section after section. Some of them intend to fight the ordinance on the 14 feet law which, they state, gives them the right to harbor a boat on the shore providing they keep within 14 feet of the water.

It is very probable that a strong fight will be put up and that some interesting developments will result. The chief thinks that he will not get all of the notices served before tomorrow evening, and possibly not until Saturday. If the notices are heeded the people will vacate within ten days.

While serving the notices Chief Thompson, just for the benefit of the public that are interested, is taking a census of the inhabitants of the boats. Some of the boats, although not more than 10x20, are harboring from ten to fifteen persons, and on the entire number of boats, it is estimated that there are about 150 people.

TRADES COUNCIL LOSES GOOD OFFICER

LEROY ORR RESIGNED AS TRUSTEE LAST EVENING.

Tailors' Dispute And War Over Non-Union Bread Were Discussed.

Trades and Labor Council held a fairly well attended meeting at Brotherhood hall last evening. President McConnell was unable to be present, and the meeting was presided over by U. G. King, of Typographical union.

A number of matters of a private nature were up for consideration, but they cannot be given to the public. Two new delegates were seated, and under the proper head a communication was read from the Frankfort (Ill.) United Garment Workers' union. The letter stated that the Knapp Clothing company of that city had locked out its employes. It asked that a committee be appointed to interview local clothiers with a view to ascertaining whether or not the product of the Knapp company was being sold in East Liverpool. The communication was favorably acted upon.

Leroy Orr, for the past five years one of the most active labor men of this section, retires from the council with the meeting of last night. Mr. Orr has devoted much time and money to the cause of labor, and his work in behalf of the council has been productive of much good. He resigned his position as trustee of the council, a duty he has performed for several years. William Cope, of the turners' and handlers' union, was unanimously elected to succeed him.

A committee which was appointed at the last meeting to aid the local tailors' union in a dispute which had arisen within its ranks, made a report. A member of the union, employed in a shop of this city had refused to attach the union label to garments made by him, and the union had asked the council to lend its influence in persuading the obstinate member to observe the rules. The delegates from the tailors' union were given instructions which will doubtless result in a settlement of the question.

Another discussion was indulged in relative to the war being waged against non-union bread here by the Trades Council and the members of the bakers' union. The fight, according to the sentiment manifested, will be continued until there is not a dealer left who will handle the non-union product. Fred Martindale, of the label committee of Trades Council, is at work upon a plan which he hopes will aid materially to bring about the desired end. He will submit the plan for the approval of the council at its next meeting.

PLANS OF THE B. & O.

To Build to Smith's Ferry With An East Liverpool Spur Again Revived.

The recent change in the proposed route of the Canton & East Liverpool railway is said by those familiar with the affairs of the company to be a move toward the long talked of extension of the B. & O. to reach Smith's Ferry and it is further added that the B. & O. proposes to cross the country from that point to Pittsburg. A spur from Smith's Ferry to this city is a part of the plan.

DISTRICT CONVENTION

Of the W. R. C. Will Open at Lisbon Tomorrow—About 75 Delegates Expected.

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special)—A district convention of the Woman's Relief Corps will be held here tomorrow. The district comprises local organizations of Columbiana, Portage, Stark and Mahoning counties.

About 75 delegates will be present, including the state president, Mrs. Ellen Applebaugh, of Wooster.

GEN. DICK'S REPUTATION AS A POLITICAL PROPHET IS FULLY VINDICATED

His Forecast Was Remarkable For Its Accuracy. Nevin as a Possible Gubernetorial Candidate.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, November 6.—The Republican plurality in Ohio will hover about the 90,000 mark, and the total vote, in the judgment of Chairman Dick, will approximate 800,000, a little less than that of last year. The results in Ohio are very gratifying to the Republican managers. The people have in an unmistakable and vigorous fashion showed their complete disapproval of Democracy, Tom Johnson and his multifarious policies, fads, isms, etc. The leaders regard the result as an endorsement of what McKinley stood for, Republican principles and of the administration of President Roosevelt.

The wonderful victory has brought joy to the Republicans and deep gloom to their opponents. Once more it has been demonstrated that Chairman Dick is a political prophet of wonderful ability. His forecast was remarkable for its accuracy. He predicted that the state would go Republican by at least 75,000, and added that if there was anything like a full vote out it might reach 100,000. He said that 17 and perhaps 18 Republican congressmen would be elected. His prognostications have been borne out.

In the defeat of Huling, of the Columbus district, the Republicans lost one congressman, but they made this up by knocking out Norton in the Thirteenth district, which was thought to be invulnerable by the Democrats. Jackson, the Republican candidate, won by about 300 to spare. Norton is a third termer and he threatens to contest Jackson's election on the ground that many ballots were cast for him were improperly marked and should have been thrown out. The defeat of the latter was one of the surprises of the election, although it was predicted by Chairman Dick. The latter, while not admitting that Huling would be defeated, acknowledged his election was doubtful. Factional troubles caused Huling's defeat. Congressman Nevin, Republican, carried the Dayton district by over 6,000. Two years ago he slid in by the skin of his teeth. Congressman Norton's plurality two years ago was almost 7,000.

A friend of Congressman Nevin says that, encouraged by the overwhelming endorsement given him in a district which until two years ago was strongly Democratic and whose Republicanism had been looked upon as being precarious during the past two years, he will be a full-fledged candidate for governor next year.

Judge A. I. Alread, chief clerk in the office of the secretary of state, claims that Judge Badger, Democrat, elected to congress over Huling in this district, is ineligible to a seat in congress for the reason that he did not resign from the common pleas bench before the election. Smith Bennett, special counsel in the office of the attorney general, coincides in this view. Judge Alread was elected to the common pleas bench in Darke county on Tuesday. He will resign his position about next February.

Chairman Garber, of the Democratic committee, has issued a statement praising Tom Johnson and claiming to see in the big Republican landslide an endorsement of Johnson and Democratic principles. He has figured that the Democrats made gains in the counties where Tom Johnson spoke. He places stress on the result in Cuyahoga county, where the Democrats managed to capture two or three offices and also where the Republicans elected all the congressmen. If the Democrats can get a consolation and satisfaction out of the results, the Republicans are certainly willing that they should have both. Tom Johnson claimed that he would either defeat or cut down Senator Nick Longworth's plurality for congress in Cincinnati. The latter had 15,000 votes to spare, being elected by an unusually large plurality.

The Republicans and Democrats will have the same representation in congress during the next two years as they have had during the past two years—17 Republicans and four Democrats, the latter being Harvey C. Garber, Fourth district; John S. Snook, Fifth district; DeWitt C. Badger, Twelfth district, and John W. Cassingham, Seventeenth district.

MORE SMALLPOX

ANOTHER CASE OF THE DISEASE AT LISBON.

The Infection Is Now Nearer the Center of Population of the Town.

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special.)—Another case of smallpox is reported this morning. Mrs. Melvin Forbes is the victim.

While the spread of the disease is still confined to what is known as the infected territory, this case is just at the edge of the district, bringing the disease nearer the center of population.

INSURANCE ADJUSTERS

Here to Estimate the Losses in the Recent Fire in Harker Building.

Insurance adjusters were in the city yesterday to inspect the damage done by fire to the property of Frank Crook, the Wilson stationery store, and the W. & W. pharmacy. The adjusters are W. C. Daniels, of the Northern Insurance company; Joseph Dye, of the German American; R. T. Huggard, of Springfield. Mr. Dye's company had risks on Frank Crook's stock, and for Messrs. Witzeman & Wunsch, of the W. & W. Pharmacy. Mr. Huggard and Mr. Daniels were adjusters on the Wilson loss.

An adjuster for the Niagara, which carried a risk on the Crook building and stock, has not yet arrived. The Crook loss will be by far the heaviest of any, a few hundred dollars covering the most of the damage done to the pharmacy and stationery stores.

Mr. Huggard was summoned to Steubenville yesterday afternoon to adjust a loss there. Mr. Dye fixed up the claim of the owners of the house recently destroyed at Dry Run.

The latter, while not admitting that Huling would be defeated, acknowledged his election was doubtful. Factional troubles caused Huling's defeat. Congressman Nevin, Republican, carried the Dayton district by over 6,000. Two years ago he slid in by the skin of his teeth. Congressman Norton's plurality two years ago was almost 7,000.

A friend of Congressman Nevin says that, encouraged by the overwhelming endorsement given him in a district which until two years ago was strongly Democratic and whose Republicanism had been looked upon as being precarious during the past two years, he will be a full-fledged candidate for governor next year.

Judge A. I. Alread, chief clerk in the office of the secretary of state, claims that Judge Badger, Democrat, elected to congress over Huling in this district, is ineligible to a seat in congress for the reason that he did not resign from the common pleas bench before the election. Smith Bennett, special counsel in the office of the attorney general, coincides in this view. Judge Alread was elected to the common pleas bench in Darke county on Tuesday. He will resign his position about next February.

Chairman Garber, of the Democratic committee, has issued a statement praising Tom Johnson and claiming to see in the big Republican landslide an endorsement of Johnson and Democratic principles. He has figured that the Democrats made gains in the counties where Tom Johnson spoke. He places stress on the result in Cuyahoga county, where the Democrats managed to capture two or three offices and also where the Republicans elected all the congressmen. If the Democrats can get a consolation and satisfaction out of the results, the Republicans are certainly willing that they should have both. Tom Johnson claimed that he would either defeat or cut down Senator Nick Longworth's plurality for congress in Cincinnati. The latter had 15,000 votes to spare, being elected by an unusually large plurality.

The Republicans and Democrats will have the same representation in congress during the next two years as they have had during the past two years—17 Republicans and four Democrats, the latter being Harvey C. Garber, Fourth district; John S. Snook, Fifth district; DeWitt C. Badger, Twelfth district, and John W. Cassingham, Seventeenth district.

A SMALL STRIKE

FIVE TRANSFERERS AT WILLIAM BRUNT PLANT HAVE QUIT.

The Trouble is Over the Question of Price to Be Paid For Scheme Ware.

A small strike occurred at the William Brunt pottery at noon today, and as a result five transferers are now out and the remaining two will probably quit work this evening.

The trouble arose over the price to be paid for a certain class of scheme ware. The girls had been receiving 2½ cents per dozen for the decoration, but finding out that others were getting 3 cents for the same work, a demand was made for the prevailing price. The girls state it was refused, and they quit.

The dispute is the same as many others have been up before. The decoration of scheme ware has caused much trouble heretofore in the matter of setting prices.

This class of goods is not as well made nor is there as good decorations placed upon it as in the regular staple lines. It sells for a lower price, and consequently must be made as cheaply as possible. The trouble of today, however, is the first dispute which has been up for several months in this department.

An attempt will be made to settle the dispute with the firm by those directly involved or by the union to which they belong. If this cannot be done, the question will be taken to the Brotherhood headquarters officials.

PART OF THE WABASH

President of That System Confirms Story of Plans Regarding Lisbon Railroad.

Pittsburg, November 6.—President Ramsey, of the Wabash railroad, yesterday held a conference with President J. T. Blair, of the Little Kanawha, over the various plans of extension and more particularly over the construction work of that line. The bids for the extension will be opened here today. The award of the contracts may be delayed somewhat in selecting the most advantageous bids, but an announcement can be expected in a few days at the most. The work is to be rushed as fast as possible.

In regard to the acquisition of the Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western and the other roads in that vicinity by Myron T. Herrick, Mr. Ramsey said: "The purchase of these lines and the proposed extensions are personal plans of Colonel Herrick and Washington E. Connor. The work of financing will not be done by a syndicate, such as was the case in other allied lines in the east, but by these gentlemen personally. The new lines will, of course, be linked to the Wabash and form parts of the system after they are completed. The undertaking has been started with an understanding with the Wabash management."

They received, however, in addition to the fines a severe lecturing and a warning that if they are ever brought before the justice on a similar charge again that each of them will get the full extent of the law.

Those fined were: Josephine Smith, Mike Smith, Bella Mozongo, Eva and Ethel Stanley and Mrs. Eliza Jane Stanley.

PLANS OF THE B. & O.

To Build to Smith's Ferry With An East Liverpool Spur Again Revived.

The recent change in the proposed route of the Canton & East Liverpool railway is said by those familiar with the affairs of the company to be a move toward the long talked of extension of the B. & O. to reach Smith's Ferry and it is further added that the B. & O. proposes to cross the country from that point to Pittsburg. A spur from Smith's Ferry to this city is a part of the plan.

INSURANCE ADJUSTERS

Here to Estimate the Losses in the Recent Fire in Harker Building.

Insurance adjusters were in the city yesterday to inspect the damage done by fire to the property of Frank Crook, the Wilson stationery store, and the W. & W. pharmacy. The adjusters are W. C. Daniels, of the Northern Insurance company; Joseph Dye, of the German American; R. T. Huggard, of Springfield. Mr. Dye's company had risks on Frank Crook's stock, and for Messrs. Witzeman & Wunsch, of the W. & W. Pharmacy. Mr. Huggard and Mr. Daniels were adjusters on the Wilson loss.

An adjuster for the Niagara, which carried a risk on the Crook building and stock, has not yet arrived. The Crook loss will be by far the heaviest of any, a few hundred dollars covering the most of the damage done to the pharmacy and stationery stores.

Mr. Huggard was summoned to Steubenville yesterday afternoon to adjust a loss there. Mr. Dye fixed up the claim of the owners of the house recently destroyed at Dry Run.

SUIT FOR DAMACES

Against Salem Saloon Man—Wife Claims Husband Lost $650 There.

Salem, November 6.—A sensation was caused in this city last evening when it was learned that Samuel T. Conkle, the well known proprietor of the Oak saloon on East Dry street had been sued by Mrs. Minerva T. Hawley, the wife of Warren A. Hawley, of 166 Washington street, for the sum of $1150, of this sum $650 was for money alleged to have been lost by her husband in Conkle's place and $500 for exemplary damages.

The action was instituted in common pleas court yesterday through her attorney, W. S. Emmons, of this city. The action is against Samuel T. Conkle, the proprietor of the Oak saloon, for the recovery of $650 alleged to be lost and expended by her husband, upon whom she is dependent for support, in and on account of various gambling schemes, mostly poker, conducted and allowed by defendant at his place of business. The money is supposed to have been lost and expended by Warren Hawley since March 1, this year. Mrs. Hawley asks for this amount, together with $500 exemplary damages in the nature of $1150 and the cost of the suit. This entire $650 is supposed to have been received by the defendant at his place if business on East Dry street.

Yesterday summons were issued at Lisbon and were served upon Conkle last evening by Deputy Sheriff W. D. Turner. Mr. Conkle is compelled to make an answer to the petition asking for damages by December 6, this year. It is said that he will fight the case and has engaged attorneys. The case, if it comes in court, will no doubt be of interest.

Conkle is a native of East Liverpool, having come here from that city several years ago.

VERY INDEPENDENT

The Laboring Man of Today Does Not Have to Work Under Conditions He Doesn't Like.

"The working man is the most independent person on earth, these days," remarked a local contractor as a reporter stood watching a gang of men hard at work on a "job" in the northern part of the city. "In the first place," continued the contractor, "it is next to impossible to secure working men, skilled or unskilled, under any conditions. They do not come in numbers as they did a few years ago, begging the contractors to take them on at any rate of wages. They are all busy, and instead of appealing for work, they have to be appealed to and negotiated with one by one."

Once employed they have to be handled with kid gloves, for when offended they simply pack up their tools and walk away to that other contractor, who offered them jobs a dozen different times during the week. I never knew of such a scarcity of men as there is now, and I want to tell you that the laboring man's family that suffers this winter, has the individual to blame for it. There is work on every hand at good wages, and the prospects are that the conditions will continue throughout the winter."

Tariff Reform Considered.

New York, Nov. 6.—Tariff reform was considered at the monthly meeting of the board of trade yesterday, and a resolution was introduced that a committee of the board be appointed to support the suggestion of President Roosevelt that a permanent non-partisan expert tariff commission be created. There was opposition to reviving the question at present and the resolution was referred to the active commission. Resolutions endorsing the Hay bankruptcy bill and urging congressional action on trade marks were passed. A resolution to inquire into the report that the "coal distributors of this city have a compact of action in fixing the price of coal," was referred to the committee on city affairs.

T. S. Sharretts, special United States tariff commissioner to China, gave an address, in which he said New York would come to look upon the Asiatic race as customers of great value.

New York, Nov. 6.—Senator Thomas C. Platt was asked yesterday for a statement on the state election. He said:

"We have to be satisfied. Odell's plurality is not nearly as large as I had expected."

Senator Platt said that in his opinion the trust question and the coal strike had nothing to do with the result of the vote.

"The Democrats got together," he said, "and held together, and a few Republicans slipped over to them."

The experiences of people who have taken "Blood Wine" are worthy of the most careful kind of consideration, because they are truthful,—experiences related by honest people and from the goodness of their hearts, simply in the hope of bringing help to some poor suffering soul. Whenever you see a statement concerning "Blood Wine," read it, for it may be the means of saving your life, or that of some friend or relation. Read this one from Mrs. H. E. Young, 34 Ferry St., Everett, Mass.:

"I am 84 years of age and have suffered for years with rheumatism. I have never taken a medicine that seemed to do me any good until my son brought home a bottle of 'Blood Wine.' It helped my lameness almost instantly and put new vigor and activity into my system. I took it patiently, and after taking seven bottles was entirely cured. I haven't had a touch of rheumatism since."

Isn't any one justified in buying a bottle for fifty cents with such a strong recommendation as that of Mrs. Young?

VERY INDEPENDENT

The Laboring Man of Today Does Not Have to Work Under Conditions He Doesn't Like.

"The working man is the most independent person on earth, these days," remarked a local contractor as a reporter stood watching a gang of men hard at work on a "job" in the northern part of the city. "In the first place," continued the contractor, "it is next to impossible to secure working men, skilled or unskilled, under any conditions. They do not come in numbers as they did a few years ago, begging the contractors to take them on at any rate of wages. They are all busy, and instead of appealing for work, they have to be appealed to and negotiated with one by one."

Once employed they have to be handled with kid gloves, for when offended they simply pack up their tools and walk away to that other contractor, who offered them jobs a dozen different times during the week. I never knew of such a scarcity of men as there is now, and I want to tell you that the laboring man's family that suffers this winter, has the individual to blame for it. There is work on every hand at good wages, and the prospects are that the conditions will continue throughout the winter."

Tariff Reform Considered.

New York, Nov. 6.—Tariff reform was considered at the monthly meeting of the board of trade yesterday, and a resolution was introduced that a committee of the board be appointed to support the suggestion of President Roosevelt that a permanent nonpartisan expert tariff commission be created. There was opposition to reviving the question at present and the resolution was referred to the active commission. Resolutions endorsing the Hay bankruptcy bill and urging congressional action on trade marks were passed. A resolution to inquire into the report that the "coal distributors of this city have a compact of action in fixing the price of coal," was referred to the committee on city affairs.

T. S. Sharretts, special United States tariff commissioner to China, gave an address, in which he said New York would come to look upon the Asiatic race as customers of great value.

Senator Platt's Views.

New York, Nov. 6.—Senator Thomas C. Platt was asked yesterday for a statement on the state election. He said:

"We have to be satisfied. Odell's plurality is not nearly as large as I had expected."

Senator Platt said that in his opinion the trust question and the coal strike had nothing to do with the result of the vote.

"The Democrats got together," he said, "and held together, and a few Republicans slipped over to them."

ALL PEOPLE ought to know that McFadden keeps the best whiskey in town. Twenty different brands to select from. All pure rye. Call at corner of Walnut and Railroad Sts. and you will come back

The experiences of people who have taken "Blood Wine" are worthy of the most careful kind of consideration, because they are truthful,—experiences related by honest people and from the goodness of their hearts, simply in the hope of bringing help to some poor suffering soul. Whenever you see a statement concerning "Blood Wine," read it, for it may be the means of saving your life, or that of some friend or relation. Read this one from Mrs. H. E. Young, 34 Ferry St., Everett, Mass.:

"I am 84 years of age and have suffered for years with rheumatism. I have never taken a medicine that seemed to do me any good until my son brought home a bottle of 'Blood Wine.' It helped my lameness almost instantly and put new vigor and activity into my system. I took it patiently, and after taking seven bottles was entirely cured. I haven't had a touch of rheumatism since."

Isn't any one justified in buying a bottle for fifty cents with such a strong recommendation as that of Mrs. Young?

VISIONS OF WEALTH FOR A MOTORMAN

Heydenreich Gets a Share of a German Estate of 310,000 Marks.

STILL MORE TO BE DIVIDED

The Young Man Still Continues His Work On the Street Railway—Other Heirs to the Estate Live in This Vicinity.

Visions of wealth loom up before James E. Heydenreich, a motorman in the employ of the East Liverpool Railway company, who lives at the corner of Mulberry street and Pennsylvania avenue. As can be seen from the name, Heydenreich is a German, although he was born in this country, as was his father. He is a descendant of a prominent and wealthy line of ancestors, who have lived for years at Rennesburg, Germany, some of whom have held important and responsible positions during the past fifty years under the imperial government.

A few days ago young Heydenreich received an official looking document, bearing the German stamp, and sealed by the town court of Rennesburg. It was a big surprise to him and he had not the slighest idea of its import, knowing that his relative had died a year or more ago. He took the missive to a German friend, as he cannot read the language, and had it translated. He was amazed to learn that he had been named in the will which had only recently been filed in the court. He is to receive 2,500 marks as his portion and there are numerous other bequests to heirs now living in Ohio and West Virginia. The relative was Mrs. Ada Hedwig, postmistress at Rennesburg.

This, however, is but a small portion of the Heydenreich estate. There is a fortune of 310,000 marks yet to be divided and it is stated that Hugo Heydenreich, a wealthy citizen of Parkersburg, had already claimed and received a portion of it.

The knowledge of his good luck did did not disconcert young Heydenreich and he has kept right at his work on the cars. It was not until this morning that he consulted an attorney, he placing the matter in the hands of George E. Davidson, who is thoroughly conversant with the German language. The proper steps to secure his portion of the legacy will be taken at once.

A number of the heirs mentioned in the will live at Zanesville.

Odd Fellows Election.

The Odd Fellows of the East End are preparing to entertain their brethren of East Liverpool lodge No. 379, and Line Island lodge, of Smith's Ferry. A committee on arrangements has been appointed and it will meet tomorrow evening to perfect the plans. Larkin & Ferguson hall has been selected as the place and Friday, November 14, as the date, for the entertainment. It is likely that a banquet will be one of the leading features.

Gate Posts In Position.

Already considerable work has been done toward erecting the safety gates at the Mulberry street crossing. This morning the iron devices to support the gates had been placed in position, and the remainder of the work will be pushed to an early completion, so far as the C. & P., is concerned. If the railroad will now build the long hoped for passenger station, the people of the East End will be satisfied.

Will Entertain Pupils.

Mrs. Martha Pittinger, of First avenue, will entertain her Sunday school class, consisting of thirteen young ladies, from the Second U. P. church, this evening. Among the other amusements provided is a game called "Dressing the New Woman," that will create a great deal of amusement. Refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served.

To Play at Beaver.

The members of the Marine Athletic club will meet tonight at Columbian park to make arrangements for their trip to Beaver Saturday where they will play a game of football with the team of that city. A full attendance of the players is desired. The boys have been practicing hard all week, and are confident of a victory.

Select the good, avoid the bad, then you will always use Meredith's Diamond Club Pure Rye Whiskey; price fair, goods guaranteed.

IT MUST COME.

As inevitable as the changing seasons of the year is the change which comes to every woman. And just as one anticipates the changes of other seasons it is wise to anticipate this change of season and prepare for it. In this way the discomforts and disasters suffered by many women at the period of change can be avoided or overcome.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a medicine for every season of woman's life, will entirely meet the needs of women at this period of change. It cures the physical ills and relieves the mental anxiety and depression usually associated with this critical period. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces refreshing sleep.

J. S. Carlisle, Esq., of Manchester, Coffee Co., Tenn., writes: "I have been using your medicines for the last sixteen or eighteen years in my Poor-house. I am superintendent of the 'Coffee County Poor-house and Asylum combined. Your 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' are the best medicines for the diseases for which they are recommended, that I ever used. They saved my wife's life at the time of 'change of life.' I have been recommending your medicine to many afflicted women and have also guaranteed that if it did not cure I would pay back the money spent for it. I have told our druggist that if the people came back and said Doctor Pierce's medicines did not give satisfaction, to give them back their money and charge it to me. I have not once been called upon to refund. I have never found anything to equal the 'Favorite Prescription' for diseases of women."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Grip

Brought On Sciatic Rheumatism.

Nervous Prostration Followed.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Gave Back Health.

"I was laid up during the winter of 94-95 with sciatic rheumatism and nervous prostration brought on by a severe attack of La-Grippe. The rheumatic pains were so severe at times that it was impossible for me to turn in bed. I was unable to sleep. I had two of our best physicians in attendance, took all the advertised remedies for troubles of this kind but got no help whatever until I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Six bottles restored me to health; I am better than for years; in fact am entirely relieved. I can say with a clear conscience that it was Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine that restored me to health. When the pains of sciatica and rheumatism were most severe I secured almost immediate relief by the use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. I have recommended Dr. Miles' Remedies to many people."—Fred Myers, Redfield, S. D.

"I was taken with pain in my heart and under the left shoulder; with such heavy oppressed feeling in my chest that I could hardly breathe. I had palpitation so bad and my heart would throb so that it would shake my whole bed. I also had a weak, all-gone feeling in the region of my heart. My doctor treated me for liver and stomach trouble but I failed to receive any benefit until a friend recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Restorative Nervine. I used both and one box of the Anti-Pain Pills. I believe I am completely and permanently cured."—Mrs. J. W. Golding, Noblesville, Ind.

OHIO SHOWS GAINS.

Fuller Returns Shows Increase Majority For the State Ticket.

A LARGE VOTE WAS POLLED.

Chairman Dick Claims Plurality of the Republican State Ticket Will Be Over 90,000—Mayor Tom Johnson Defeated.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 6.—One hundred and ninety precincts out of 199 in Cleveland give Laylin, Rep., for secretary of state, 25,559, and Bigelow, Dem., 30,423. The Democrats have elected Lawrence, Tilden and Beacom common pleas judges; Starr, circuit judge; Salen, county clerk; Stage, solicitor, and Burke, coroner. The Republicans elect Kennedy common pleas judge; Barry, sheriff; Evers, surveyor, and White, probate court. Burton and Beidler, Republican congressmen, are re-elected.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—Chairman Dick, at the Republican headquarters late last night, had complete returns from 86 of the 88 Ohio counties, showing a Republican plurality for state candidates of 90,807. The two counties not heard from are Putnam and Noble. The former gave a Democratic plurality of 1,451 and the latter a Republican plurality of 751 last year. Deducting this difference of 700, he estimated the Republican plurality in Ohio at 90,107, but he expects both Putnam and Noble counties will show Republican gains and that the official vote will exceed these figures. Although seventeen counties have not returned their total vote, it is estimated as close to 800,000.

Toledo, Nov. 6.—Toledo complete gives Laylin, Rep., 11,582; Bigelow, 6,512. In 1901 the city gave Nash, Rep., 10,455; Kilbourne, Dem., 9,975. The entire Republican county ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 3,000 to 7,000. Congressman Southard leads the Republican ticket with a majority of 7,000 in the county.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—In this (Franklin) county, which also constitutes the Twelfth congressional district, the Republican plurality in the state ticket is 2,000, while Huling, the Republican candidate for congress, is defeated by 500, due to local opposition to Huling.

ODELL'S PLURALITY 12,885.

State Legislature Is Controlled by the Republicans.

New York, Nov. 6.—Official figures on the vote for governor vary but little from the unofficial reports. According to returns made to the executive at Albany by the several county clerks, the plurality for Odell, Rep., is 12,887. Only three counties above the Bronx were carried by the Democratic nominee, the aggregate plurality for Coler in these counties being 1,011. This and the Greater New York plurality of 122,074 given to Coler was met and overcome by an upstate Republican plurality of 135,972, the difference being a net plurality of 12,887, against 111,126 been more successful as regards the minor offices than in the case of the governor. In some quarters it is asserted that by reason of his endorsement by the Prohibitionists, Cunneen, the Democratic nominee for attorney general, has made such gains over the head of the ticket that he has been elected. There are also claims that when the returns for judge of the court of appeals are all in it will be found that Judge Gray has defeated his Republican opponent.

The state legislature is controlled by the Republicans by a reduced majority, but one so large as to admit of no doubt of the return of Mr. Platt to the United States senate.

The New York delegation in the lower house of the Fifty-eighth congress will number 37, instead of 34, as in the present congress. It will contain 20 Republicans and 17 Democrats, whereas the present delegation stood 22 Republicans and 12 Democrats. All of the more noted members of the delegation have been returned, including Sereno E. Payne, chairman of the ways and means committee.

Not the Success Anticipated.

Copenhagen, Denmark, Nov. 6.—The time for subscribing to the stock of the Danish West Indian company expired yesterday. Of the about $1,000,000 nominal capital, only one-fifth was subscribed for, notwithstanding the advertisement given to the concern by King Christian and Crown Prince Frederick taking stock. The promoters, who are anti-salers, are downcast because of the weakness of the sentiment in favor of aiding the Danish West Indies.

The leaders of the movement intend to appeal to King George of Greece, Queen Alexandra and the Dowager Czarina of Russia to buy shares. The banks and a few individuals will probably finance the matter and stand the losses, since the treaty providing for the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States was rejected partly on account of their promises.

VISIONS OF WEALTH FOR A MOTORMAN

Heydenreich Gets a Share of a German Estate of 310,000 Marks.

STILL MORE TO BE DIVIDED

The Young Man Still Continues His Work On the Street Railway—Other Heirs to the Estate Live in This Vicinity.

Visions of wealth loom up before James E. Heydenreich, a motorman in the employ of the East Liverpool Railway company, who lives at the corner of Mulberry street and Pennsylvania avenue. As can be seen from the name, Heydenreich is a German, although he was born in this country, as was his father. He is a descendant of a prominent and wealthy line of ancestors, who have lived for years at Rennesburg, Germany, some of whom have held important and responsible positions during the past fifty years under the imperial government.

A few days ago young Heydenreich received an official looking document, bearing the German stamp, and sealed by the town court of Rennesburg. It was a big surprise to him and he had not the slighest idea of its import, knowing that his relative had died a year or more ago. He took the missive to a German friend, as he cannot read the language, and had it translated. He was amazed to learn that he had been named in the will which had only recently been filed in the court. He is to receive 2,500 marks as his portion and there are numerous other bequests to heirs now living in Ohio and West Virginia. The relative was Mrs. Ada Hedwig, postmistress at Rennesburg.

This, however, is but a small portion of the Heydenreich estate. There is a fortune of 310,000 marks yet to be divided and it is stated that Hugo Heydenreich, a wealthy citizen of Parkersburg, had already claimed and received a portion of it.

The knowledge of his good luck did did not disconcert young Heydenreich and he has kept right at his work on the cars. It was not until this morning that he consulted an attorney, he placing the matter in the hands of George E. Davidson, who is thoroughly conversant with the German language. The proper steps to secure his portion of the legacy will be taken at once.

A number of the heirs mentioned in the will live at Zanesville.

Odd Fellows Election.

The Odd Fellows of the East End are preparing to entertain their brethren of East Liverpool lodge No. 379, and Line Island lodge, of Smith's Ferry. A committee on arrangements has been appointed and it will meet tomorrow evening to perfect the plans. Larkin & Ferguson hall has been selected as the place and Friday, November 14, as the date, for the entertainment. It is likely that a banquet will be one of the leading features.

Gate Posts In Position.

Already considerable work has been done toward erecting the safety gates at the Mulberry street crossing. This morning the iron devices to support the gates had been placed in position, and the remainder of the work will be pushed to an early completion, so far as the C. & P., is concerned. If the railroad will now build the long hoped for passenger station, the people of the East End will be satisfied.

Will Entertain Pupils.

Mrs. Martha Pittinger, of First avenoe, will entertain her Sunday school class, consisting of thirteen young ladies, from the Second U. P. church, this evening. Among the other amusements provided is a game called "Dressing the New Woman," that will create a great deal of amusement. Refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served.

To Play at Beaver.

The members of the Marine Athletic club will meet tonight at Columbian park to make arrangements for their trip to Beaver Saturday where they will play a game of football with the team of that city. A full attendance of the players is desired. The boys have been practicing hard all week, and are confident of a victory.

IT MUST COME.

As inevitable as the changing seasons of the year is the change which comes to every woman. And just as one anticipates the changes of other seasons it is wise to anticipate this change of season and prepare for it. In this way the discomforts and disasters suffered by many women at the period of change can be avoided or overcome.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a medicine for every season of woman's life, will entirely meet the needs of women at this period of change. It cures the physical ills and relieves the mental anxiety and depression usually associated with this critical period. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces refreshing sleep.

J. S. Carlisle, Esq., of Manchester, Coffee Co., Tenn., writes: "I have been using your medicines for the last sixteen or eighteen years in my Poor-house. I am superintendent of the 'Coffee County Poor-house and Asylum combined. Your 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' are the best medicines for the diseases for which they are recommended, that I ever used. They saved my wife's life at the time of 'change of life.' I have been recommending your medicine to many afflicted women and have also guaranteed that if it did not cure I would pay back the money spent for it. I have told our druggist that if the people came back and said Doctor Pierce's medicines did not give satisfaction, to give them back their money and charge it to me. I have not once been called upon to refund. I have never found anything to equal the 'Favorite Prescription' for diseases of women."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Grip

Brought On Sciatic Rheumatism.

Nervous Prostration Followed.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Gave Back Health.

"I was laid up during the winter of 04-05 with sciatic rheumatism and nervous prostration brought on by a severe attack of La-Grippe. The rheumatic pains were so severe at times that it was impossible for me to turn in bed. I was unable to sleep. I had two of our best physicians in attendance, took all the advertised remedies for troubles of this kind but got no help whatever until I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Six bottles restored me to health; I am better than for years; in fact am entirely relieved. I can say with a clear conscience that it was Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine that restored me to health. When the pains of sciatica and rheumatism were most severe I secured almost immediate relief by the use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. I have recommended Dr. Miles' Remedies to many people."—Fred Myers, Redfield, S. D.

"I was taken with pain in my heart and under the left shoulder; with such heavy oppressed feeling in my chest that I could hardly breathe. I had palpitation so bad and my heart would throb so that it would shake my whole bed. I also had a weak, all-gone feeling in the region of my heart. My doctor treated me for liver and stomach trouble but I failed to receive any benefit until a friend recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Restorative Nervine. I used both and one box of the Anti-Pain Pills. I believe I am completely and permanently cured."—Mrs. J. W. Golding, Noblesville, Ind.

OHIO SHOWS GAINS.

Fuller Returns Shows Increase Majority For the State Ticket.

A LARGE VOTE WAS POLLED.

Chairman Dick Claims Plurality of the Republican State Ticket Will Be Over 90,000—Mayor Tom Johnson Defeated.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 6.—One hundred and ninety precincts out of 199 in Cleveland give Laylin, Rep., for secretary of state, 25,559, and Bigelow, Dem., 30,423. The Democrats have elected Lawrence, Tilden and Beacom common pleas judges; Starr, circuit judge; Salen, county clerk; Stage, solicitor, and Burke, coroner. The Republicans elect Kennedy common pleas judge; Barry, sheriff; Evers, surveyor, and White, probate court. Burton and Beidler, Republican congressmen, are re-elected.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—Chairman Dick, at the Republican headquarters late last night, had complete returns from 86 of the 88 Ohio counties, showing a Republican plurality for state candidates of 90,807. The two counties not heard from are Putnam and Noble. The former gave a Democratic plurality of 1,451 and the latter a Republican plurality of 751 last year. Deducting this difference of 700, he estimated the Republican plurality in Ohio at 90,107, but he expects both Putnam and Noble counties will show Republican gains and that the official vote will exceed these figures. Although seventeen counties have not returned their total vote, it is estimated as close to 800,000.

Toledo, Nov. 6.—Toledo complete gives Laylin, Rep., 11,582; Bigelow, 6,512. In 1901 the city gave Nash, Rep., 10,455; Kilbourne, Dem., 9,975. The entire Republican county ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 3,000 to 7,000. Congressman Southard leads the Republican ticket with a majority of 7,000 in the county.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—In this (Franklin) county, which also constitutes the Twelfth congressional district, the Republican plurality in the state ticket is 2,000, while Huling, the Republican candidate for congress, is defeated by 500, due to local opposition to Huling.

ODELL'S PLURALITY 12,885.

State Legislature Is Controlled by the Republicans.

New York, Nov. 6.—Official figures on the vote for governor vary but little from the unofficial reports. According to returns made to the executive at Albany by the several county clerks, the plurality for Odell, Rep., is 12,887. Only three counties above the Bronx were carried by the Democratic nominee, the aggregate plurality for Coler in these counties being 1,011. This and the Greater New York plurality of 122,074 given to Coler was met and overcome by an upstate Republican plurality of 135,972, the difference being a net plurality of 12,887, against 111,126 been more successful as regards the minor offices than in the case of the governor. In some quarters it is asserted that by reason of his endorsement by the Prohibitionists, Cunneen, the Democratic nominee for attorney general, has made such gains over the head of the ticket that he has been elected. There are also claims that when the returns for judge of the court of appeals are all in it will be found that Judge Gray has defeated his Republican opponent.

The state legislature is controlled by the Republicans by a reduced majority, but one so large as to admit of no doubt of the return of Mr. Platt to the United States senate.

The New York delegation in the lower house of the Fifty-eighth congress will number 37, instead of 34, as in the present congress. It will contain 20 Republicans and 17 Democrats, whereas the present delegation stood 22 Republicans and 12 Democrats. All of the more noted members of the delegation have been returned, including Sereno E. Payne, chairman of the ways and means committee.

ALLIED PRINTING TRADES UNION LABEL COUNCIL EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1902.

The political contest in New York over-shadowed that in any other state. The Democrats there based their hopes of success not only on the off-year idea, but on the belief that there was a large number of Republican voters who were not in full accord with President Roosevelt, and would not vote to support his administration. Then, too, in the cities comprising Greater New York, the Democratic factional war had died out, and the party was able to present a united front to the forces of Republicanism. But they failed to understand that, while some Republican politicians, notably those in the metropolis, were lukewarm in their adhesion to the president and his policies, the vast mass of the voters in the country districts believe in Mr. Roosevelt most heartily. The count of the ballots developed this error in their judgment. While the metropolis returned a phenomenal Democratic plurality, the honest, thinking voters of the remainder of the Empire state gave their endorsement of the Republican party and a Republican national administration by so thumping a plurality that it overcame the reactionary and socialistic Democracy of Greater New York, and re-elected Governor Odell and the Republican state ticket by a safe plurality. The great state has done nobly.

Five Republican congressmen are elected in West Virginia. Doubtless the state would have elected twice that number had it been entitled to them. West Virginia is prosperous and appreciates the fact. New towns and new industries are springing up all over the state and an intelligent and enterprising population is flocking in. That is the sort of population that appreciates the fact that business interests, to be safe, must be protected, and votes accordingly.

In another column we publish a candid and thoughtful article on the subject of Ohio river improvement. It will repay careful perusal on the part of every business man. East Liverpool is going to be heard from at the Parkersburg convention and to make her influence count. The agitation now begun will bear fruit if effort is not relaxed. Keeping everlastingly at it is the way to get what you want from congress.

Reports of night prowlers and suspicious characters continuing to frighten people in various parts of the city are eloquent arguments in favor of the strict enforcement of the mayor's edict to rid the city of all such characters.

It may be accepted as final that Theodore Roosevelt will be the Republican presidential candidate in 1904, if he lives. He is a fearless statesman and a splendid American.

There are other things to be thankful for besides the fact that the election is over. For instance, East Liverpool has had one day without a morning fog.

The Republican majority in congress is still growing. Democrats always succeed best in figuring up their gains before the returns are all in.

And now some Democrats are saying they were beaten by their "fool friends." But why use the plural in speaking of Tom Johnson?

The more Kennedy's vote is analyzed the more eloquently it speaks of the sentiment of the people against tariff-tinkering.

The only portion of Ohio where Tom Johnson got any support was in Cleveland, and he did his campaigning away from there.

Foot ball games in which nobody's collarbone or shoulder blade is broken would be a popular innovation.

The best thing Tom Johnson can do is to pay his back taxes and start up Salt river.

OBITUARY

Christian Craft.

The sudden and unexpected death yesterday afternoon of Christian Craft, at his home in Oakland, was a grievous surprise to his relatives and many friends. He had been ill for some time of asthma and last Monday a physician was called to see him, but there was nothing alarming in his symptoms at this time. Yesterday morning he complained of suffering internally during the night, but was in good spirits during the forenoon. At noon he was given some light nourishment and his wife and daughter, Mrs. Eckhart, left him for a few moments to attend to some household duties. Mrs. Eckhart returned in a short time and found him dead. The cause of death is attributed to an attack of neuralgia of the heart.

He was born in Hesse, Germany, in 1832, and come to this country 21 years ago, locating in Pittsburg. For many years he operated a cigar factory on Kincaid street. He came to this city about three months ago and bought a home in Oakland, where he resided up to the time of his death. A wife and three children, Mrs. Eckhart, residing with her parents; August Craft, of the East End, and another daughter living in Knoxville, Pa., survive him. He was a highly esteemed old gentleman and a member of several secret societies. The funeral services will be held some time during Saturday, the burial to be either at Riverview cemetery or at Pittsburg.

George R. Wilson.

Salem, November 6.—George R. Wilson died at his home here yesterday, aged 62 years. He had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for nearly a year, having been confined to his bed since last May. Mr. Wilson was born in Beaver county, Pa., and resided there the greater part of his life. His wife died nine years ago and one year ago he moved here from East Palestine, where he had resided for a short time. L. L. Wilson and Nettie F. Wilson, both of this city, are the only children. The remains were taken this morning to East Palestine. From there they were taken overland to the New Salem Presbyterian church, in Beaver county, where services were held about 3 o'clock.

Mrs. William Metz.

Columbiana, November 6.—Mrs. William Metz, living east of town, upon whom an operation was performed at Riverside hospital, Lisbon, about three weeks ago, died at the hospital Tuesday morning. She recovered from the operation and her death was caused by tubercular trouble and dropsy. Mrs. Metz was 50 years of age, a member of Grace Reformed church and a most excellent woman. She is survived by a husband and three children. The children are Mrs. Harvey Rich, of East Palestine; Mrs. Elmer May, of New Springfield, and Webster, who lives at home. Funeral services were held at 10:30, Rev. Fred Cromer officiating.

Mrs. Esther Feezel.

Mrs. Lulu Huston, of this city, left yesterday for Clarkson to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Esther Feezel, which occurred this morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. Mr. McCombs preaching the sermon. Mrs. Feezel had been sick but a few hours when death came. Together with Mrs. Huston, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Sadie Hickman, and a son, Alfred, both of Clarkson. AT THE THEATER

Among the many attractions booked to appear at the Grand is one that calls for more than ordinary comment. It is a magnificent production of "The Gates of Justice," produced under the personal direction of Harry Jackson, author of "Over the Sea," "The Denver Express" and other well known successes. It abounds in thrilling climaxes, abundance of clean comedy, a beautiful story well told and a number of the most sensational features ever seen upon any stage. At the Grand tonight.

Harry Emery's big production of "The Burglar And the Waif" comes to the Grand November 8. It is from the pen of C. T. Dazey, who has a number of successes to his credit. It is a play of the real sort and said to be true to life and fairly bristling with that magnetic quality which for a better name we will call heart interest, because it touches the heart, plays upon the emotions and appeals to the better side of mankind.

Thrilling classic of the sea? Frank S. Davidson has dramatized Robinson Cruso, holding vital theme, showing Crusoe sailing from home, the wreck of his ill-fated ship on the island of Despair in the South Seas. Mr. Van Osten has given a sumptuous staging, and in addition to this he carries a Marine band and orchestra of 20 musicians. At the Grand Friday night.

A play which never lacks interest and which can be witnessed with the same enthusiasm the second time as was the first, is the general verdict of all who have witnessed the splendid scenic production of "The Electrician," which is the initial performance with which the Irene Myers company will open their week's engagement at the Grand commencing next Monday evening.

"Ten Nights in a Barroom" was played by a competent company to a crowded house at the Grand last evening. It is an old but wholesome play, and the favor with which it was received shows that performances which teach a healthy lesson are still popular.

ALLIED PRINTING TRADES UNION LABEL COUNCIL EAST LIVERPOOL O.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1902.

The political contest in New York over-shadowed that in any other state. The Democrats there based their hopes of success not only on the off-year idea, but on the belief that there was a large number of Republican voters who were not in full accord with President Roosevelt, and would not vote to support his administration. Then, too, in the cities comprising Greater New York, the Democratic factional war had died out, and the party was able to present a united front to the forces of Republicanism. But they failed to understand that, while some Republican politicians, notably those in the metropolis, were lukewarm in their adhesion to the president and his policies, the vast mass of the voters in the country districts believe in Mr. Roosevelt most heartily. The count of the ballots developed this error in their judgment. While the metropolis returned a phenomenal Democratic plurality, the honest, thinking voters of the remainder of the Empire state gave their endorsement of the Republican party and a Republican national administration by so thumping a plurality that it overcame the reactionary and socialistic Democracy of Greater New York, and re-elected Governor Odell and the Republican state ticket by a safe plurality. The great state has done nobly.

Five Republican congressmen are elected in West Virginia. Doubtless the state would have elected twice that number had it been entitled to them. West Virginia is prosperous and appreciates the fact. New towns and new industries are springing up all over the state and an intelligent and enterprising population is flocking in. That is the sort of population that appreciates the fact that business interests, to be safe, must be protected, and votes accordingly.

In another column we publish a candid and thoughtful article on the subject of Ohio river improvement. It will repay careful perusal on the part of every business man. East Liverpool is going to be heard from at the Parkersburg convention and to make her influence count. The agitation now begun will bear fruit if effort is not relaxed. Keeping everlastingly at it is the way to get what you want from congress.

Reports of night prowlers and suspicious characters continuing to frighten people in various parts of the city are eloquent arguments in favor of the strict enforcement of the mayor's edict to rid the city of all such characters.

It may be accepted as final that Theodore Roosevelt will be the Republican presidential candidate in 1904, if he lives. He is a fearless statesman and a splendid American.

There are other things to be thankful for besides the fact that the election is over. For instance, East Liverpool has had one day without a morning fog.

The Republican majority in congress is still growing. Democrats always succeed best in figuring up their gains before the returns are all in.

And now some Democrats are saying they were beaten by their "fool friends." But why use the plural in speaking of Tom Johnson?

The more Kennedy's vote is analyzed the more eloquently it speaks of the sentiment of the people against tariff-tinkering.

The only portion of Ohio where Tom Johnson got any support was in Cleveland, and he did his campaigning away from there.

Foot ball games in which nobody's collarbone or shoulder blade is broken would be a popular innovation.

The best thing Tom Johnson can do is to pay his back taxes and start up Salt river.

OBITUARY

Christian Craft.

The sudden and unexpected death yesterday afternoon of Christian Craft, at his home in Oakland, was a grievous surprise to his relatives and many friends. He had been ill for some time of asthma and last Monday a physician was called to see him, but there was nothing alarming in his symptoms at this time. Yesterday morning he complained of suffering internally during the night, but was in good spirits during the forenoon. At noon he was given some light nourishment and his wife and daughter, Mrs. Eckhart, left him for a few moments to attend to some household duties. Mrs. Eckhart returned in a short time and found him dead. The cause of death is attributed to an attack of neuralgia of the heart.

He was born in Hesse, Germany, in 1832, and come to this country 21 years ago, locating in Pittsburg. For many years he operated a cigar factory on Kincaid street. He came to this city about three months ago and bought a home in Oakland, where he resided up to the time of his death. A wife and three children, Mrs. Eckhart, residing with her parents; August Craft, of the East End, and another daughter living in Knoxville, Pa., survive him. He was a highly esteemed old gentleman and a member of several secret societies. The funeral services will be held some time during Saturday, the burial to be either at Riverview cemetery or at Pittsburg.

George R. Wilson.

Salem, November 6.—George R. Wilson died at his home here yesterday, aged 62 years. He had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for nearly a year, having been confined to his bed since last May. Mr. Wilson was born in Beaver county, Pa., and resided there the greater part of his life. His wife died nine years ago and one year ago he moved here from East Palestine, where he had resided for a short time. L. L. Wilson and Nettie F. Wilson, both of this city, are the only children. The remains were taken this morning to East Palestine. From there they were taken overland to the New Salem Presbyterian church, in Beaver county, where services were held about 3 o'clock.

Mrs. William Metz.

Columbiana, November 6.—Mrs. William Metz, living east of town, upon whom an operation was performed at Riverside hospital, Lisbon, about three weeks ago, died at the hospital Tuesday morning. She recovered from the operation and her death was caused by tubercular trouble and dropsy. Mrs. Metz was 50 years of age, a member of Grace Reformed church and a most excellent woman. She is survived by a husband and three children. The children are Mrs. Harvey Rich, of East Palestine; Mrs. Elmer May, of New Springfield, and Webster, who lives at home. Funeral services were held at 10:30, Rev. Fred Cromer officiating.

Mrs. Esther Feezel.

Mrs. Lulu Huston, of this city, left yesterday for Clarkson to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Esther Feezel, which occurred this morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. Mr. McCombs preaching the sermon. Mrs. Feezel had been sick but a few hours when death came Together with Mrs. Huston, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Sadie Hickman, and a son, Alfred, both of Clarkson. the majority of the residents. Within the past six months he returned from the penitentiary at Columbus, where he served a term for shooting in the West End. The sentence that can be imposed upon a person found guilty of the charge preferred against Hopkins is not less than one year and not more than 20 years in the penitentiary.

Hopkins was arrested this morning at about 11 o'clock by Officers Rhue and Morley. He was taken to the city hall without the least trouble. His face was badly bruised, giving every evidence of having been in a mixup, and he presented a sight almost as bad as did Burgess. To the charge he pleaded not guilty, and stated that he was only guilty of fighting in self defense.

His story of the affair does not tally in any particular with that offered by Burgess. He said in the presence of the mayor that he went into the saloon and bought a drink, handed a quarter to the bartender and was waiting on the change when two men started at him with chairs raised above their heads. He also said that he would never had cut any one had he not been forced to in self defense. The mayor bound him over to court, that being all that he could do under the circumstances.

Mayor Davidson set the time for Hopkins' preliminary hearing for 2 o'clock, this afternoon, but owing to an unexpected happening the hearing was postponed until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. In answer to a summons Burgess reluctantly appeared in the mayor's office to be present at the hearing and while sitting there he fell over in a faint. He was removed to his home in a carriage, and it is barely possible that he may not be sufficiently recovered tomorrow to leave his bed. If so, the hearing will be postponed again. He is suffering greatly from his wounds and is weak from loss of blood.

WELLSVILLE

A FINE CONCERT

Marks the Opening of the High School Entertainment Course in Wellsville.

One of the finest entertainments in the way of a concert that Wellsville people have had the opportunity of listening to for many months was that given last evening in the opera house by the Slayton Woman's Symphony orchestra, who came here under the direction of the Brockway Lecture bureau.

It was the first entertainment of the winter series to be given for the benefit of the high school. This course was gotten up by C. J. Berg, a local newspaper man, but the entire proceeds are to go into a fund for the high school library.

Of the entertainment too much cannot be said. The Hecker quartet soloists were of a high order and each individual part of the entertainment went to show that the orchestra is one of the finest musical organizations that ever appeared in this city.

The next entertainment on the winter course will be the Brockway Jubilee Singers. They will be here and appear in the opera house on the evening of December 25.

AGAINST EMPIRE TEAM

Arrangements for an Interesting Match With the Brunos Saturday.

Manager Bunting, of the Bruno Athletic foot ball team of this city, is making arrangements with the manager of the strong Empire team for a game to be played at the latter town Saturday afternoon. The Empire team was successful in holding down the West End Rovers, of East Liverpool, in a game recently, neither side being able to score. The Empire team is much stronger than the Brunos, averaging in weight nearly 15 pounds more to the man.

The game will probably be one of the fastest of the season for the Brunos. The local team has not been scored against this season. They will endeavor to maintain this record in the Saturday game. According to present arrangements the Wellsville boys will go to Empire on the 3 o'clock train and return on the "growler."

C. & P. IMPROVEMENTS

Additions to the Shops—Extension of Yard Facilities Talked Of.

Work upon the improvements at the C. & P. shops at Twelfth street is progressing rapidly, and it is expected that everything will be finished before the first of next month. The new blacksmith repair shop will be a great improvement, and is much needed.

It has been rumored that the C. & P. will soon purchase the low land property lying just below the Carroll-Porter boiler works for yardage purposes, being seriously crowded with the present facilities for handling freight. If the land is purchased it will probably mean eventually the extending of the yards to Yellow Creek.

Arrested For Train Jumping.

George Kineskey and Joseph Crites, foreign laboring men, were arrested at 2 o'clock a. m., in the C. & P. yards by Detective Moore, of the railroad company. They were charged with train jumping. Before Mayor Fogo they pleaded not guilty. They said that they had walked from Toronto to this city being too poor to pay their railroad fare. Both claim they were looking for work. They are still locked up pending more thorough investigation.

WELLSVILLE SHORT STORIES.

ANOTHER RACE

Owners of Billy W And Maud M Want a Match And Will Probably Have It.

There is some talk of another race between Billy W, owned by Frank Dickey, and Maud M, owned by G. W. Meredith. These horses raced a very pretty match race at Columbian park Tuesday afternoon, Billy W winning after five hard heats. The backers of Maud M are positive that she is the fastest horse, and Billy W having backers equally as confident of his ability, it is almost an assured fact that the race will come off. Many contend that had Maud M had an experienced driver Tuesday she would have been the winner.

Mr. Dickey when seen today stated that nothing had been definitely arranged for the match, but thought that it would likely occur.

Our Anniversary Month.

Sixteen years ago this month we began business in East Liverpool.

We began with a floor space of 800 square feet. Six times we have moved and enlarged until now we have more than 40,000 square feet.

We wanted to show you pictures of our stores at the different times in our history, but the engravers disappointed us.

We're sorry for this for they would have given you a good idea of our enormous growth.

As it is we'll have to ask you to consider this line —

OIL BUSINESS ACTIVE

The Carson Field a Money-Maker. More New Wells Started.

Work in the Carson oil field still continues unabated. Miller & Murray commenced another well on the Samuel Carson farm Monday. Freshwater & Son's well on the Carson Bros.' farm was started to pumping yesterday and will make 20 barrels a day.

Freshwater & Carson and Freshwater & Son, who have been selling their oil to the Eureka Oil company, controlled by the Standard, have cancelled their contracts with that company and are negotiating today with another company for the sale of it.

Several wells in the field which are producing gas have been fitted up and the farmers in the vicinity are having it put in their homes. John R. Scott, who has a good gas well on his farm, is fitting his house and will use gas for heating and lighting. Luther Carson, James Carson, Mack Carson and Joseph Ramsey each have put gas in their homes.

This field has been a money-maker, although no enormously big wells have been struck. It bids fair to be a good stayer.

To Operate Near Chester.

The La Belle Oil & Gas company, of Wellsburg, has been chartered with a capital stock of $6,000. The incorporators are J. E. Wright, of Steubenville; G. W. Hannan, George E. House, Ed Jones and A. A. Franzheim, of Wheeling. The company will commence operations at once near Chester. Two wells have been located, one on Chief J. H. Allison's farm and one on Lee O. Conant's farm near Fairview.

He was found by the roadside dead.

the majority of the residents. Within the past six months he returned from the penitentiary at Columbus, where he served a term for shooting in the West End. The sentence that can be imposed upon a person found guilty of the charge preferred against Hopkins is not less than one year and not more than 20 years in the penitentiary.

Hopkins was arrested this morning at about 11 o'clock by Officers Rhue and Morley. He was taken to the city hall without the least trouble. His face was badly bruised, giving every evidence of having been in a mixup, and he presented a sight almost as bad as did Burgess. To the charge he pleaded not guilty, and stated that he was only guilty of fighting in self defense.

His story of the affair does not tally in any particular with that offered by Burgess. He said in the presence of the mayor that he went into the saloon and bought a drink, handed a quarter to the bartender and was waiting on the change when two men started at him with chairs raised above their heads. He also said that he would never had cut any one had he not been forced to in self defense. The mayor bound him over to court, that being all that he could do under the circumstances.

Mayor Davidson set the time for Hopkins' preliminary hearing for 2 o'clock this afternoon, but owing to an unexpected happening the hearing was postponed until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. In answer to a summons Burgess reluctantly appeared in the mayor's office to be present at the hearing and while sitting there he fell over in a faint. He was removed to his home in a carriage, and it is barely possible that he may not be sufficiently recovered tomorrow to leave his bed. If so, the hearing will be postponed again. He is suffering greatly from his wounds and is weak from loss of blood.

WELLSVILLE

A FINE CONCERT

Marks the Opening of the High School Entertainment Course in Wellsville.

One of the finest entertainments in the way of a concert that Wellsville people have had the opportunity of listening to for many months was that given last evening in the opera house by the Slayton Woman's Symphony orchestra, who came here under the direction of the Brockway Lecture bureau.

It was the first entertainment of the winter series to be given for the benefit of the high school. This course was gotten up by C. J. Berg, a local newspaper man, but the entire proceeds are to go into a fund for the high school library.

Of the entertainment too much cannot be said. The Hecker quartet soloists were of a high order and each individual part of the entertainment went to show that the orchestra is one of the finest musical organizations that ever appeared in this city.

The next entertainment on the winter course will be the Brockway Jubilee Singers. They will be here and appear in the opera house on the evening of December 25.

AGAINST EMPIRE TEAM

Arrangements for an Interesting Match With the Brunos Saturday.

Manager Bunting, of the Bruno Athletic foot ball team of this city, is making arrangements with the manager of the strong Empire team for a game to be played at the latter town Saturday afternoon. The Empire team was successful in holding down the West End Rovers, of East Liverpool, in a game recently, neither side being able to score. The Empire team is much stronger than the Brunos, averaging in weight nearly 15 pounds more to the man.

The game will probably be one of the fastest of the season for the Brunos. The local team has not been scored against this season. They will endeavor to maintain this record in the Saturday game. According to present arrangements the Wellsville boys will go to Empire on the 3 o'clock train and return on the "growler."

C. & P. IMPROVEMENTS

Additions to the Shops—Extension of Yard Facilities Talked Of.

Work upon the improvements at the C. & P. shops at Twelfth street is progressing rapidly, and it is expected that everything will be finished before the first of next month. The new blacksmith repair shop will be a great improvement, and is much needed.

It has been rumored that the C. & P. will soon purchase the low land property lying just below the Carroll-Porter boiler works for yardage purposes, being seriously crowded with the present facilities for handling freight. If the land is purchased it will probably mean eventually the extending of the yards to Yellow Creek.

Arrested For Train Jumping.

George Kineskey and Joseph Crites, foreign laboring men, were arrested at 2 o'clock a. m., in the C. & P. yards by Detective Moore, of the railroad company. They were charged with train jumping. Before Mayor Fogo they pleaded not guilty. They said that they had walked from Toronto to this city being too poor to pay their railroad fare. Both claim they were looking for work. They are still locked up pending more thorough investigation.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

A CHAPTER ON BELLEEK.

John Hart Brewer, of Trenton, N. J., first attempted the manufacture of Belleek ware in this country. He commenced his experiments in 1882, and in the following year brought over from England William Bromley and his son from the Belleek works in Ireland. Subsequently the elder Bromley joined the Willets Manufacturing company, of the same city, and introduced the manufacture of the egg shell there, and at the present time there are no less than five or six establishments in Trenton where the same class of ware is made. Among many specialties recently introduced is a new style of decoration which has been worked out by Miss Kate Seers, a Kansas girl, who studied modeling in Boston. Going to Trenton for the purpose of pursuing her studies in this direction, one day in 1891, while engaged in working over the wet Belleek, the idea of carving delicate designs in the dry clay occurred to her, and after conducting a series of experiments her efforts were crowned with success. The process of modeling which has been formed in the wet clay and dried is taken before it has been in the kiln, and with knives or other tools the design is cut so as to leave the background as thin and transparent as possible when finished. As the dry Belleek, besides being thin, is extremely brittle, and crumbles easily, the carving is an exceedingly difficult operation. It is a very slow process, necessarily, since at any moment the knife is liable to cut through the wall and ruin the piece. The marks which appear on the various productions of Belleek porcelain are of considerable interest to collectors and admirers of this beautiful ware. Mr. Goss has adopted as his factory mark his family crest, a falcon rising ducally gorged, which is printed on each piece in blank. The mark of the Belleek factory in Ireland consists of the four Irish emblems, the watch tower, the hound, the harp of Erin, and the shamrock, and is printed on that ware in green or black. The manufacture of Belleek ware was introduced into this country by English potters, who had learned the process at the potteries in England and Ireland, and could therefore lay claim to originality so far as the product is concerned, yet, in a measure, the ware as made in America differs materially from the foreign in many respects, and has been developed in new directions so far as it has come to have distinctive characteristics of its own which entitle it to be ranked with an original American production.

LARGE ADDITION PLANNED.

The officials of the Salem China company will soon put in a new fire protection system. It will be known as the sprinkling system. The company decided to do this before making any changes as has been contemplated for some time. Next spring it is the intention of the company to make a large addition to the plant. The business has increased to such an extent that it is necessary to make provisions to handle the trade. The sprinkling system to be placed in the pottery will be unlike any other in the city. Some idea of the vastness of the work will be known when it is stated that it will take three months to complete the work. When this system is once installed it will be practically impossible to destroy the plant by fire. Every inch of the ceiling and floor will be covered so that at a moment's notice the water can be turned on to quench an incipient blaze which appears in any way dangerous. The pottery officials will have special connections with the water works. The officials will not depend on the water secured from the waterworks alone and have decided to construct a large cistern to obtain all the water necessary. In addition to this the company will place in its own pumps. When completed the pottery people will have the most complete system of fire protection of any plant in the city.

ENGLISH TRADE IS BETTER.

The Staffordshire, England, Sentinel, of recent date, says there was a slight improvement in the condition of the potting industry during the past week. This improvement was not confined to one section of the trade, but reached nearly every department and was most pronounced in the Australian market and other colonial markets. Trade with the United States is slowly improving, and the demand for the best class of dinner ware is increasing, these being in most instances well decorated. Travelers out in the states speak more hopefully of better trade than for some time past. This applies all round, but more particularly to the electrical trade. Hollowware pressers are working more regularly, and sanitary pressers report employment as good in all branches. Flat pressers report employment as good in all lines and are working full time.

PAINFULLY INJURED.

Blaine Brown, a cousin of George Drake, of the glost kiln crew at the Union, was painfully injured on election day while hunting near Washington, Pa. There was a premature discharge of the gun and the contents entered his left hand, near the wrist. The wound is a serious one, but it is not known yet if amputation will be necessary.

COMPLAIN OF GARBAGE.

The jiggermen at the Union are complaining of the garbage barrels that line the alley west of the plant, between Walnua and Broadway. They cannot lower their windows on account of the stench, and unless the nuisance is soon abated the board of health will be notified.

LANDED FINE FISH.

Lambert Myers, bench boss of the biscuit end at Cartwright's, was one of a party of four that was fishing across the river from Walker one night last week. Mr. Lambert landed two nice 4-pound catfish, and a 3-pound perch. Altogether the party caught 52.

Elmer McDole, of the glost kiln crew at William H. Brunt's, will leave Saturday for Barberton to resume his old job as bench boss.

Frank Curry, a finisher at the Union, who has been seriously ill for a week with tonsilitis, was back at work again yesterday.

Al McShane, of the glost end at McNicol's, is extra motorman on the Chester and East Liverpool line, and was on duty last Sunday.

Fred Stetson, of the glost kiln at the Union, and James Jones will leave Friday for West Virginia to spend a couple of days hunting.

John Quinn, who has been employed lately as mould maker at the American China company, Sebring, has accepted a similar situation at William Brunt's.

Miss Bessie Demerling fainted yesterday morning in the decorating room at William H. Brunt's, and was sent to her home on Thompson's hill.

Miss Maude Giles, a gilder, employed in the decorating department at the Union, is very ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hull, in Toronto.

Miss Annie Tyndall has resigned as taker-off in the dipping department at the Union to accept a situation in the printing department at Brunt's. Miss Hattie Smith succeeded her.

Andrew McCartney, a placer in the glost kiln crew at D. E. McNicol's, is preparing to make a visit to his old home in Staffordshire, England. He has not yet decided on the exact time for his departure.

One of the McNicol kiln crew was out rabbit hunting one day this week, and during the progress of the sport, saw a "bunny" and in his excitement, yelled lustily: "Here he goes, boys," forgetting that he carried a gun.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

A CHAPTER ON BELLEEK.

John Hart Brewer, of Trenton, N. J., first attempted the manufacture of Belleek ware in this country. He commenced his experiments in 1882, and in the following year brought over from England William Bromley and his son from the Belleek works in Ireland. Subsequently the elder Bromley joined the Willets Manufacturing company, of the same city, and introduced the manufacture of the egg shell there, and at the present time there are no less than five or six establishments in Trenton where the same class of ware is made. Among many specialties recently introduced is a new style of decoration which has been worked out by Miss Kate Seers, a Kansas girl, who studied modeling in Boston. Going to Trenton for the purpose of pursuing her studies in this direction, one day in 1891, while engaged in working over the wet Belleek, the idea of carving delicate designs in the dry clay occurred to her, and after conducting a series of experiments her efforts were crowned with success. The process of modeling which has been formed in the wet clay and dried is taken before it has been in the kiln, and with knives or other tools the design is cut so as to leave the background as thin and transparent as possible when finished. As the dry Belleek, besides being thin, is extremely brittle, and crumbles easily, the carving is an exceedingly difficult operation. It is a very slow process, necessarily, since at any moment the knife is liable to cut through the wall and ruin the piece. The marks which appear on the various productions of Belleek porcelain are of considerable interest to collectors and admirers of this beautiful ware. Mr. Goss has adopted as his factory mark his family crest, a falcon rising ducally gorged, which is printed on each piece in blank. The mark of the Belleek factory in Ireland consists of the four Irish emblems, the watch tower, the hound, the harp of Erin, and the shamrock, and is printed on that ware in green or black. The manufacture of Belleek ware was introduced into this country by English potters, who had learned the process at the potteries in England and Ireland, and could therefore lay claim to originality so far as the product is concerned, yet, in a measure, the ware as made in America differs materially from the foreign in many respects, and has been developed in new directions so far as it has come to have distinctive characteristics of its own which entitle it to be ranked with an original American production.

LARGE ADDITION PLANNED.

The officials of the Salem China company will soon put in a new fire protection system. It will be known as the sprinkling system. The company decided to do this before making any changes as has been contemplated for some time. Next spring it is the intention of the company to make a large addition to the plant. The business has increased to such an extent that it is necessary to make provisions to handle the trade. The sprinkling system to be placed in the pottery will be unlike any other in the city. Some idea of the vastness of the work will be known when it is stated that it will take three months to complete the work. When this system is once installed it will be practically impossible to destroy the plant by fire. Every inch of the ceiling and floor will be covered so that at a moment's notice the water can be turned on to quench an incipient blaze which appears in any way dangerous. The pottery officials will have special connections with the water works. The officials will not depend on the water secured from the water works alone and have decided to construct a large cistern to obtain all the water necessary. In addition to this the company will place in its own pumps. When completed the pottery people will have the most complete system of fire protection of any plant in the city.

NAVIGABLE RIVER THE YEAR AROUND

What It Would Mean to the People of the Prosperous Ohio Valley.

PROJECT IS PRACTICABLE

And Engineers' Estimates Are That an Expenditure of $60,000,000 Would Ensure a 9-Foot Stage for 1,000 Miles, or from Pittsburg to Cairo.

Now that the election is over the people of Ohio, and especially those close to the river, have already begun to turn their attention again to the improvement of their waterway. The recent difficulties and privations of the towns down the river in the matter of coal, largely owing to a low stage forbidding navigation at a critical moment, were more annoying than usual simply because they were associated with worse troubles occurring in Pennsylvania and along tidewater.

What the people want is a navigable stage of water from Pittsburg to Cairo all the year around. In the program of the Ohio Valley Improvement association this demand takes this technical form: "Slackwater from Pittsburg to Cairo, with a minimum stage of nine feet." In order to hasten the work, the members of the association argue that the whole system should be dealt with as a single improvement. So much investigation has been put upon the preliminaries of the task that the estimates of cost are supposed to be as nearly accurate as they can be made beforehand. According to these estimates an outlay of $60,000,000 will insure a depth of nine feet throughout the whole reach of 1,000 miles.

The military engineres in charge of tne work for the government are responsible for the plan of making a depth of nine feet. A great deal of work had already been done to provide a stage of six feet. But the engineers are more farsighted than the ordinary run of river men. They could remember that the Ohio was once in its history an important military highway, and they could divine that the whole scheme of waterway improvement in the Mississippi should be gauged in a great measure by the magnitude of the canal at the isthmus. Business men also saw the importance of having the work on the Ohio completed by the time the isthmian canal is ready for use.

Now it appears that the multitudes interested in Mississippi improvements are being urged by unwonted activity in the light of the activity along the Ohio. But it must be remembered that the Ohio Valley Improvement association has not yet obtained the legislation it desires, that is, a single act of congress providing for the whole enterprise, with a sufficient appropriation to begin work all along the line, and authorizing completion under a continuous contract system.

The efforts to delay the beginning of work at the isthmus will probably not be prolonged when it is found that the United States is really ready to dig the big ditch. It gives South American diplomatists at home and elsewhere a little fame to have interfered in the world's business. But it will give them something besides fame if they push their interference to a point where it would become a nuisance.

Meanwhile the Ohio Valley association is shortly to meet at Parkersburg. It will no doubt come near formulating exactly what it hopes for in the form of legislation. Then the case will come again to the attention of the committee of congress on rivers and harbors. There is no part of the state of Ohio which will not in the outcome be benefited by the improvement. It is as much a part of the isthmian waterway system as the isthmian canal itself. For that reason it is to be hoped that the Ohio valley people will leave nothing vague in their plans at their coming meeting.

NEARER TO WHEELING

The Lake Erie, Alliance & Wheeling Being Rushed to the Southward.

Wheeling, November 6.—The Lake Erie, Alliance & Wheeling, the new road that expects to shortly enter this section down along the river and into Martin's Ferry, has just issued a time table which is of interest to this section, inasmuch as it shows the extension of the road about twenty-two miles towards the terminal. The terminus of the road was formerly at Bergholz, but now trains are running through to Piney Fork, which is the temporary terminus.

When the road will enter Wheeling is rather indefinite, as considerable difficulty is being experienced in the securing of the right of way from Piney Fork to the river.

When the road is completed it will mean much for the river district and Jefferson county, as it will afford another road to the lakes that will in a measure relieve the over-congested conditions of the roads at present in use and will also permit of a growth in the industries and mining business of the section.

The Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling is still in a very congested condition and several engines have been transferred from the Baltimore & Ohio to help out. The Wheeling & Lake Erie is also very busy in the handling of coal, and a greater demand has been made for that product with the approach of winter. The Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling is in a better position to handle heavy traffic now than it was several months ago, for the work of widening the tunnels and double tracking of the road is progressing towards completion. Several important changes will also be made in the train schedule on this road about the middle of the month and the Massillon trains will run through to Cleveland.

THE PINKHAM CURES

ATTRACTING GREAT ATTENTION AMONG THINKING WOMEN.

Mrs. Frances Stafford, of 243 E. 114th St., N.Y. City, adds her testimony to the hundreds of thousands on Mrs. Pinkham's files.

When Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies were first introduced skeptics all over the country frowned upon their curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by the new discovery has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands, doubts and skepticisms have been swept away as by a mighty flood, until to-day the great good that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and her other medicines are doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, physicians and thinking people.

Merit alone could win such fame; wise, therefore, is the woman who for a cure relies upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Hearst Complaint Filed.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The complaint of William Randolph Hearst, of New York, against anthracite coal carrying railroads charging that the latter's rates for the transportation of coal from the anthracite fields to New England, New York, Maryland and the District of Columbia, are unreasonable and unjust, was filed in the interstate commerce commission yesterday. The commission immediately sent notifications of the complaint to the railroad companies named as defendants, as follows: Philadelphia and Reading railway, Lehigh Valley, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, Central of New Jersey, New York, Susquehanna and Western, Erie, New York, Ontario and Western, Delaware and Hudson, Pennsylvania, and Baltimore and Ohio. The roads have until the 20th inst. to file their answer.

The complaint alleges that the rates subject the consumers at the points named, and the producers of such coal who are not common carriers or corporations owned and controlled by common carriers, to unreasonable prejudice and disadvantage, in violation of the interstate commerce act. It charges that the rates are discriminating and prejudicial to the interests of dealers and consumers of anthracite coal as compared with the transportation rates for bituminous coal for much longer distances, and also as compared with the defendants' rates and charges on other carload freight traffic generally. It is alleged that the Lehigh, Central of New Jersey, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, and Erie, New York, Susquehanna and Western, and the Philadelphia and Reading roads have entered into a freight pooling agreement.

It gives South American diplomatists at home and elsewhere a little fame to have interfered in the world's business. But it will give them something besides fame if they push their interference to a point where it would become a nuisance.

Meanwhile the Ohio Valley association is shortly to meet at Parkersburg. It will no doubt come near formulating exactly what it hopes for in the form of legislation. Then the case will come again to the attention of the committee of congress on rivers and harbors. There is no part of the state of Ohio which will not in the outcome be benefited by the improvement. It is as much a part of the isthmian waterway system as the isthmian canal itself. For that reason it is to be hoped that the Ohio valley people will leave nothing vague in their plans at their coming meeting.

NEARER TO WHEELING

The Lake Erie, Alliance & Wheeling Being Rushed to the Southward.

Wheeling, November 6.—The Lake Erie, Alliance & Wheeling, the new road that expects to shortly enter this section down along the river and into Martin's Ferry, has just issued a time table which is of interest to this section, inasmuch as it shows the extension of the road about twenty-two miles towards the terminal. The terminus of the road was formerly at Bergholz, but now trains are running through to Piney Fork, which is the temporary terminus.

When the road will enter Wheeling is rather indefinite, as considerable difficulty is being experienced in the securing of the right of way from Piney Fork to the river.

When the road is completed it will mean much for the river district and Jefferson county, as it will afford another road to the lakes that will in a measure relieve the over-congested conditions of the roads at present in use and will also permit of a growth in the industries and mining business of the section.

The Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling is still in a very congested condition and several engines have been transferred from the Baltimore & Ohio to help out. The Wheeling & Lake Erie is also very busy in the handling of coal, and a greater demand has been made for that product with the approach of winter. The Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling is in a better position to handle heavy traffic now than it was several months ago, for the work of widening the tunnels and double tracking of the road is progressing towards completion. Several important changes will also be made in the train schedule on this road about the middle of the month and the Massillon trains will run through to Cleveland.

THE PINKHAM CURES

ATTRACTING GREAT ATTENTION AMONG THINKING WOMEN.

Mrs. Frances Stafford, of 243 E. 114th St., N.Y. City, adds her testimony to the hundreds of thousands on Mrs. Pinkham's files.

When Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies were first introduced skeptics all over the country frowned upon their curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by the new discovery has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands, doubts and skepticisms have been swept away as by a mighty flood, until to-day the great good that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and her other medicines are doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, physicians and thinking people.

Merit alone could win such fame; wise, therefore, is the woman who for a cure relies upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Hearst Complaint Filed.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The complaint of William Randolph Hearst, of New York, against anthracite coal carrying railroads charging that the latter's rates for the transportation of coal from the anthracite fields to New England, New York, Maryland and the District of Columbia, are unreasonable and unjust, was filed in the interstate commerce commission yesterday. The commission immediately sent notifications of the complaint to the railroad companies named as defendants, as follows: Philadelphia and Reading railway, Lehigh Valley, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, Central of New Jersey, New York, Susquehanna and Western, Erie, New York, Ontario and Western, Delaware and Hudson, Pennsylvania, and Baltimore and Ohio. The roads have until the 20th inst. to file their answer.

The complaint alleges that the rates subject the consumers at the points named, and the producers of such coal who are not common carriers or corporations owned and controlled by common carriers, to unreasonable prejudice and disadvantage, in violation of the interstate commerce act. It charges that the rates are discriminating and prejudicial to the interests of dealers and consumers of anthracite coal as compared with the transportation rates for bituminous coal for much longer distances, and also as compared with the defendants' rates and charges on other carload freight traffic generally. It is alleged that the Lehigh, Central of New Jersey, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, and Erie, New York, Susquehanna and Western, and the Philadelphia and Reading roads have entered into a freight pooling agreement.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures cold and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. SOCIAL EVENTS

BAIR-STEELE

PROMINENT YOUNG COUPLE WEDDED AT STEUBENVILLE.

Superb Decorations And Impressive Ceremony—Many Guests Present from This City.

The wedding of William Frederick Steele, of this city, and Miss Katherine Bair, of Steubenville, which took place at the bride's home last evening, was one of the most elaborate social events that has been seen there for some time. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Higgins, of the First Presbyterian church of Steubenville.

The decorations of the beautiful house were elaborate. Masses of green ferns and pink and white chrysanthemums made a beautiful background for the ceremony. Prof. Vorsortz's orchestra was in attendance, and to the strains of a beautiful wedding march the ribbon bearers, Masters Albert Childes and James Lowrie, came down one of the stairways. They were followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Helen McGowan, of Steubenville. The bride, leaning on the arm of her father, made her appearance and at the same time the groom, accompanied by Frederick Lawrence, of the East Liverpool Potteries company, of this city, made their appearance on the other side of the hall leading to the parlor of the Bair residence.

The contracting parties took their places beneath a canopy of flowers in the corner of the parlor. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was tendered the newly wedded pair, followed by an elaborate wedding supper.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bair, of Steubenville. The father of the bride is one of the leading merchants of the county seat of Jefferson county, and she is well known in the society and social circles of that city.

The groom is well known in East Liverpool and is manager of the George F. Brunt Porcelain company, in which establishment he has demonstrated his business ability during the past few years.

The couple left Steubenville last night for the east. They will visit in Philadelphia, New York, Washington, Baltimore and Old Point Comfort. They will be gone for three weeks before returning to this city, where they will make their home. The presents received were very valuable and numerous.

Those from East Liverpool who were in attendance at the wedding were Mrs. Mary Steele, mother of the groom; Miss Sadie Steele, Mrs. Charles Bright, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vodrey, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bough, Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, Mrs. Robert Hill, T. R. Hall, Dr. Joseph Cartwright, J. C. Kelly, Homer Clark, Misses Clara Stewart and Laura Hill.

A DELIGHTFUL EVENT

Was the Eucher Party Given By the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association.

A most delightful social event was the euchre party given last evening in the Knights of Columbus hall by the Ladies' Catholic Benefit association. The ladies took care of the large crowd in a most acceptable manner.

The play continued until after midnight, when dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

About 150 people were present who indulged the moments all too fleeting. In the main room the euchre players were assembled and in the parlor immediate to the hall way the players were at tables where the game was "progressive peanuts."

Prizes were offered, those bearing away the trophies of the evening being as follows:

Progressive euchre—First, Dr. Frank Harrison, oak rocker; second, Herbert Crites, pair of fancy slippers; third, George Hendricks; fourth, John Maloney, consolation prize. Among the ladies, Mrs. Herbert Crites won first, oak rocker; second, Miss Anna Maloney; third, Miss Anna Maley, fourth (consolation), Mrs. Michael O'Malley.

In the game of progressive peanuts the first prize was accorded to Mrs. Gilligallon and the second to Miss McKeone.

AT ST. ALOYSIUS

CHAS. WALSH AND MISS AGNES LYNCH WEDDED TODAY.

Beautiful Ceremony Followed By Wedding Breakfast And Much Enjoyment.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred this morning at 6 o'clock in St. Aloysius' church, when Miss Agnes Lynch and Charles Walsh were united in marriage by the Rev. Father Mahan in the presence of a large circle of friends and relatives.

The usual beautiful ceremony provided by the Catholic ritual was most impressively carried out, and the young couple with the bridesmaid, Miss Lynch, a sister of the bride, made a pleasing picture.

Following the ceremony the newly wedded couple were driven to the home of the bride, on Bradshaw avenue, where, with a number of the relatives and friends they enjoyed a choice wedding breakfast. After this they again repaired to a carriage and were driven to the depot, taking the west bound train for Cleveland, New York and other points. Returning to this city they will go to housekeeping immediately.

The big crowd of friends that accompanied the happy ones to the depot derived much pleasure from well arranged plans of bidding them a farewell. Every person of the party had a quantity of rice and some had pairs of old shoes. What they did with them is easily guessed. The train and platform were literally covered with the rice and the interior of the train was strewn with placards such as "They are just married," "Were you ever in the same boat?" "This is Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walsh, newly wed."

The groom is the oldest son of J. C. Walsh, the Sixth street landlord, and is a young man of good standing. He has for two years been prominently connected with the East Liverpool baseball team, as manager, and has a large number of friends. The bride is the estimable daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lynch, of Bradshaw avenue, and she possesses traits that draw all acquaintenances to her and cause them to look upon her as a lady of high character and lovable disposition.

Married Nineteen Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, of Lincoln avenue, are celebrating their nineteenth wedding anniversary today. They were married in East Liverpool and have resided in this city ever since. The event will be observed by a supper at the home this evening at which all the members of the family will be present, in addition to a few intimate friends.

Gave a Surprise.

The East Liverpool lodge Daughters of Rebekah gave quite a pleasant surprise last evening for Mrs. W. E. Warren at her home in Chester. Mrs. Warren was much surprised to see 100 ladies at her home. The evening was spent in music, and an oyster supper was prepared by the guests who brought with them quite a supply.

Entertained Her Friends.

Miss Rose Shamp entertained a number of her friends last evening at her home on Sheridan avenue. Music and games served to while away the time pleasantly and enticing refreshments were served.

Surprise Party.

About 40 of Oscar McCoy's friends called on him unexpectedly Wednesday evening at his home on Robinson street. They were all heartily welcomed and enjoyed a pleasant evening with games and music.

Ohioville Couple Wedded.

Edward Davis and Miss Elizabeth Barclay, both of Ohioville, Pa., were wedded by Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart at his home yesterday afternoon.

The Whist Club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gass will entertain the Whist club this evening.

THE HIGHEST PRAISE

For the Briggs Piano from a Gifted Pianist—Unsolicited Testimonial.

As is customary in every case where a first-class instrument is necessary the Smith & Phillips Music company, of this city, was called upon to provide the piano for the Slayton Woman's Symphony orchestra upon the occasion of its visit to this city last Tuesday evening.

Knowing that it would be useless to send any but the very best in the large establishment, since the class of music played and the extent to which every instrument used by the superb aggregation is taxed, would render it impossible to use an inferior one, the local company supplied a celebrated Briggs piano. When the instrument was removed from the opera house it was found, upon opening the same, that a note had been placed beneath the lid. The letter was written by Miss Stella M. Hecker, the gifted pianist with the company, and reads as follows:

"I can recommend with pleasure the Briggs piano, particularly for good action and quality of tone.

"STELLA M. HECKER."

The commendable expression of Miss Hecker, coming as it did purely voluntary, is gratifying to the firm here, and greatly appreciated by it.

SOCIAL EVENTS

BAIR-STEELE

PROMINENT YOUNG COUPLE WEDDED AT STEUBENVILLE.

Superb Decorations And Impressive Ceremony—Many Guests Present from This City.

The wedding of William Frederick Steele, of this city, and Miss Katherine Bair, of Steubenville, which took place at the bride's home last evening, was one of the most elaborate social events that has been seen there for some time. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Higgins, of the First Presbyterian church of Steubenville.

The decorations of the beautiful house were elaborate. Masses of green ferns and pink and white chrysanthemums made a beautiful background for the ceremony. Prof. Vorsortz's orchestra was in attendance, and to the strains of a beautiful wedding march the ribbon bearers, Masters Albert Childes and James Lowrie, came down one of the stairways. They were followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Helen McGowan, of Steubenville. The bride, leaning on the arm of her father, made her appearance and at the same time the groom, accompanied by Frederick Lawrence, of the East Liverpool Potteries company, of this city, made their appearance on the other side of the hall leading to the parlor of the Bair residence.

The contracting parties took their places beneath a canopy of flowers in the corner of the parlor. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was tendered the newly wedded pair, followed by an elaborate wedding supper.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bair, of Steubenville. The father of the bride is one of the leading merchants of the county seat of Jefferson county, and she is well known in the society and social circles of that city.

The groom is well known in East Liverpool and is manager of the George F. Brunt Porcelain company, in which establishment he has demonstrated his business ability during the past few years.

The couple left Steubenville last night for the east. They will visit in Philadelphia, New York, Washington, Baltimore and Old Point Comfort. They will be gone for three weeks before returning to this city, where they will make their home. The presents received were very valuable and numerous.

Those from East Liverpool who were in attendance at the wedding were Mrs. Mary Steele, mother of the groom; Miss Sadie Steele, Mrs. Charles Bright, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vodrey, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bough, Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, Mrs. Robert Hill, T. R. Hall, Dr. Joseph Cartwright, J. C. Kelly, Homer Clark, Misses Clara Stewart and Laura Hill.

A DELIGHTFUL EVENT

Was the Eucher Party Given By the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association.

A most delightful social event was the euchre party given last evening in the Knights of Columbus hall by the Ladies' Catholic Benefit association. The ladies took care of the large crowd in a most acceptable manner.

The play continued until after midnight, when dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

About 150 people were present who indulged the moments all too fleeting. In the main room the euchre players were assembled and in the parlor immediate to the hall way the players were at tables where the game was "progressive peanuts."

Prizes were offered, those bearing away the trophies of the evening being as follows:

Progressive euchre—First, Dr. Frank Harrison, oak rocker; second, Herbert Crites, pair of fancy slippers; third, George Hendricks; fourth, John Maloney, consolation prize. Among the ladies, Mrs. Herbert Crites won first, oak rocker; second, Miss Anna Maloney; third, Miss Anna Maley, fourth (consolation), Mrs. Michael O'Malley.

In the game of progressive peanuts the first prize was accorded to Mrs. Gilligallon and the second to Miss McKeone.

AT ST. ALOYSIUS

CHAS. WALSH AND MISS AGNES LYNCH WEDDED TODAY.

Beautiful Ceremony Followed By Wedding Breakfast And Much Enjoyment.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred this morning at 6 o'clock in St. Aloysius' church, when Miss Agnes Lynch and Charles Walsh were united in marriage by the Rev. Father Mahan in the presence of a large circle of friends and relatives.

The usual beautiful ceremony provided by the Catholic ritual was most impressively carried out, and the young couple with the bridesmaid, Miss Lynch, a sister of the bride, made a pleasing picture.

Following the ceremony the newly wedded couple were driven to the home of the bride, on Bradshaw avenue, where, with a number of the relatives and friends they enjoyed a choice wedding breakfast. After this they again repaired to a carriage and were driven to the depot, taking the west bound train for Cleveland, New York and other points. Returning to this city they will go to housekeeping immediately.

The big crowd of friends that accompanied the happy ones to the depot derived much pleasure from well arranged plans of bidding them a farewell. Every person of the party had a quantity of rice and some had pairs of old shoes. What they did with them is easily guessed. The train and platform were literally covered with the rice and the interior of the train was strewn with placards such as "They are just married," "Were you ever in the same boat?" "This is Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walsh, newly wed."

The groom is the oldest son of J. C. Walsh, the Sixth street landlord, and is a young man of good standing. He has for two years been prominently connected with the East Liverpool baseball team, as manager, and has a large number of friends. The bride is the estimable daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lynch, of Bradshaw avenue, and she possesses traits that draw all acquaintenances to her and cause them to look upon her as a lady of high character and lovable disposition.

Married Nineteen Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, of Lincoln avenue, are celebrating their nineteenth wedding anniversary today. They were married in East Liverpool and have resided in this city ever since. The event will be observed by a supper at the home this evening at which all the members of the family will be present, in addition to a few intimate friends.

Gave a Surprise.

The East Liverpool lodge Daughters of Rebekah gave quite a pleasant surprise last evening for Mrs. W. E. Warren at her home in Chester. Mrs. Warren was much surprised to see 100 ladies at her home. The evening was spent in music, and an oyster supper was prepared by the guests who brought with them quite a supply.

Entertained Her Friends.

Miss Rose Shamp entertained a number of her friends last evening at her home on Sheridan avenue. Music and games served to while away the time pleasantly and enticing refreshments were served.

Surprise Party.

About 40 of Oscar McCoy's friends called on him unexpectedly Wednesday evening at his home on Robinson street. They were all heartily welcomed and enjoyed a pleasant evening with games and music.

Ohioville Couple Wedded.

Edward Davis and Miss Elizabeth Barclay, both of Ohioville, Pa., were wedded by Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart at his home yesterday afternoon.

The Whist Club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gass will entertain the Whist club this evening.

THE HIGHEST PRAISE

For the Briggs Piano from a Gifted Pianist—Unsolicited Testimonial.

As is customary in every case where a first-class instrument is necessary the Smith & Phillips Music company, of this city, was called upon to provide the piano for the Slayton Woman's Symphony orchestra upon the occasion of its visit to this city last Tuesday evening.

Knowing that it would be useless to send any but the very best in the large establishment, since the class of music played and the extent to which every instrument used by the superb aggregation is taxed, would render it impossible to use an inferior one, the local company supplied a celebrated Briggs piano. When the instrument was removed from the opera house it was found, upon opening the same, that a note had been placed beneath the lid. The letter was written by Miss Stella M. Hecker, the gifted pianist with the company, and reads as follows:

"I can recommend with pleasure the Briggs piano, particularly for good action and quality of tone.

"STELLA M. HECKER."

The commendable expression of Miss Hecker, coming as it did purely voluntary, is gratifying to the firm here, and greatly appreciated by it.

SERIOUS CUTTING AFFRAY IN A SALOON LAST NIGHT NEGRO WEILDING A RAZOR

Robert Hopkins Arrested For Inflicting Terrible Wounds Upon Thomas Burgess in a Quarrel.

With his left arm terribly cut, a deep gash in the stomach and a part of his clothing slashed into shreds, Thomas Burgess, a well known resident of Sheridan avenue, tottered into the mayor's office, being extremely weak from the loss of blood, this morning and swore out a warrant charging Bob Hopkins, a negro of much local notoriety, with cutting with intent to maim.

It required a strenuous effort on the part of Burgess to steady himself enough to file the charge. He at times seemed as if he were going to drop into a state of insensibility and at intervals he could not refrain from giving utterance to sighs and groans as a result of the wounds inflicted.

Trembling like a leaf, and apparently worrying over the probable outcome of his unfortunate accident, he in a quivering, but a firm voice explained his condition and its origin. At the conclusion of the show at the Grand last evening he started on his way home and upon reaching Frank Rigot's saloon, on West Market street, he entered to converse a moment with Mr. Rigot, being an intimate friend of the saloonist and occasionally his bartender. Upon stepping into the place he heard a slight argument and a glance was enough to see that it was between Hopkins and Mrs. Rigot, who was behind the counter.

Hopkins had been in the saloon for some time and had consumed no small amount of liquor. It was near closing time and Hopkins had been ordered to vacate. He remonstrated stubbornly and refused to move unless the money which he had spent was returned to him. Rather than create a disturbance Mrs. Rigot concluded to give the man the money and started to the register for it. It was while she was at the money drawer that the fight commenced.

Burgess heard Hopkins make an insulting remark about Mrs. Rigot and resented it, saying: "You cannot call that woman a name like that while I am here."

Hopkins then became like an enraged maniac. With fire flashing from his eyes, but without uttering a word, he reached to his hip pocket and seized a razor. As he commenced to flourish it in a dangerous manner Burgess knew that there was trouble of the worst kind ahead and quicker than a flash he grasped a chair, and with an unerring aim, landed the rude weapon on the colored man's head, knocking him to the floor. Quickly regaining his stand Hopkins made a dash at Burgess and sank the keen-edged razor deep into the pit of his stomach.

Burgess cried out in pain and rage and again resorted to a chair for defense. This time he was too slow in acting. Hopkins ran upon him, preventing the raising of the chair and once more wielded the sharp instrument. An overcoat, coat and two shirts were no barriers against the terrible blade. It was well guided and carried out the desperate negro's intention. Through the thickness of cloth it carved, striking the left arm of Burgess a few inches below the elbow and taking a circular course around the arm. This cut was by far the most dangerous and painful. It severed the flesh for a length of six inches, and it pierced a tumor to the core.

Blood spurted from the wound in horrifying quantities and for a time the injured man and those present were fearful that the flow could not be stopped. A cord was wrapped tightly around the arm above the elbow, but it seemed to have but little effect, and when the three physicians summoned arrived Burgess was suffering intensely both from loss of blood and excitement. The physicians encountered some difficulty in treating the wound and considerable time was consumed in getting it under control. A number of stitches were necessary to close the parts opened on the arm and two were required for the cut in the stomach.

Immediately after Hopkins had rendered his man helpless he dashed to the street and went home. He is one of the most dangerous and feared men that ever lived in this city. His criminal record is well known to

A SMALL STRIKE

FIVE TRANSFERERS AT WILLIAM BRUNT PLANT HAVE QUIT.

The Trouble is Over the Question of Price to Be Paid For Scheme Ware.

A small strike occurred at the William Brunt pottery at noon today, and as a result five transferers are now out and the remaining two will probably quit work this evening.

The trouble arose over the price to be paid for a certain class of scheme ware. The girls had been receiving 2½ cents per dozen for the decoration, but finding out that others were getting 3 cents for the same work, a demand was made for the prevailing price. The girls state it was refused, and they quit.

The dispute is the same as many others have been up before. The decoration of scheme ware has caused much trouble heretofore in the matter of setting prices.

This class of goods is not as well made nor is there as good decorations placed upon it as in the regular staple lines. It sells for a lower price, and consequently must be made as cheaply as possible. The trouble of today, however, is the first dispute which has been up for several months in this department.

An attempt will be made to settle the dispute with the firm by those directly involved or by the union to which they belong. If this cannot be done, the question will be taken to the Brotherhood headquarters officials.

PART OF THE WABASH

President of That System Confirms Story of Plans Regarding Lisbon Railroad.

Pittsburg, November 6.—President Ramsey, of the Wabash railroad, yesterday held a conference with President J. T. Blair, of the Little Kanawha, over the various plans of extension and more particularly over the construction work of that line. The bids for the extension will be opened here today. The award of the contracts may be delayed somewhat in selecting the most advantageous bids, but an announcement can be expected in a few days at the most. The work is to be rushed as fast as possible.

In regard to the acquisition of the Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western and the other roads in that vicinity by Myron T. Herrick, Mr. Ramsey said: "The purchase of these lines and the proposed extensions are personal plans of Colonel Herrick and Washington E. Connor. The work of financing will not be done by a syndicate, such as was the case in other allied lines in the east, but by these gentlemen personally. The new lines will, of course, be linked to the Wabash and form parts of the system after they are completed. The undertaking has been started with an understanding with the Wabash management."

SIX WERE FINED

The Jethro Assault And Battery Cases Disposed of By 'Squire McCarron.

The half dozen assault and battery cases from Jethro fined in 'Squire McCarron's court yesterday were tried last evening at 8 o'clock and after long drawn testimony was heard, each was fined $1 and costs. They received, however, in addition to the fines a severe lecturing and a warning that if they are ever brought before the justice on a similar charge again that each of them will get the full extent of the law.

Those fined were: Josephine Smith, Mike Smith, Bella Mozongo, Eva and Ethel Stanley and Mrs. Eliza Jane Stanley.

CASES ARGUED IN CIRCUIT COURT

Road Cases Occupy Much of the Attention of the Judicial Body.

Litigation Over a Road in Hanover Township And the Case of Mrs. Snyder, of Wellsville, Among Those That Were Argued.

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special.)—The November session of the circuit court opened yesterday afternoon, Judge J. B. Burrows presiding. Several cases were quickly disposed of.

In the matter of a township road petitioned for by John and Stewart Patterson, of Elkrun township, which has been taken up on error, the case was dismissed.

The cases of D. E. Mather vs. W. H. Booth and Minerva Shultz vs. Thomas T. Hamilton et al were settled.

The cases of James H. McDowell, trustee in bankruptcy of H. S. Warner against T. T. Church and Mary Rush, executors of R. P. Rush, deceased; N. B. Billingsley vs. I. B. Cameran, receiver; Daniel P. Lawson vs. William R. Wells et al and Amanda Hailes vs. Martin V. Grimes, administrator of the estate of Mary Watson, deceased, were all continued.

The hearing of the case of Reason Barnes et al against Charles Strain et al, of Hanover township, commenced yesterday and continued this morning. The matter in litigation is the right of plaintiff to use a private right of way through the farm of defendant to a state road. Mr. Barnes maintains that the road through his neighbor's farm has been in use 40 years or more, being the only outlet from his property to the public highway. Some time ago defendant forbade plaintiff crossing his farm, justifying himself with the assertion that Barnes left the gates open on his way through. He also said the right to pass through his farm was never granted.

The case of Wellsville vs. Margaret J. Snyder, taken up on error, was argued this morning. Mrs. Snyder had recovered a judgment of $50 against the city and as damages for a change of grade.

IN PROBATE COURT

Administrator Appointed—Controversy Over Guardian's Sale of Realty.

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special.)—Isaiah Flickinger has been appointed administrator of the state of the late William Essenwein. In accepting the appointment Mr. Flickinger filed an estimate of the estate and filed a bond for $1,700. The appraisers are John Weaver, Ed Snyder and Charles Halloway.

In the case of P. B. Moore, of East Palestine, as guardian, against Amos Marinee et al, in which the court refused some days ago to confirm the guardian's disposal of real estate at private sale, on the ground that the consideration was less than the law required, the court has rescinded its order of public sale, and again issued an order of private sale. It was shown that the guardian had made an error in reporting the proceeds, which were placed at $1,003, when the amount should have been $1,293.

SURVEYS BEING MADE

For the Jones & Laughlins Railroad Through the Northern Part of This County.

Surveys are now being run for the proposed Jones & Laughlins Steel company's railroad line in northern Columbiana county. Rights of way are being secured easily, it is said, and the line is being built with little care for anything but securing favorable grades.

Surveys have been made three times through the territory by the engineers of the steel company. It is said that final adoption of that route is now settled. John A. George, of East Liverpool, is the engineer in charge of the work.

National Organizer Present.

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special)—J. H. Barlow, of Cripple Creek, Colorado, national organizer of the Retail Clerks' union, attended the local union meeting last evening and made an address. A movement is being made among the clerks in Columbiana for organization.

NOTICES TO QUIT BEING SERVED

Chief Thompson Warning Shanty-Boat Owners to Obey Recent Ordinance.

NEW LAW IS ATTACKED

And the River Contingent Proposes to Go to Court And Defend Its Rights to Live As It Has Been Doing. A Census of Shantytown.

Chief of Police Thompson this morning began serving notices on the shanty boat people to vacate. Contrary to expectations he met with no trouble. The occupants of the boats, however, intimated that they will pay no attention to the notices and that they will carry the matter to the courts. They have agreed each to contribute enough money to employ a competent attorney to defend them, and all are confident that the ordinance passed recently to oust them will have to be repealed. Many of them are living on what they say is private property, and state that, as they pay rent for the ground, they cannot be moved.

Chief Thompson stated that never before did he realize how many marine laws there are in existence. The men of the boats claim to be well posted on the laws and cited to him section after section. Some of them intend to fight the ordinance on the 14 feet law which, they state, gives them the right to harbor a boat on the shore providing they keep within 14 feet of the water.

It is very probable that a strong fight will be put up and that some interesting developments will result. The chief thinks that he will not get all of the notices served before tomorrow evening, and possibly not until Saturday. If the notices are heeded the people will vacate within ten days.

While serving the notices Chief Thompson, just for the benefit of the public that are interested, is taking a census of the inhabitants of the boats. Some of the boats, although not more than 10x20, are harboring from ten to fifteen persons, and on the entire number of boats, it is estimated that there are about 150 people.

TRADES COUNCIL LOSES GOOD OFFICER

LEROY ORR RESIGNED AS TRUSTEE LAST EVENING.

Tailors' Dispute And War Over Non-Union Bread Were Discussed.

Trades and Labor Council held a fairly well attended meeting at Brotherhood hall last evening. President McConnell was unable to be present, and the meeting was presided over by U. G. King, of Typographical union.

A number of matters of a private nature were up for consideration, but they cannot be given to the public Two new delegates were seated, and under the proper head a communication was read from the Frankfort (Ill.) United Garment Workers' union. The letter stated that the Knapp Clothing company of that city had locked out its employes. It asked that a committee be appointed to interview local clothiers with a view to ascertaining whether or not the product of the Knapp company was being sold in East Liverpool. The communication was favorably acted upon.

Leroy Orr, for the past five years one of the most active labor men of this section, retires from the council with the meeting of last night. Mr. Orr has devoted much time and money to the cause of labor, and his work in behalf of the council has been productive of much good. He resigned his position as trustee of the council, a duty he has performed for several years. William Cope, of the turners' and handlers' union, was unanimously elected to succeed him.

A committee which was appointed at the last meeting to aid the local tailors' union in a dispute which had arisen within its ranks, made a report. A member of the union, employed in a shop of this city had refused to attach the union label to garments made by him, and the union had asked the council to lend its influence in persuading the obstinate member to observe the rules. The delegates from the tailors' union were given instructions which will doubtless result in a setlement of the question.

Another discussion was indulged in relative to the war being waged against non-union bread here by the Trades Council and the members of the bakers' union. The fight, according to the sentiment manifested, will be continued until there is not a dealer left who will handle the non-union product. Fred Martindale, of the label committee of Trades Council, is at work upon a plan which he hopes will aid materially to bring about the desired end. He will submit the plan for the approval of the council at its next meeting.

PLANS OF THE B. & O.

To Build to Smith's Ferry With An East Liverpool Spur Again Revived.

The recent change in the proposed route of the Canton & East Liverpool railway is said by those familiar with the affairs of the company to be a move toward the long talked of extension of the B. & O. to reach Smith's Ferry and it is further added that the B. & O. proposes to cross the country from that point to Pittsburg. A spur from Smith's Ferry to this city is a part of the plan.

GEN. DICK'S REPUTATION AS A POLITICAL PROPHET IS FULLY VINDICATED

His Forecast Was Remarkable For Its Accuracy. Nevin as a Possible Gubernetorial Candidate.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, November 6.—The Republican plurality in Ohio will hover about the 90,000 mark, and the total vote, in the judgment of Chairman Dick, will approximate 800,000, a little less than that of last year. The results in Ohio are very gratifying to the Republican managers. The people have in an unmistakable and vigorous fashion showed their complete disapproval of Democracy, Tom Johnson and his multifarious policies, fads, isms, etc. The leaders regard the result as an endorsement of what McKinley stood for, Republican principles and of the administration of President Roosevelt.

The wonderful victory has brought joy to the Republicans and deep gloom to their opponents. Once more it has been demonstrated that Chairman Dick is a political prophet of wonderful ability. His forecast was remarkable for its accuracy. He predicted that the state would go Republican by at least 75,000, and added that if there was anything like a full vote out it might reach 100,000. He said that 17 and perhaps 18 Republican congressmen would be elected. His prognostications have been borne out.

In the defeat of Huling, of the Columbus district, the Republicans lost one congressman, but they made this up by knocking out Norton in the Thirteenth district, which was thought to be invulnerable by the Democrats. Jackson, the Republican candidate, won by about 300 to spare. Norton is a third termer and he threatens to contest Jackson's election on the ground that many ballots were cast for him were improperly marked and should have been thrown out. The defeat of the latter was one of the surprises of the election, although it was predicted by Chairman Dick. The latter, while not admitting that Huling would be defeated, acknowledged his election was doubtful. Factional troubles caused Huling's defeat. Congressman Nevin, Republican, carried the Dayton district by over 6,000. Two years ago he slid in by the skin of his teeth. Congressman Norton's plurality two years ago was almost 7,000.

A friend of Congressman Nevin says that, encouraged by the overwhelming endorsement given him in a district which until two years ago was strongly Democratic and whose Republicanism had been looked upon as being precarious during the past two years, he will be a full-fledged candidate for governor next year.

Judge A. I. Alread, chief clerk in the office of the secretary of state, claims that Judge Badger, Democrat, elected to congress over Huling in this district, is ineligible to a seat in congress for the reason that he did not resign from the common pleas bench before the election. Smith Bennett, special counsel in the office of the attorney general, coincides in this view. Judge Alread was elected to the common pleas bench in Darke county on Tuesday. He will resign his position about next February.

Chairman Garber, of the Democratic committee, has issued a statement praising Tom Johnson and claiming to see in the big Republican landslide an endorsement of Johnson and Democratic principles. He has figured that the Democrats made gains in the counties where Tom Johnson spoke. He places stress on the result in Cuyahoga county, where the Democrats managed to capture two or three offices and also where the Republicans elected all the congressmen. If the Democrats can get a consolation and satisfaction out of the results, the Republicans are certainly willing that they should have both. Tom Johnson claimed that he would either defeat or cut down Senator Nick Longworth's plurality for congress in Cincinnati. The latter had 15,000 votes to spare, being elected by an unusually large plurality.

The Republicans and Democrats will have the same representation in congress during the next two years as they have had during the past two years—17 Republicans and four Democrats, the latter being Harvey C. Garber, Fourth district; John S. Snook, Fifth district; DeWitt C. Badger, Twelfth district, and John W. Cassingham, Seventeenth district.

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special.)—Another case of smallpox is reported this morning. Mrs. Melvin Forbes is the victim.

INSURANCE ADJUSTERS

Here to Estimate the Losses in the Recent Fire in Harker Building.

Insurance adjusters were in the city yesterday to inspect the damage done by fire to the property of Frank Crook, the Wilson stationery store, and the W. & W. pharmacy. The adjusters are W. C. Daniels, of the Northern Insurance company; Joseph Dye, of the German American; R. T. Huggard, of Springfield. Mr. Dye's company had risks on Frank Crook's stock, and for Messrs. Witzeman & Wunsch, of the W. & W. Pharmacy. Mr. Huggard and Mr. Daniels were adjusters on the Wilson loss.

An adjuster for the Niagara, which carried a risk on the Crook building and stock, has not yet arrived. The Crook loss will be by far the heaviest of any, a few hundred dollars covering the most of the damage done to the pharmacy and stationery stores.

Mr. Huggard was summoned to Steubenville yesterday afternoon to adjust a loss there. Mr. Dye fixed up the claim of the owners of the house recently destroyed at Dry Run.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Against Salem Saloon Man—Wife Claims Husband Lost $650 There.

Salem, November 6.—A sensation was caused in this city last evening when it was learned that Samuel T. Conkle, the well known proprietor of the Oak saloon on East Dry street had been sued by Mrs. Minerva T. Hawley, the wife of Warren A. Hawley, of 166 Washington street, for the sum of $1150, of this sum $650 was for money alleged to have been lost by her husband in Conkle's place and $500 for exemplary damages.

The action was instituted in common pleas court yesterday through her attorney, W. S. Emmons, of this city. The action is against Samuel T. Conkle, the proprietor of the Oak saloon, for the recovery of $650 alleged to be lost and expended by her husband, upon whom she is dependent for support, in and on account of various gambling schemes, mostly poker, conducted and allowed by defendant at his place of business. The money is supposed to have been lost and expended by Warren Hawley since March 1, this year. Mrs. Hawley asks for this amount, together with $500 exemplary damages in the nature of $1150 and the cost of the suit. This entire $650 is supposed to have been received by the defendant at his place if business on East Dry street.

Yesterday summons were issued at Lisbon and were served upon Conkle last evening by Deputy Sheriff W. D. Turner. Mr. Conkle is compelled to make an answer to the petition asking for damages by December 6, this year. It is said that he will fight the case and has engaged attorneys. The case, if it comes in court, will no doubt be of interest.

Conkle is a native of East Liverpool, having come here from that city several years ago.

VERY INDEPENDENT

The Laboring Man of Today Does Not Have to Work Under Conditions He Doesn't Like.

"The working man is the most independent person on earth, these days," remarked a local contractor as a reporter stood watching a gang of men hard at work on a "job" in the northern part of the city. "In the first place," continued the contractor, "it is next to impossible to secure working men, skilled or unskilled, under any conditions. They do not come in numbers as they did a few years ago, begging the contractors to take them on at any rate of wages. They are all busy, and instead of appealing for work, they have to be appealed to and negotiated with one by one."

Once employed they have to be handled with kid gloves, for when offended they simply pack up their tools and walk away to that other contractor, who offered them jobs a dozen different times during the week. I never knew of such a scarcity of men as there is now, and I want to tell you that the laboring man's family that suffers this winter, has the individual to blame for it. There is work on every hand at good wages, and the prospects are that the conditions will continue throughout the winter."

Tariff Reform Considered.

New York, Nov. 6.—Tariff reform was considered at the monthly meeting of the board of trade yesterday, and a resolution was introduced that a committee of the board be appointed to support the suggestion of President Roosevelt that a permanent nonpartisan expert tariff commission be created. There was opposition to reviving the question at present and the resolution was referred to the active commission. Resolutions endorsing the Hay bankruptcy bill and urging congressional action on trade marks were passed. A resolution to inquire into the report that the "coal distributors of this city have a compact of action in fixing the price of coal," was referred to the committee on city affairs.

T. S. Sharretts, special United States tariff commissioner to China, gave an address, in which he said New York would come to look upon the Asiatic race as customers of great value.

Senator Platt's Views.

New York, Nov. 6.—Senator Thomas C. Platt was asked yesterday for a statement on the state election. He said:

"We have to be satisfied. Odell's plurality is not nearly as large as I had expected."

Senator Platt said that in his opinion the trust question and the coal strike had nothing to do with the result of the vote.

"The Democrats got together," he said, "and held together, and a few Republicans slipped over to them."

The experiences of people who have taken "Blood Wine" are worthy of the most careful kind of consideration, because they are truthful,—experiences related by honest people and from the goodness of their hearts, simply in the hope of bringing help to some poor suffering soul. Whenever you see a statement concerning "Blood Wine," read it, for it may be the means of saving your life, or that of some friend or relation. Read this one from Mrs. H. E. Young, 34 Ferry St., Everett, Mass.:

"I am 84 years of age and have suffered for years with rheumatism. I have never taken a medicine that seemed to do me any good until my son brought home a bottle of 'Blood Wine.' It helped my lameness almost instantly and put new vigor and activity into my system. I took it patiently, and after taking seven bottles was entirely cured. I haven't had a touch of rheumatism since."

Isn't any one justified in buying a bottle for fifty cents with such a strong recommendation as that of Mrs. Young?

VISIONS OF WEALTH FOR A MOTORMAN

Heydenreich Gets a Share of a German Estate of 310,000 Marks.

STILL MORE TO BE DIVIDED

The Young Man Still Continues His Work On the Street Railway—Other Heirs to the Estate Live in This Vicinity.

Visions of wealth loom up before James E. Heydenreich, a motorman in the employ of the East Liverpool Railway company, who lives at the corner of Mulberry street and Pennsylvania avenue. As can be seen from the name, Heydenreich is a German, although he was born in this country, as was his father. He is a descendant of a prominent and wealthy line of ancestors, who have lived for years at Rennesburg, Germany, some of whom have held important and responsible positions during the past fifty years under the imperial government.

A few days ago young Heydenreich received an official looking document, bearing the German stamp, and sealed by the town court of Rennesburg. It was a big surprise to him and he had not the slighest idea of its import, knowing that his relative had died a year or more ago. He took the missive to a German friend, as he cannot read the language, and had it translated. He was amazed to learn that he had been named in the will which had only recently been filed in the court. He is to receive 2,500 marks as his portion and there are numerous other bequests to heirs now living in Ohio and West Virginia. The relative was Mrs. Ada Hedwig, postmistress at Rennesburg.

This, however, is but a small portion of the Heydenreich estate. There is a fortune of 310,000 marks yet to be divided and it is stated that Hugo Heydenreich, a wealthy citizen of Parkersburg, had already claimed and received a portion of it.

The knowledge of his good luck did did not disconcert young Heydenreich and he has kept right at his work on the cars. It was not until this morning that he consulted an attorney, he placing the matter in the hands of George E. Davidson, who is thoroughly conversant with the German language. The proper steps to secure his portion of the legacy will be taken at once.

A number of the heirs mentioned in the will live at Zanesville.

Odd Fellows Election.

The Odd Fellows of the East End are preparing to entertain their brethren of East Liverpool lodge No. 379, and Line Island lodge, of Smith's Ferry. A committee on arrangements has been appointed and it will meet tomorrow evening to perfect the plans. Larkin & Ferguson hall has been selected as the place and Friday, November 14, as the date, for the entertainment. It is likely that a banquet will be one of the leading features.

Gate Posts In Position.

Already considerable work has been done toward erecting the safety gates at the Mulberry street crossing. This morning the iron devices to support the gates had been placed in position, and the remainder of the work will be pushed to an early completion, so far as the C. & P., is concerned. If the railroad will now build the long hoped for passenger station, the people of the East End will be satisfied.

Will Entertain Pupils.

Mrs. Martha Pittinger, of First avenoe, will entertain her Sunday school class, consisting of thirteen young ladies, from the Second U. P. church, this evening. Among the other amusements provided is a game called "Dressing the New Woman," that will create a great deal of amusement. Refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served.

To Play at Beaver.

The members of the Marine Athletic club will meet tonight at Columbian park to make arrangements for their trip to Beaver Saturday where they will play a game of football with the team of that city. A full attendance of the players is desired. The boys have been practicing hard all week, and are confident of a victory.

IT MUST COME.

As inevitable as the changing seasons of the year is the change which comes to every woman. And just as one anticipates the changes of other seasons it is wise to anticipate this change of season and prepare for it. In this way the discomforts and disasters suffered by many women at the period of change can be avoided or overcome.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a medicine for every season of woman's life, will entirely meet the needs of women at this period of change. It cures the physical ills and relieves the mental anxiety and depression usually associated with this critical period. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces refreshing sleep.

J. S. Carlisle, Esq., of Manchester, Coffee Co., Tenn., writes: "I have been using your medicines for the last sixteen or eighteen years in my Poor-house. I am superintendent of the 'Coffee County Poor-house and Asylum combined. Your 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' are the best medicines for the diseases for which they are recommended, that I ever used. They saved my wife's life at the time of 'change of life.' I have been recommending your medicine to many afflicted women and have also guaranteed that if it did not cure I would pay back the money spent for it. I have told our druggist that if the people came back and said Doctor Pierce's medicines did not give satisfaction, to give them back their money and charge it to me. I have not once been called upon to refund. I have never found anything to equal the 'Favorite Prescription' for diseases of women."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Grip

Brought On Sciatic Rheumatism.

Nervous Prostration Followed.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Gave Back Health.

"I was laid up during the winter of 94-95 with sciatic rheumatism and nervous prostration brought on by a severe attack of La-Grippe. The rheumatic pains were so severe at times that it was impossible for me to turn in bed. I was unable to sleep. I had two of our best physicians in attendance, took all the advertised remedies for troubles of this kind but got no help whatever until I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Six bottles restored me to health; I am better than for years; in fact am entirely relieved. I can say with a clear conscience that it was Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine that restored me to health. When the pains of sciatica and rheumatism were most severe I secured almost immediate relief by the use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. I have recommended Dr. Miles' Remedies to many people."—Fred Myers, Redfield, S. D.

"I was taken with pain in my heart and under the left shoulder; with such heavy oppressed feeling in my chest that I could hardly breathe. I had palpitation so bad and my heart would throb so that it would shake my whole bed. I also had a weak, all-gone feeling in the region of my heart. My doctor treated me for liver and stomach trouble but I failed to receive any benefit until a friend recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Restorative Nervine. I used both and one box of the Anti-Pain Pills. I believe I am completely and permanently cured."—Mrs. J. W. Golding, Noblesville, Ind.

OHIO SHOWS GAINS.

Fuller Returns Shows Increase Majority For the State Ticket.

A LARGE VOTE WAS POLLED.

Chairman Dick Claims Plurality of the Republican State Ticket Will Be Over 90,000—Mayor Tom Johnson Defeated.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 6.—One hundred and ninety precincts out of 199 in Cleveland give Laylin, Rep., for secretary of state, 25,559, and Bigelow, Dem., 30,423. The Democrats have elected Lawrence, Tilden and Beacom common pleas judges; Starr, circuit judge; Salen, county clerk; Stage, solicitor, and Burke, coroner. The Republicans elect Kennedy common pleas judge; Barry, sheriff; Evers, surveyor, and White, probate court. Burton and Beidler, Republican congressmen, are re-elected.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—Chairman Dick, at the Republican headquarters late last night, had complete returns from 86 of the 88 Ohio counties, showing a Republican plurality for state candidates of 90,807. The two counties not heard from are Putnam and Noble. The former gave a Democratic plurality of 1,451 and the latter a Republican plurality of 751 last year. Deducting this difference of 700, he estimated the Republican plurality in Ohio at 90,107, but he expects both Putnam and Noble counties will show Republican gains and that the official vote will exceed these figures. Although seventeen counties have not returned their total vote, it is estimated as close to 800,000.

Toledo, Nov. 6.—Toledo complete gives Laylin, Rep., 11,582; Bigelow, 6,512. In 1901 the city gave Nash, Rep., 10,455; Kilbourne, Dem., 9,975. The entire Republican county ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 3,000 to 7,000. Congressman Southard leads the Republican ticket with a majority of 7,000 in the county.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—In this (Franklin) county, which also constitutes the Twelfth congressional district, the Republican plurality in the state ticket is 2,000, while Huling, the Republican candidate for congress, is defeated by 500, due to local opposition to Huling.

ODELL'S PLURALITY 12,885.

State Legislature Is Controlled by the Republicans.

New York, Nov. 6.—Official figures on the vote for governor vary but little from the unofficial reports. According to returns made to the executive at Albany by the several county clerks, the plurality for Odell, Rep., is 12,887. Only three counties above the Bronx were carried by the Democratic nominee, the aggregate plurality for Coler in these counties being 1,011. This and the Greater New York plurality of 122,074 given to Coler was met and overcome by an upstate Republican plurality of 135,972, the difference being a net plurality of 12,887, against 111,126 been more successful as regards the minor offices than in the case of the governor. In some quarters it is asserted that by reason of his endorsement by the Prohibitionists, Cunneen, the Democratic nominee for attorney general, has made such gains over the head of the ticket that he has been elected. There are also claims that when the returns for judge of the court of appeals are all in it will be found that Judge Gray has defeated his Republican opponent.

The state legislature is controlled by the Republicans by a reduced majority, but one so large as to admit of no doubt of the return of Mr. Platt to the United States senate.

The New York delegation in the lower house of the Fifty-eighth congress will number 37, instead of 34, as in the present congress. It will contain 20 Republicans and 17 Democrats, whereas the present delegation stood 22 Republicans and 12 Democrats. All of the more noted members of the delegation have been returned, including Sereno E. Payne, chairman of the ways and means committee.

Not the Success Anticipated.

Copenhagen, Denmark, Nov. 6.—The time for subscribing to the stock of the Danish West Indian company expired yesterday. Of the about $1,000,000 nominal capital, only one-fifth was subscribed for, notwithstanding the advertisement given to the concern by King Christian and Crown Prince Frederick taking stock. The promoters, who are anti-salers, are downcast because of the weakness of the sentiment in favor of aiding the Danish West Indies.

The leaders of the movement intend to appeal to King George of Greece, Queen Alexandra and the Dowager Czarina of Russia to buy shares. The banks and a few individuals will probably finance the matter and stand the losses, since the treaty providing for the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States was rejected partly on account of their promises.

ALLIED PRINTING TRADES UNION LABEL COUNCIL EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1902.

The political contest in New York over-shadowed that in any other state. The Democrats there based their hopes of success not only on the off-year idea, but on the belief that there was a large number of Republican voters who were not in full accord with President Roosevelt, and would not vote to support his administration. Then, too, in the cities comprising Greater New York, the Democratic factional war had died out, and the party was able to present a united front to the forces of Republicanism. But they failed to understand that, while some Republican politicians, notably those in the metropolis, were lukewarm in their adhesion to the president and his policies, the vast mass of the voters in the country districts believe in Mr. Roosevelt most heartily. The count of the ballots developed this error in their judgment. While the metropolis returned a phenomenal Democratic plurality, the honest, thinking voters of the remainder of the Empire state gave their endorsement of the Republican party and a Republican national administration by so thumping a plurality that it overcame the reactionary and socialistic Democracy of Greater New York, and re-elected Governor Odell and the Republican state ticket by a safe plurality. The great state has done nobly.

Five Republican congressmen are elected in West Virginia. Doubtless the state would have elected twice that number had it been entitled to them. West Virginia is prosperous and appreciates the fact. New towns and new industries are springing up all over the state and an intelligent and enterprising population is flocking in. That is the sort of population that appreciates the fact that business interests, to be safe, must be protected, and votes accordingly.

In another column we publish a candid and thoughtful article on the subject of Ohio river improvement. It will repay careful perusal on the part of every business man. East Liverpool is going to be heard from at the Parkersburg convention and to make her influence count. The agitation now begun will bear fruit if effort is not relaxed. Keeping everlastingly at it is the way to get what you want from congress.

Reports of night prowlers and suspicious characters continuing to frighten people in various parts of the city are eloquent arguments in favor of the strict enforcement of the mayor's edict to rid the city of all such characters.

It may be accepted as final that Theodore Roosevelt will be the Republican presidential candidate in 1904, if he lives. He is a fearless statesman and a splendid American.

There are other things to be thankful for besides the fact that the election is over. For instance, East Liverpool has had one day without a morning fog.

The Republican majority in congress is still growing. Democrats always succeed best in figuring up their gains before the returns are all in.

And now some Democrats are saying they were beaten by their "fool friends." But why use the plural in speaking of Tom Johnson?

The more Kennedy's vote is analyzed the more eloquently it speaks of the sentiment of the people against tariff-tinkering.

The only portion of Ohio where Tom Johnson got any support was in Cleveland, and he did his campaigning away from there.

Foot ball games in which nobody's collarbone or shoulder blade is broken would be a popular innovation.

The best thing Tom Johnson can do is to pay his back taxes and start up Salt river.

OBITUARY

Christian Craft.

The sudden and unexpected death yesterday afternoon of Christian Craft, at his home in Oakland, was a grievous surprise to his relatives and many friends. He had been ill for some time of asthma and last Monday a physician was called to see him, but there was nothing alarming in his symptoms at this time. Yesterday morning he complained of suffering internally during the night, but was in good spirits during the forenoon. At noon he was given some light nourishment and his wife and daughter, Mrs. Eckhart, left him for a few moments to attend to some household duties. Mrs. Eckhart returned in a short time and found him dead. The cause of death is attributed to an attack of neuralgia of the heart.

He was born in Hesse, Germany, in 1832, and come to this country 21 years ago, locating in Pittsburg. For many years he operated a cigar factory on Kincaid street. He came to this city about three months ago and bought a home in Oakland, where he resided up to the time of his death. A wife and three children, Mrs. Eckhart, residing with her parents; August Craft, of the East End, and another daughter living in Knoxville, Pa., survive him. He was a highly esteemed old gentleman and a member of several secret societies. The funeral services will be held some time during Saturday, the burial to be either at Riverview cemetery or at Pittsburg.

She is survived by a husband and three children. The children are Mrs. Harvey Rich, of East Palestine; Mrs. Elmer May, of New Springfield, and Webster, who lives at home. Funeral services were held at 10:30, Rev. Fred Cromer officiating.

Mrs. Esther Feezel.

Mrs. Lulu Huston, of this city, left yesterday for Clarkson to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Esther Feezel, which occurred this morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. Mr. McCombs preaching the sermon. AT THE THEATER

Among the many attractions booked to appear at the Grand is one that calls for more than ordinary comment. It is a magnificent production of "The Gates of Justice," produced under the personal direction of Harry Jackson, author of "Over the Sea," "The Denver Express" and other well known successes. It abounds in thrilling climaxes, abundance of clean comedy, a beautiful story well told and a number of the most sensational features ever seen upon any stage. At the Grand tonight.

Harry Emery's big production of "The Burglar And the Waif" comes to the Grand November 8. It is from the pen of C. T. Dazey, who has a number of successes to his credit. It is a play of the real sort and said to be true to life and fairly bristling with that magnetic quality which for a better name we will call heart interest, because it touches the heart, plays upon the emotions and appeals to the better side of mankind.

Thrilling classic of the sea? Frank S. Davidson has dramatized Robinson Cruso, holding vital theme, showing Crusoe sailing from home, the wreck of his ill-fated ship on the island of Despair in the South Seas. Mr. Van Osten has given a sumptuous staging, and in addition to this he carries a Marine band and orchestra of 20 musicians. At the Grand Friday night.

A play which never lacks interest and which can be witnessed with the same enthusiasm the second time as was the first, is the general verdict of all who have witnessed the splendid scenic production of "The Electrician," which is the initial performance with which the Irene Myers company will open their week's engagement at the Grand commencing next Monday evening.

"Ten Nights in a Barroom" was played by a competent company to a crowded house at the Grand last evening. It is an old but wholesome play, and the favor with which it was received shows that performances which teach a healthy lesson are still popular.

SERIOUS CUTTING AFFRAY IN A SALOON LAST NIGHT

NEGRO WEILDING RAZOR

the majority of the residents. Within the past six months he returned from the penitentiary at Columbus, where he served a term for shooting in the West End. The sentence that can be imposed upon a person found guilty of the charge preferred against Hopkins is not less than one year and not more than 20 years in the penitentiary.

Hopkins was arrested this morning at about 11 o'clock by Officers Rhue and Morley. He was taken to the city hall without the least trouble. His face was badly bruised, giving every evidence of having been in a mixup, and he presented a sight almost as bad as did Burgess. To the charge he pleaded not guilty, and stated that he was only guilty of fighting in self defense.

His story of the affair does not tally in any particular with that offered by Burgess. He said in the presence of the mayor that he went into the saloon and bought a drink, handed a quarter to the bartender and was waiting on the change when two men started at him with chairs raised above their heads. He also said that he would never had cut any one had he not been forced to in self defense. The mayor bound him over to court, that being all that he could do under the circumstances.

Mayor Davidson set the time for Hopkins' preliminary hearing for 2 o'clock, this afternoon, but owing to an unexpected happening the hearing was postponed until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. In answer to a summons Burgess reluctantly appeared in the mayor's office to be present at the hearing and while sitting there he fell over in a faint. He was removed to his home in a carriage, and it is barely possible that he may not be sufficiently recovered tomorrow to leave his bed. If so, the hearing will be postponed again. He is suffering greatly from his wounds and is weak from loss of blood.

WELLSVILLE

A FINE CONCERT

Marks the Opening of the High School Entertainment Course in Wellsville.

One of the finest entertainments in the way of a concert that Wellsville people have had the opportunity of listening to for many months was that given last evening in the opera house by the Slayton Woman's Symphony orchestra, who came here under the direction of the Brockway Lecture bureau.

It was the first entertainment of the winter series to be given for the benefit of the high school. This course was gotten up by C. J. Berg, a local newspaper man, but the entire proceeds are to go into a fund for the high school library.

Of the entertainment too much cannot be said. The Hecker quartet soloists were of a high order and each individual part of the entertainment went to show that the orchestra is one of the finest musical organizations that ever appeared in this city.

The next entertainment on the winter course will be the Brockway Jubilee Singers. They will be here and appear in the opera house on the evening of December 25.

AGAINST EMPIRE TEAM

Arrangements for an Interesting Match With the Brunos Saturday.

Manager Bunting, of the Bruno Athletic foot ball team of this city, is making arrangements with the manager of the strong Empire team for a game to be played at the latter town Saturday afternoon. The Empire team was successful in holding down the West End Rovers, of East Liverpool, in a game recently, neither side being able to score. The Empire team is much stronger than the Brunos, averaging in weight nearly 15 pounds more to the man.

The game will probably be one of the fastest of the season for the Brunos. The local team has not been scored against this season. They will endeavor to maintain this record in the Saturday game. According to present arrangements the Wellsville boys will go to Empire on the 3 o'clock train and return on the "growler."

C. & P. IMPROVEMENTS

Additions to the Shops—Extension of Yard Facilities Talked Of.

Work upon the improvements at the C. & P. shops at Twelfth street is progressing rapidly, and it is expected that everything will be finished before the first of next month. The new blacksmith repair shop will be a great improvement, and is much needed.

It has been rumored that the C. & P. will soon purchase the low land property lying just below the Carroll-Porter boiler works for yardage purposes, being seriously crowded with the present facilities for handling freight. If the land is purchased it will probably mean eventually the extending of the yards to Yellow Creek.

Arrested For Train Jumping.

George Kineskey and Joseph Crites, foreign laboring men, were arrested at 2 o'clock a. m., in the C. & P. yards by Detective Moore, of the railroad company. They were charged with train jumping. Before Mayor Fogo they pleaded not guilty. They said that they had walked from Toronto to this city being too poor to pay their railroad fare. Both claim they were looking for work. They are still locked up pending more thorough investigation.

Our Anniversary Month.

Sixteen years ago this month we began business in East Liverpool.

We began with a floor space of 800 square feet. Six times we have moved and enlarged until now we have more than 40,000 square feet.

We wanted to show you pictures of our stores at the different times in our history, but the engravers disappointed us.

We're sorry for this for they would have given you a good idea of our enormous growth.

As it is we'll have to ask you to consider this line —

It represents our size in 1886.

Now, consider this one

It represents our present size

50 TIMES AS LARGE

as when we began.

Are we doing business in the same proportion? Yes: some months we do five times as much business as we did our entire first year.

THIS MONTH IS TO BE

one of our BIG ones. We've made all preparations for it. For months we've been getting ready for this our Anniversary Month. We've the Biggest Stock---the Cleanest Stock---the most Varied Stock we ever had.

We're going to make this

OIL BUSINESS ACTIVE

The Carson Field a Money-Maker. More New Wells Started.

Work in the Carson oil field still continues unabated. Miller & Murray commenced another well on the Samuel Carson farm Monday. Freshwater & Son's well on the Carson Bros.' farm was started to pumping yesterday and will make 20 barrels a day.

Freshwater & Carson and Freshwater & Son, who have been selling their oil to the Eureka Oil company, controlled by the Standard, have cancelled their contracts with that company and are negotiating today with another company for the sale of it.

Several wells in the field which are producing gas have been fitted up and the farmers in the vicinity are having it put in their homes. John R. Scott, who has a good gas well on his farm, is fitting his house and will use gas for heating and lighting. Luther Carson, James Carson, Mack Carson and Joseph Ramsey each have put gas in their homes.

This field has been a money-maker, although no enormously big wells have been struck. It bids fair to be a good stayer.

To Operate Near Chester.

The La Belle Oil & Gas company, of Wellsburg, has been chartered with a capital stock of $6,000. The incorporators are J. E. Wright, of Steubenville; G. W. Hannan, George E. House, Ed Jones and A. A. Franzheim, of Wheeling. The company will commence operations at once near Chester. Two wells have been located, one on Chief J. H. Allison's farm and one on Lee O. Conant's farm near Fairview.

Belmont Teacher Killed.

St. Clairville, November 6.—C. F. Dillon, a well known teacher in this county, was killed near Morristown. He was principal of the Belmont schools and while returning from his home in Morristown to Belmont the team he was driving ran away, upsetting the buggy and dragging him some distance. He was found by the roadside dead.

The Vote for Senator.

The First senatorial district gave the following majorities: Hancock, 250; Brooke, 177; Ohio, 1,267. Snyder, R., has 1,694 majority over Handlan, D.

CHESTER NOTES.

An infant child of James Stewart on Hookstown road died last night.

Mrs. W. W. Herron, of the Carson oil field, was in Chester last evening.

J. H. Ramsey, of Lisbon, was in Chester yesterday. He will probably locate here.

Mrs. Frank Rambo and daughter, of Lawrenceville, are both sick with typhoid fever.

E. C. Baxter went to New Cumberland yesterday with the ballot box and election returns.

O. O. Allison bought a lot on the corner of Indiana and Second street yesterday. Price, $500.

Steve Severs came home from Kittanning, Pa., Monday, where he is still engaged in street grading. He will return today.

Dr. J. E. Toot, of East Liverpool, passed through Chester early this morning for a short hunting trip out in the country.

A merry crowd of serenaders went out to the home of R. G. Stewart last night to serenade the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens.

ANOTHER RACE

Owners of Billy W And Maud M Want a Match And Will Probably Have It.

There is some talk of another race between Billy W, owned by Frank Dickey, and Maud M, owned by G. W. Meredith. These horses raced a very pretty match race at Columbian park Tuesday afternoon, Billy W winning after five hard heats. The backers of Maud M are positive that she is the fastest horse, and Billy W, having backers equally as confident of his ability, it is almost an assured fact that the race will come off. Many contend that had Maud M had an experienced driver Tuesday she would have been the winner.

Mr. Dickey when seen today stated that nothing had been definitely arranged for the match, but thought that it would likely occur.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

A CHAPTER ON BELLEEK.

John Hart Brewer, of Trenton, N. J., first attempted the manufacture of Belleek ware in this country. He commenced his experiments in 1882, and in the following year brought over from England William Bromley and his son from the Belleek works in Ireland. Subsequently the elder Bromley joined the Willets Manufacturing company, of the same city, and introduced the manufacture of the egg shell there, and at the present time there are no less than five or six establishments in Trenton where the same class of ware is made. Among many specialties recently introduced is a new style of decoration which has been worked out by Miss Kate Seers, a Kansas girl, who studied modeling in Boston. Going to Trenton for the purpose of pursuing her studies in this direction, one day in 1891, while engaged in working over the wet Belleek, the idea of carving delicate designs in the dry clay occurred to her, and after conducting a series of experiments her efforts were crowned with success. The process of modeling which has been formed in the wet clay and dried is taken before it has been in the kiln, and with knives or other tools the design is cut so as to leave the background as thin and transparent as possible when finished. As the dry Belleek, besides being thin, is extremely brittle, and crumbles easily, the carving is an exceedingly difficult operation. It is a very slow process, necessarily, since at any moment the knife is liable to cut through the wall and ruin the piece. The marks which appear on the various productions of Belleek porcelain are of considerable interest to collectors and admirers of this beautiful ware. Mr. Goss has adopted as his factory mark his family crest, a falcon rising ducally gorged, which is printed on each piece in blank. The mark of the Belleek factory in Ireland consists of the four Irish emblems, the watch tower, the hound, the harp of Erin, and the shamrock, and is printed on that ware in green or black. The manufacture of Belleek ware was introduced into this country by English potters, who had learned the process at the potteries in England and Ireland, and could therefore lay claim to originality so far as the product is concerned, yet, in a measure, the ware as made in America differs materially from the foreign in many respects, and has been developed in new directions, so far as it has come to have distinctive characteristics of its own which entitle it to be ranked with an original American production.

LARGE ADDITION PLANNED.

The officials of the Salem China company will soon put in a new fire protection system. It will be known as the sprinkling system. The company decided to do this before making any changes as has been contemplated for some time. Next spring it is the intention of the company to make a large addition to the plant. The business has increased to such an extent that it is necessary to make provisions to handle the trade. The sprinkling system to be placed in the pottery will be unlike any other in the city. Some idea of the vastness of the work will be known when it is stated that it will take three months to complete the work. When this system is once installed it will be practically impossible to destroy the plant by fire. Every inch of the ceiling and floor will be covered so that at a moment's notice the water can be turned on to quench an incipient blaze which appears in any way dangerous. The pottery officials will have special connections with the water works. The officials will not depend on the water secured from the water-works alone and have decided to construct a large cistern to obtain all the water necessary. In addition to this the company will place in its own pumps. When completed the pottery people will have the most complete system of fire protection of any plant in the city.

ENGLISH TRADE IS BETTER.

The Staffordshire, England, Sentinel, of recent date, says there was a slight improvement in the condition of the potting industry during the past week. This improvement was not confined to one section of the trade, but reached nearly every department and was most pronounced in the Australian market and other colonial markets. Trade with the United States is slowly improving, and the demand for the best class of dinner ware is increasing, these being in most instances well decorated. Travelers out in the states speak more hopefully of better trade than for some time past. This applies all round, but more particularly to the electrical trade. Hollowware pressers are working more regularly, and sanitary pressers report employment as good in all branches. Flat pressers report employment as good in all lines and are working full time.

PAINFULLY INJURED.

Blaine Brown, a cousin of George Drake, of the glost kiln crew at the Union, was painfully injured on election day while hunting near Washington, Pa. There was a premature discharge of the gun and the contents entered his left hand, near the wrist. The wound is a serious one, but it is not known yet if amputation will be necessary.

COMPLAIN OF GARBAGE.

The jiggermen at the Union are complaining of the garbage barrels that line the alley west of the plant, between Walnua and Broadway. They cannot lower their windows on account of the stench, and unless the nuisance is soon abated the board of health will be notified.

LANDED FINE FISH.

Lambert Myers, bench boss of the biscuit end at Cartwright's, was one of a party of four that was fishing across the river from Walker one night last week. Mr. Lambert landed two nice 4-pound catfish, and a 3-pound perch. Altogether the party caught 52.

AMONG THE POTTERS.

Harry Stevens has gone on for Jiggerman W. H. Duke, at D. E. McNicol's.

John Ball has taken a situation as gilder in the decorating room at McNicol's.

John Fox, mould runner for John Crowley at the Union, has been off sick this week.

John Wines and James McFadden, mould runners at D. E. McNicol's, have quit.

Miss Susan Mason, of the biscuit warerooms at the Union, has resigned her position.

Miss Camilia McDonald, a finisher at the Union, has been off sick for several days.

A car of yellow and white ware was shipped today from D. E. McNicol's to Des Moines, Ia.

Miss Lottie Garrison started yesterday at the Union as takeroff in the dipping department.

Harry Devon, of the glost kiln end at D. E. McNicol's, is back at work again after several days sickness.

William Johnson, batterout at D. E. McNicol's, is back to work again after a three week's illness with tonsilitis.

John Marshall, batterout for jiggerman Fred Goppert, at the Union has been laid up for several days with a sore arm.

James Brooks has changed from the biscuit to the glost end at William F. Brunt's, and is now William Dunn's bench mate.

Harry Duke, of the glost kiln crew at D. E. McNicol's, accompanied by his wife, visited relatives on the South Side Sunday.

Elmer McDole, of the glost kiln crew at William H. Brunt's, will leave Saturday for Barberton to resume his old job as bench boss.

Frank Curry, a finisher at the Union, who has been seriously ill for a week with tonsilitis, was back at work again yesterday.

Al McShane, of the glost end at McNicol's, is extra motorman on the Chester and East Liverpool line, and was on duty last Sunday.

Fred Stetson, of the glost kiln at the Union, and James Jones will leave Friday for West Virginia to spend a couple of days hunting.

John Quinn, who has been employed lately as mould maker at the American China company, Sebring, has accepted a similar situation at William Brunt's.

Miss Bessie Demerling fainted yesterday morning in the decorating room at William H. Brunt's, and was sent to her home on Thompson's hill.

Miss Maude Giles, a gilder, employed in the decorating department at the Union, is very ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hull, in Toronto.

Miss Annie Tyndall has resigned as taker-off in the dipping department at the Union to accept a situation in the printing department at Brunt's. Miss Hattie Smith succeeded her.

Andrew McCartney, a placer in the glost kiln crew at D. E. McNicol's, is preparing to make a visit to his old home in Staffordshire, England. He has not yet decided on the exact time for his departure.

One of the McNicol kiln crew was out rabbit hunting one day this week, and during the progress of the sport, saw a "bunny" and in his excitement, yelled lustily: "Here he goes, boys," forgetting that he carried a gun.

Commission Purchases Rice.

Manila, Nov. 6.—The Philippine commission has quietly purchased upward of 20,000 tons of rice in India and on the Asiatic coast, in order to avert the rice famine which is threatening many provinces.

The plans of the commissioners were concealed in order to avoid a further disturbance of the Oriental market and so as to prevent possible combinations with the view of raising prices. The government's stock of rice gives it control of the local market and prevents operators from charging excessive prices.

NAVIGABLE RIVER THE YEAR AROUND

What It Would Mean to the People of the Prosperous Ohio Valley.

PROJECT IS PRACTICABLE

And Engineers' Estimates Are That an Expenditure of $60,000,000 Would Ensure a 9-Foot Stage for 1,000 Miles, or from Pittsburg to Cairo.

Now that the election is over the people of Ohio, and especially those close to the river, have already begun to turn their attention again to the improvement of their waterway. The recent difficulties and privations of the towns down the river in the matter of coal, largely owing to a low stage forbidding navigation at a critical moment, were more annoying than usual simply because they were associated with worse troubles occurring in Pennsylvania and along tidewater.

What the people want is a navigable stage of water from Pittsburg to Cairo all the year around. In the program of the Ohio Valley Improvement association this demand takes this technical form: "Slackwater from Pittsburg to Cairo, with a minimum stage of nine feet." In order to hasten the work, the members of the association argue that the whole system should be dealt with as a single improvement. So much investigation has been put upon the preliminaries of the task that the estimates of cost are supposed to be as nearly accurate as they can be made beforehand. According to these estimates an outlay of $60,000,000 will insure a depth of nine feet throughout the whole reach of 1,000 miles.

The military engineers in charge of the work for the government are responsible for the plan of making a depth of nine feet. A great deal of work had already been done to provide a stage of six feet. But the engineers are more farsighted than the ordinary run of river men. They could remember that the Ohio was once in its history an important military highway, and they could divine that the whole scheme of waterway improvement in the Mississippi should be gauged in a great measure by the magnitude of the canal at the isthmus. Business men also saw the importance of having the work on the Ohio completed by the time the isthmian canal is ready for use.

Now it appears that the multitudes interested in Mississippi improvements are being urged by unwonted activity in the light of the activity along the Ohio. But it must be remembered that the Ohio Valley Improvement association has not yet obtained the legislation it desires, that is, a single act of congress providing for the whole enterprise, with a sufficient appropriation to begin work all along the line, and authorizing completion under a continuous contract system.

The efforts to delay the beginning of work at the isthmus will probably not be prolonged when it is found that the United States is really ready to dig the big ditch. It gives South American diplomatists at home and elsewhere a little fame to have interfered in the world's business. But it will give them something besides fame if they push their interference to a point where it would become a nuisance.

Meanwhile the Ohio Valley association is shortly to meet at Parkersburg. It will no doubt come near formulating exactly what it hopes for in the form of legislation. Then the case will come again to the attention of the committee of congress on rivers and harbors. There is no part of the state of Ohio which will not in the outcome be benefited by the improvement. It is as much a part of the isthmian waterway system as the isthmian canal itself. For that reason it is to be hoped that the Ohio valley people will leave nothing vague in their plans at their coming meeting.

NEARER TO WHEELING

The Lake Erie, Alliance & Wheeling Being Rushed to the Southward.

Wheeling, November 6.—The Lake Erie, Alliance & Wheeling, the new road that expects to shortly enter this section down along the river and into Martin's Ferry, has just issued a time table which is of interest to this section, inasmuch as it shows the extension of the road about twenty-two miles towards the terminal. The terminus of the road was formerly at Bergholz, but now trains are running through to Piney Fork, which is the temporary terminus.

When the road will enter Wheeling is rather indefinite, as considerable difficulty is being experienced in the securing of the right of way from Piney Fork to the river.

When the road is completed it will mean much for the river district and Jefferson county, as it will afford another road to the lakes that will in a measure relieve the over-congested conditions of the roads at present in use and will also permit of a growth in the industries and mining business of the section.

The Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling is still in a very congested condition and several engines have been transferred from the Baltimore & Ohio to help out. The Wheeling & Lake Erie is also very busy in the handling of coal, and a greater demand has been made for that product with the approach of winter. The Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling is in a better position to handle heavy traffic now than it was several months ago, for the work of widening the tunnels and double tracking of the road is progressing towards completion. Several important changes will also be made in the train schedule on this road about the middle of the month and the Massillon trains will run through to Cleveland.

THE PINKHAM CURES

ATTRACTING GREAT ATTENTION AMONG THINKING WOMEN.

Mrs. Frances Stafford, of 243 E. 114th St., N.Y. City, adds her testimony to the hundreds of thousands on Mrs. Pinkham's files.

When Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies were first introduced skeptics all over the country frowned upon their curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by the new discovery has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands, doubts and skepticisms have been swept away as by a mighty flood, until to-day the great good that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and her other medicines are doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, physicians and thinking people.

Merit alone could win such fame; wise, therefore, is the woman who for a cure relies upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Hearst Complaint Filed.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The complaint of William Randolph Hearst, of New York, against anthracite coal carrying railroads charging that the latter's rates for the transportation of coal from the anthracite fields to New England, New York, Maryland and the District of Columbia, are unreasonable and unjust, was filed in the interstate commerce commission yesterday. The commission immediately sent notifications of the complaint to the railroad companies named as defendants, as follows: Philadelphia and Reading railway, Lehigh Valley, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, Central of New Jersey, New York, Susquehanna and Western, Erie, New York, Ontario and Western, Delaware and Hudson, Pennsylvania, and Baltimore and Ohio. The roads have until the 20th inst. to file their answer.

The complaint alleges that the rates subject the consumers at the points named, and the producers of such coal who are not common carriers or corporations owned and controlled by common carriers, to unreasonable prejudice and disadvantage, in violation of the interstate commerce act. It charges that the rates are discriminating and prejudicial to the interests of dealers and consumers of anthracite coal as compared with the transportation rates for bituminous coal for much longer distances, and also as compared with the defendants' rates and charges on other carload freight traffic generally. It is alleged that the Lehigh, Central of New Jersey, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, and Erie, New York, Susquehanna and Western, and the Philadelphia and Reading roads have entered into a freight pooling agreement.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures cold and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. SOCIAL EVENTS

BAIR-STEELE

PROMINENT YOUNG COUPLE WEDDED AT STEUBENVILLE.

Superb Decorations And Impressive Ceremony—Many Guests Present from This City.

The wedding of William Frederick Steele, of this city, and Miss Katherine Bair, of Steubenville, which took place at the bride's home last evening, was one of the most elaborate social events that has been seen there for some time. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Higgins, of the First Presbyterian church of Steubenville.

The decorations of the beautiful house were elaborate. Masses of green ferns and pink and white chrysanthemums made a beautiful background for the ceremony. Prof. Vorsortz's orchestra was in attendance, and to the strains of a beautiful wedding march the ribbon bearers, Masters Albert Childes and James Lowrie, came down one of the stairways. They were followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Helen McGowan, of Steubenville. The bride, leaning on the arm of her father, made her appearance and at the same time the groom, accompanied by Frederick Lawrence, of the East Liverpool Potteries company, of this city, made their appearance on the other side of the hall leading to the parlor of the Bair residence.

The contracting parties took their places beneath a canopy of flowers in the corner of the parlor. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was tendered the newly wedded pair, followed by an elaborate wedding supper.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bair, of Steubenville. The father of the bride is one of the leading merchants of the county seat of Jefferson county, and she is well known in the society and social circles of that city.

The groom is well known in East Liverpool and is manager of the George F. Brunt Porcelain company, in which establishment he has demonstrated his business ability during the past few years.

The couple left Steubenville last night for the east. They will visit in Philadelphia, New York, Washington, Baltimore and Old Point Comfort. They will be gone for three weeks before returning to this city, where they will make their home. The presents received were very valuable and numerous.

Those from East Liverpool who were in attendance at the wedding were Mrs. Mary Steele, mother of the groom; Miss Sadie Steele, Mrs. Charles Bright, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vodrey, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bough, Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, Mrs. Robert Hill, T. R. Hall, Dr. Joseph Cartwright, J. C. Kelly, Homer Clark, Misses Clara Stewart and Laura Hill.

A DELIGHTFUL EVENT

Was the Eucher Party Given By the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association.

A most delightful social event was the euchre party given last evening in the Knights of Columbus hall by the Ladies' Catholic Benefit association. The ladies took care of the large crowd in a most acceptable manner.

The play continued until after midnight, when dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

About 150 people were present who indulged the moments all too fleeting. In the main room the euchre players were assembled and in the parlor immediate to the hall way the players were at tables where the game was "progressive peanuts."

Prizes were offered, those bearing away the trophies of the evening being as follows:

Progressive euchre—First, Dr. Frank Harrison, oak rocker; second, Herbert Crites, pair of fancy slippers; third, George Hendricks; fourth, John Maloney, consolation prize. Among the ladies, Mrs. Herbert Crites won first, oak rocker; second, Miss Anna Maloney; third, Miss Anna Maley, fourth (consolation), Mrs. Michael O'Malley.

In the game of progressive peanuts the first prize was accorded to Mrs. Gilligallon and the second to Miss McKeone.

AT ST. ALOYSIUS

CHAS. WALSH AND MISS AGNES LYNCH WEDDED TODAY.

Beautiful Ceremony Followed By Wedding Breakfast And Much Enjoyment.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred this morning at 6 o'clock in St. Aloysius' church, when Miss Agnes Lynch and Charles Walsh were united in marriage by the Rev. Father Mahan in the presence of a large circle of friends and relatives.

The usual beautiful ceremony provided by the Catholic ritual was most impressively carried out, and the young couple with the bridesmaid, Miss Lynch, a sister of the bride, made a pleasing picture.

Following the ceremony the newly wedded couple were driven to the home of the bride, on Bradshaw avenue, where, with a number of the relatives and friends they enjoyed a choice wedding breakfast. After this they again repaired to a carriage and were driven to the depot, taking the west bound train for Cleveland, New York and other points. Returning to this city they will go to housekeeping immediately.

The big crowd of friends that accompanied the happy ones to the depot derived much pleasure from well arranged plans of bidding them a farewell. Every person of the party had a quantity of rice and some had pairs of old shoes. What they did with them is easily guessed. The train and platform were literally covered with the rice and the interior of the train was strewn with placards such as "They are just married," "Were you ever in the same boat?" "This is Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walsh, newly wed."

The groom is the oldest son of J. C. Walsh, the Sixth street landlord, and is a young man of good standing. He has for two years been prominently connected with the East Liverpool baseball team, as manager, and has a large number of friends. The bride is the estimable daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lynch, of Bradshaw avenue, and she possesses traits that draw all acquaintenances to her and cause them to look upon her as a lady of high character and lovable disposition.

Married Nineteen Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, of Lincoln avenue, are celebrating their nineteenth wedding anniversary today. They were married in East Liverpool and have resided in this city ever since. The event will be observed by a supper at the home this evening at which all the members of the family will be present, in addition to a few intimate friends.

Gave a Surprise.

The East Liverpool lodge Daughters of Rebekah gave quite a pleasant surprise last evening for Mrs. W. E. Warren at her home in Chester. Mrs. Warren was much surprised to see 100 ladies at her home. The evening was spent in music, and an oyster supper was prepared by the guests who brought with them quite a supply.

Entertained Her Friends.

Miss Rose Shamp entertained a number of her friends last evening at her home on Sheridan avenue. Music and games served to while away the time pleasantly and enticing refresehments were served.

Surprise Party.

About 40 of Oscar McCoy's friends called on him unexpectedly Wednesday evening at his home on Robinson street. They were all heartily welcomed and enjoyed a pleasant evening with games and music.

Ohioville Couple Wedded.

Edward Davis and Miss Elizabeth Barclay, both of Ohioville, Pa., were wedded by Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart at his home yesterday afternoon.

The Whist Club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gass will entertain the Whist club this evening.

THE HIGHEST PRAISE

For the Briggs Piano from a Gifted Pianist—Unsolicited Testimonial.

As is customary in every case where a first-class instrument is necessary the Smith & Phillips Music company, of this city, was called upon to provide the piano for the Slayton Woman's Symphony orchestra upon the occasion of its visit to this city last Tuesday evening.

Knowing that it would be useless to send any but the very best in the large establishment, since the class of music played and the extent to which every instrument used by the superb aggregation is taxed, would render it impossible to use an inferior one, the local company supplied a celebrated Briggs piano. When the instrument was removed from the opera house it was found, upon opening the same, that a note had been placed beneath the lid. The letter was written by Miss Stella M. Hecker, the gifted pianist with the company, and reads as follows:

"I can recommend with pleasure the Briggs piano, particularly for good action and quality of tone.

"STELLA M. HECKER."

The commendable expression of Miss Hecker, coming as it did purely voluntary, is gratifying to the firm here, and greatly appreciated by it.

SERIOUS CUTTING AFFRAY IN A SALOON LAST NIGHT NEGRO WEILDING A RAZOR

Robert Hopkins Arrested For Inflicting Terrible Wounds Upon Thomas Burgess in a Quarrel.

With his left arm terribly cut, a deep gash in the stomach and a part of his clothing slashed into shreds, Thomas Burgess, a well known resident of Sheridan avenue, tottered into the mayor's office, being extremely weak from the loss of blood, this morning and swore out a warrant charging Bob Hopkins, a negro of much local notoriety, with cutting with intent to maim.

It required a strenuous effort on the part of Burgess to steady himself enough to file the charge. He at times seemed as if he were going to drop into a state of insensibility and at intervals he could not refrain from giving utterance to sighs and groans as a result of the wounds inflicted.

Trembling like a leaf, and apparently worrying over the probable outcome of his unfortunate accident, he in a quivering, but a firm voice explained his condition and its origin. At the conclusion of the show at the Grand last evening he started on his way home and upon reaching Frank Rigot's saloon, on West Market street, he entered to converse a moment with Mr. Rigot, being an intimate friend of the saloonist and occasionally his bartender. Upon stepping into the place he heard a slight argument and a glance was enough to see that it was between Hopkins and Mrs. Rigot, who was behind the counter.

Hopkins had been in the saloon for some time and had consumed no small amount of liquor. It was near closing time and Hopkins had been ordered to vacate. He remonstrated stubbornly and refused to move unless the money which he had spent was returned to him. Rather than create a disturbance Mrs. Rigot concluded to give the man the money and started to the register for it. It was while she was at the money drawer that the fight commenced.

Burgess heard Hopkins make an insulting remark about Mrs. Rigot and resented it, saying: "You cannot call that woman a name like that while I am here."

Hopkins then became like an enraged maniac. With fire flashing from his eyes, but without uttering a word, he reached to his hip pocket and seized a razor. As he commenced to flourish it in a dangerous manner Burgess knew that there was trouble of the worst kind ahead and quicker than a flash he grasped a chair, and with an unerring aim, landed the rude weapon on the colored man's head, knocking him to the floor. Quickly regaining his stand Hopkins made a dash at Burgess and sank the keen-edged razor deep into the pit of his stomach.

Burgess cried out in pain and rage and again resorted to a chair for defense. This time he was too slow in acting. Hopkins ran upon him, preventing the raising of the chair and once more wielded the sharp instrument. An overcoat, coat and two shirts were no barriers against the terrible blade. It was well guided and carried out the desperate negro's intention. Through the thickness of cloth it carved, striking the left arm of Burgess a few inches below the elbow and taking a circular course around the arm. This cut was by far the most dangerous and painful. It severed the flesh for a length of six inches, and it pierced a tumor to the core.

Blood spurted from the wound in horrifying quantities and for a time the injured man and those present were fearful that the flow could not be stopped. A cord was wrapped tightly around the arm above the elbow, but it seemed to have but little effect, and when the three physicians summoned arrived Burgess was suffering intensely both from loss of blood and excitement. The physicians encountered some difficulty in treating the wound and considerable time was consumed in getting it under control. A number of stitches were necessary to close the parts opened on the arm and two were required for the cut in the stomach.

Immediately after Hopkins had rendered his man helpless he dashed to the street and went home. He is one of the most dangerous and feared men that ever lived in this city. His criminal record is well known to

CASES ARGUED IN CIRCUIT COURT

Road Cases Occupy Much of the Attention of the Judicial Body.

Litigation Over a Road in Hanover Township And the Case of Mrs. Snyder, of Wellsville, Among Those That Were Argued.

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special.)—The November session of the circuit court opened yesterday afternoon, Judge J. B. Burrows presiding. Several cases were quickly disposed of.

In the matter of a township road petitioned for by John and Stewart Patterson, of Elkrun township, which has been taken up on error, the case was dismissed.

The cases of D. E. Mather vs. W. H. Booth and Minerva Shultz vs. Thomas T. Hamilton et al were settled.

The cases of James H. McDowell, trustee in bankruptcy of H. S. Warner against T. T. Church and Mary Rusa, executors of R. P. Rush, deceased; N. B. Billingsley vs. I. B. Cameran, receiver; Daniel P. Lawson vs. William R. Wells et al and Amanda Hailes vs. Martin V. Grimes, administrator of the estate of Mary Watson, deceased, were all continued.

The hearing of the case of Reason Barnes et al against Charles Strain et al, of Hanover township, commenced yesterday and continued this morning. The matter in litigation is the right of plaintiff to use a private right of way through the farm of defendant to a state road. Mr. Barnes maintains that the road through his neighbor's farm has been in use 40 years or more, being the only outlet from his property to the public highway. Some time ago defendant forbade plaintiff crossing his farm, justifying himself with the assertion that Barnes left the gates open on his way through. He also said the right to pass through his farm was never granted.

The case of Wellsville vs. Margaret J. Snyder, taken up on error, was argued this morning. Mrs. Snyder had recovered a judgment of $50 against the city and as damages for a change of grade.

IN PROBATE COURT

Administrator Appointed—Controversy Over Guardian's Sale of Realty.

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special.)—Isaiah Flickinger has been appointed administrator of the state of the late William Essenwein. In accepting the appointment Mr. Flickinger filed an estimate of the estate and filed a bond for $1,700. The appraisers are John Weaver, Ed Snyder and Charles Halloway.

In the case of P. B. Moore, of East Palestine, as guardian, against Amos Marince et al, in which the court refused some days ago to confirm the guardian's disposal of real estate at private sale, on the ground that the consideration was less than the law required, the court has rescinded its order of public sale, and again issued an order of private sale. It was shown that the guardian had made an error in reporting the proceeds, which were placed at $1,003, when the amount should have been $1,293.

SURVEYS BEING MADE

For the Jones & Laughlins Railroad Through the Northern Part of This County.

Surveys are now being run for the proposed Jones & Laughlins Steel company's railroad line in northern Columbiana county. Rights of way are being secured easily, it is said, and the line is being built with little care for anything but securing favorable grades.

Surveys have been made three times through the territory by the engineers of the steel company. It is said that final adoption of that route is now settled. John A. George, of East Liverpool, is the engineer in charge of the work.

National Organizer Present.

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special)—J. H. Barlow, of Cripple Creek, Colorado, national organizer of the Retail Clerks' union, attended the local union meeting last evening and made an address. A movement is being made among the clerks in Columbiana for organization.

NOTICES TO QUIT BEING SERVED

Chief Thompson Warning Shanty-Boat Owners to Obey Recent Ordinance.

NEW LAW IS ATTACKED

And the River Contingent Proposes to Go to Court And Defend Its Rights to Live As It Has Been Doing. A Census of Shantytown.

Chief of Police Thompson this morning began serving notices on the shanty boat people to vacate. Contrary to expectations he met with no trouble. The occupants of the boats, however, intimated that they will pay no attention to the notices and that they will carry the matter to the courts. They have agreed each to contribute enough money to employ a competent attorney to defend them, and all are confident that the ordinance passed recently to oust them will have to be repealed. Many of them are living on what they say is private property, and state that, as they pay rent for the ground, they cannot be moved.

Chief Thompson stated that never before did he realize how many marine laws there are in existence. The men of the boats claim to be well posted on the laws and cited to him section after section. Some of them intend to fight the ordinance on the 14 feet law which, they state, gives them the right to harbor a boat on the shore providing they keep within 14 feet of the water.

It is very probable that a strong fight will be put up and that some interesting developments will result. The chief thinks that he will not get all of the notices served before tomorrow evening, and possibly not until Saturday. If the notices are heeded the people will vacate within ten days.

While serving the notices Chief Thompson, just for the benefit of the public that are interested, is taking a census of the inhabitants of the boats. Some of the boats, although not more than 10x20, are harboring from ten to fifteen persons, and on the entire number of boats, it is estimated that there are about 150 people.

TRADES COUNCIL LOSES GOOD OFFICER

LEROY ORR RESIGNED AS TRUSTEE LAST EVENING.

Tailors' Dispute And War Over Non-Union Bread Were Discussed.

Trades and Labor Council held a fairly well attended meeting at Brotherhood hall last evening. President McConnell was unable to be present, and the meeting was presided over by U. G. King, of Typographical union.

A number of matters of a private nature were up for consideration, but they cannot be given to the public. Two new delegates were seated, and under the proper head a communication was read from the Frankfort (Ill.) United Garment Workers' union. The letter stated that the Knapp Clothing company of that city had locked out its employes. It asked that a committee be appointed to interview local clothiers with a view to ascertaining whether or not the product of the Knapp company was being sold in East Liverpool. The communication was favorably acted upon.

Leroy Orr, for the past five years one of the most active labor men of this section, retires from the council with the meeting of last night. Mr. Orr has devoted much time and money to the cause of labor, and his work in behalf of the council has been productive of much good. He resigned his position as trustee of the council, a duty he has performed for several years. William Cope, of the turners' and handlers' union, was unanimously elected to succeed him.

A committee which was appointed at the last meeting to aid the local tailors' union in a dispute which had arisen within its ranks, made a report. A member of the union, employed in a shop of this city had refused to attach the union label to garments made by him, and the union had asked the council to lend its influence in persuading the obstinate member to observe the rules. The delegates from the tailors' union were given instructions which will doubtless result in a settlement of the question.

Another discussion was indulged in relative to the war being waged against non-union bread here by the Trades Council and the members of the bakers' union. The fight, according to the sentiment manifested, will be continued until there is not a dealer left who will handle the non-union product. Fred Martindale, of the label committee of Trades Council, is at work upon a plan which he hopes will aid materially to bring about the desired end. He will submit the plan for the approval of the council at its next meeting.

GEN. DICK'S REPUTATION AS A POLITICAL PROPHET IS FULLY VINDICATED

His Forecast Was Remarkable For Its Accuracy. Nevin as a Possible Gubernetorial Candidate.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, November 6.—The Republican plurality in Ohio will hover about the 90,000 mark, and the total vote, in the judgment of Chairman Dick, will approximate 800,000, a little less than that of last year. The results in Ohio are very gratifying to the Republican managers. The people have in an unmistakable and vigorous fashion showed their complete disapproval of Democracy, Tom Johnson and his multifarious policies, fads, isms, etc. The leaders regard the result as an endorsement of what McKinley stood for, Republican principles and of the administration of President Roosevelt.

The wonderful victory has brought joy to the Republicans and deep gloom to their opponents. Once more it has been demonstrated that Chairman Dick is a political prophet of wonderful ability. His forecast was remarkable for its accuracy. He predicted that the state would go Republican by at least 75,000, and added that if there was anything like a full vote out it might reach 100,000. He said that 17 and perhaps 18 Republican congressmen would be elected. His prognostications have been borne out.

In the defeat of Huling, of the Columbus district, the Republicans lost one congressman, but they made this up by knocking out Norton in the Thirteenth district, which was thought to be invulnerable by the Democrats. Jackson, the Republican candidate, won by about 300 to spare. Norton is a third termer and he threatens to contest Jackson's election on the ground that many ballots were cast for him were improperly marked and should have been thrown out. The defeat of the latter was one of the surprises of the election, although it was predicted by Chairman Dick. The latter, while not admitting that Huling would be defeated, acknowledged his election was doubtful. Factional troubles caused Huling's defeat. Congressman Nevin, Republican, carried the Dayton district by over 6,000. Two years ago he slid in by the skin of his teeth. Congressman Norton's plurality two years ago was almost 7,000.

A friend of Congressman Nevin says that, encouraged by the overwhelming endorsement given him in a district which until two years ago was strongly Democratic and whose Republicanism had been looked upon as being precarious during the past two years, he will be a full-fledged candidate for governor next year.

Judge A. I. Alread, chief clerk in the office of the secretary of state, claims that Judge Badger, Democrat, elected to congress over Huling in this district, is ineligible to a seat in congress for the reason that he did not resign from the common pleas bench before the election. Smith Bennett, special counsel in the office of the attorney general, coincides in this view. Judge Alread was elected to the common pleas bench in Darke county on Tuesday. He will resign his position about next February.

Chairman Garber, of the Democratic committee, has issued a statement praising Tom Johnson and claiming to see in the big Republican landslide an endorsement of Johnson and Democratic principles. He has figured that the Democrats made gains in the counties where Tom Johnson spoke. He places stress on the result in Cuyahoga county, where the Democrats managed to capture two or three offices and also where the Republicans elected all the congressmen. If the Democrats can get a consolation and satisfaction out of the results, the Republicans are certainly willing that they should have both. Tom Johnson claimed that he would either defeat or cut down Senator Nick Longworth's plurality for congress in Cincinnati. The latter had 15,000 votes to spare, being elected by an unusually large plurality.

The Republicans and Democrats will have the same representation in congress during the next two years as they have had during the past two years—17 Republicans and four Democrats, the latter being Harvey C. Garber, Fourth district; John S. Snook, Fifth district; DeWitt C. Badger, Twelfth district, and John W. Cassingham, Seventeenth district.

A SMALL STRIKE

FIVE TRANSFERERS AT WILLIAM BRUNT PLANT HAVE QUIT.

The Trouble is Over the Question of Price to Be Paid For Scheme Ware.

A small strike occurred at the William Brunt pottery at noon today, and as a result five transferers are now out and the remaining two will probably quit work this evening.

The trouble arose over the price to be paid for a certain class of scheme ware. The girls had been receiving 2½ cents per dozen for the decoration, but finding out that others were getting 3 cents for the same work, a demand was made for the prevailing price. The girls state it was refused, and they quit.

The dispute is the same as many others have been up before. The decoration of scheme ware has caused much trouble heretofore in the matter of setting prices.

This class of goods is not as well made nor is there as good decorations placed upon it as in the regular staple lines. It sells for a lower price, and consequently must be made as cheaply as possible. The trouble of today, however, is the first dispute which has been up for several months in this department.

An attempt will be made to settle the dispute with the firm by those directly involved or by the union to which they belong. If this cannot be done, the question will be taken to the Brotherhood headquarters officials.

PART OF THE WABASH

President of That System Confirms Story of Plans Regarding Lisbon Railroad.

Pittsburg, November 6.—President Ramsey, of the Wabash railroad, yesterday held a conference with President J. T. Blair, of the Little Kanawha, over the various plans of extension and more particularly over the construction work of that line. The bids for the extension will be opened here today. The award of the contracts may be delayed somewhat in selecting the most advantageous bids, but an announcement can be expected in a few days at the most. The work is to be rushed as fast as possible.

In regard to the acquisition of the Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western and the other roads in that vicinity by Myron T. Herrick, Mr. Ramsey said: "The purchase of these lines and the proposed extensions are personal plans of Colonel Herrick and Washington E. Connor. The work of financing will not be done by a syndicate, such as was the case in other allied lines in the east, but by these gentlemen personally. The new lines will, of course, be linked to the Wabash and form parts of the system after they are completed. The undertaking has been started with an understanding with the Wabash management."

SIX WERE FINED

The Jethro Assault And Battery Cases Disposed of By 'Squire McCarron.

The half dozen assault and battery cases from Jethro fined in 'Squire McCarron's court yesterday were tried last evening at 8 o'clock and after long drawn testimony was heard, each was fined $1 and costs. They received, however, in addition to the fines a severe lecturing and a warning that if they are ever brought before the justice on a similar charge again that each of them will get the full extent of the law.

Those fined were: Josephine Smith, Mike Smith, Bella Mozongo, Eva and Ethel Stanley and Mrs. Eliza Jane Stanley.

PLANS OF THE B. & O.

To Build to Smith's Ferry With An East Liverpool Spur Again Revived.

The recent change in the proposed route of the Canton & East Liverpool railway is said by those familiar with the affairs of the company to be a move toward the long talked of extension of the B. & O. to reach Smith's Ferry and it is further added that the B. & O. proposes to cross the country from that point to Pittsburg. A spur from Smith's Ferry to this city is a part of the plan.

DISTRICT CONVENTION

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special)—A district convention of the Woman's Relief Corps will be held here tomorrow. The district comprises local organizations of Columbiana, Portage, Stark and Mahoning counties.

About 75 delegates will be present, including the state president, Mrs. Ellen Applebaugh, of Wooster.

MORE SMALLPOX

ANOTHER CASE OF THE DISEASE AT LISBON.

The Infection Is Now Nearer the Center of Population of the Town.

Lisbon, November 6.—(Special.)—Another case of smallpox is reported this morning. Mrs. Melvin Forbes is the victim.

While the spread of the disease is still confined to what is known as the infected territory, this case is just at the edge of the district, bringing the disease nearer the center of population.

INSURANCE ADJUSTERS

Here to Estimate the Losses in the Recent Fire in Harker Building.

Insurance adjusters were in the city yesterday to inspect the damage done by fire to the property of Frank Crook, the Wilson stationery store, and the W. & W. pharmacy. The adjusters are W. C. Daniels, of the Northern Insurance company; Joseph Dye, of the German American; R. T. Huggard, of Springfield. Mr. Dye's company had risks on Frank Crook's stock, and for Messrs. Witzeman & Wunsch, of the W. & W. Pharmacy. Mr. Huggard and Mr. Daniels were adjusters on the Wilson loss.

An adjuster for the Niagara, which carried a risk on the Crook building and stock, has not yet arrived. The Crook loss will be by far the heaviest of any, a few hundred dollars covering the most of the damage done to the pharmacy and stationery stores.

Mr. Huggard was summoned to Steubenville yesterday afternoon to adjust a loss there. Mr. Dye fixed up the claim of the owners of the house recently destroyed at Dry Run.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Against Salem Saloon Man—Wife Claims Husband Lost $650 There.

Salem, November 6.—A sensation was caused in this city last evening when it was learned that Samuel T. Conkle, the well known proprietor of the Oak saloon on East Dry street had been sued by Mrs. Minerva T. Hawley, the wife of Warren A. Hawley, of 166 Washington street, for the sum of $1150, of this sum $650 was for money alleged to have been lost by her husband in Conkle's place and $500 for exemplary damages.

The action was instituted in common pleas court yesterday through her attorney, W. S. Emmons, of this city. The action is against Samuel T. Conkle, the proprietor of the Oak saloon, for the recovery of $650 alleged to be lost and expended by her husband, upon whom she is dependent for support, in and on account of various gambling schemes, mostly poker, conducted and allowed by defendant at his place of business. The money is supposed to have been lost and expended by Warren Hawley since March 1, this year. Mrs. Hawley asks for this amount, together with $500 exemplary damages in the nature of $1150 and the cost of the suit. This entire $650 is supposed to have been received by the defendant at his place if business on East Dry street.

Yesterday summons were issued at Lisbon and were served upon Conkle last evening by Deputy Sheriff W. D. Turner. Mr. Conkle is compelled to make an answer to the petition asking for damages by December 6, this year. It is said that he will fight the case and has engaged attorneys. The case, if it comes in court, will no doubt be of interest.

Conkle is a native of East Liverpool, having come here from that city several years ago.

FIFTH STREET, EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

VERY INDEPENDENT

The Laboring Man of Today Does Not Have to Work Under Conditions He Doesn't Like.

"The working man is the most independent person on earth, these days," remarked a local contractor as a reporter stood watching a gang of men hard at work on a "job" in the northern part of the city. "In the first place," continued the contractor, "it is next to impossible to secure working men, skilled or unskilled, under any conditions. They do not come in numbers as they did a few years ago, begging the contractors to take them on at any rate of wages. They are all busy, and instead of appealing for work, they have to be appealed to and negotiated with one by one."

Once employed they have to be handled with kid gloves, for when offended they simply pack up their tools and walk away to that other contractor, who offered them jobs a dozen different times during the week. I never knew of such a scarcity of men as there is now, and I want to tell you that the laboring man's family that suffers this winter, has the individual to blame for it. There is work on every hand at good wages, and the prospects are that the conditions will continue throughout the winter."

Tariff Reform Considered.

New York, Nov. 6.—Tariff reform was considered at the monthly meeting of the board of trade yesterday, and a resolution was introduced that a committee of the board be appointed to support the suggestion of President Roosevelt that a permanent nonpartisan expert tariff commission be created. There was opposition to reviving the question at present and the resolution was referred to the active commission. Resolutions endorsing the Hay bankruptcy bill and urging congressional action on trade marks were passed. A resolution to inquire into the report that the "coal distributors of this city have a concert of action in fixing the price of coal," was referred to the committee on city affairs.

T. S. Sharretts, special United States tariff commissioner to China, gave an address, in which he said New York would come to look upon the Asiatic race as customers of great value.

Senator Platt's Views.

New York, Nov. 6.—Senator Thomas C. Platt was asked yesterday for a statement on the state election. He said:

"We have to be satisfied. Odell's plurality is not nearly as large as I had expected."

Senator Platt said that in his opinion the trust question and the coal strike had nothing to do with the result of the vote.

"The Democrats got together," he said, "and held together, and a few Republicans slipped over to them."

The experiences of people who have taken "Blood Wine" are worthy of the most careful kind of consideration, because they are truthful,—experiences related by honest people and from the goodness of their hearts, simply in the hope of bringing help to some poor suffering soul. Whenever you see a statement concerning "Blood Wine," read it, for it may be the means of saving your life, or that of some friend or relation. Read this one from Mrs. H. E. Young, 34 Ferry St., Everett, Mass.:

"I am 84 years of age and have suffered for years with rheumatism. I have never taken a medicine that seemed to do me any good until my son brought home a bottle of 'Blood Wine.' It helped my lameness almost instantly and put new vigor and activity into my system. I took it patiently, and after taking seven bottles was entirely cured. I haven't had a touch of rheumatism since."

Isn't any one justified in buying a bottle for fifty cents with such a strong recommendation as that of Mrs. Young?

VISIONS OF WEALTH FOR A MOTORMAN

Heydenreich Gets a Share of a German Estate of 310,000 Marks.

STILL MORE TO BE DIVIDED

The Young Man Still Continues His Work On the Street Railway—Other Heirs to the Estate Live in This Vicinity.

Visions of wealth loom up before James E. Heydenreich, a motorman in the employ of the East Liverpool Railway company, who lives at the corner of Mulberry street and Pennsylvania avenue. As can be seen from the name, Heydenreich is a German, although he was born in this country, as was his father. He is a descendant of a prominent and wealthy line of ancestors, who have lived for years at Rennesburg, Germany, some of whom have held important and responsible positions during the past fifty years under the imperial government.

A few days ago young Heydenreich received an official looking document, bearing the German stamp, and sealed by the town court of Rennesburg. It was a big surprise to him and he had not the slighest idea of its import, knowing that his relative had died a year or more ago. He took the missive to a German friend, as he cannot read the language, and had it translated. He was amazed to learn that he had been named in the will which had only recently been filed in the court. He is to receive 2,500 marks as his portion and there are numerous other bequests to heirs now living in Ohio and West Virginia. The relative was Mrs. Ada Hedwig, postmistress at Rennesburg.

This, however, is but a small portion of the Heydenreich estate. There is a fortune of 310,000 marks yet to be divided and it is stated that Hugo Heydenreich, a wealthy citizen of Parkersburg, had already claimed and received a portion of it.

The knowledge of his good luck did did not disconcert young Heydenreich and he has kept right at his work on the cars. It was not until this morning that he consulted an attorney, he placing the matter in the hands of George E. Davidson, who is thoroughly conversant with the German language. The proper steps to secure his portion of the legacy will be taken at once.

A number of the heirs mentioned in the will live at Zanesville.

Odd Fellows Election.

The Odd Fellows of the East End are preparing to entertain their brethren of East Liverpool lodge No. 379, and Line Island lodge, of Smith's Ferry. A committee on arrangements has been appointed and it will meet tomorrow evening to perfect the plans. Larkin & Ferguson hall has been selected as the place and Friday, November 14, as the date, for the entertainment. It is likely that a banquet will be one of the leading features.

Gate Posts In Position.

Already considerable work has been done toward erecting the safety gates at the Mulberry street crossing. This morning the iron devices to support the gates had been placed in position, and the remainder of the work will be pushed to an early completion, so far as the C. & P., is concerned. If the railroad will now build the long hoped for passenger station, the people of the East End will be satisfied.

Will Entertain Pupils.

Mrs. Martha Pittinger, of First avenue, will entertain her Sunday school class, consisting of thirteen young ladies, from the Second U. P. church, this evening. Among the other amusements provided is a game called "Dressing the New Woman," that will create a great deal of amusement. Refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served.

To Play at Beaver.

The members of the Marine Athletic club will meet tonight at Columbian park to make arrangements for their trip to Beaver Saturday where they will play a game of football with the team of that city. A full attendance of the players is desired. The boys have been practicing hard all week, and are confident of a victory.

IT MUST COME.

As inevitable as the changing seasons of the year is the change which comes to every woman. And just as one anticipates the changes of other seasons it is wise to anticipate this change of season and prepare for it. In this way the discomforts and disasters suffered by many women at the period of change can be avoided or overcome.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a medicine for every season of woman's life, will entirely meet the needs of women at this period of change. It cures the physical ills and relieves the mental anxiety and depression usually associated with this critical period. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces refreshing sleep.

J. S. Carlisle, Esq., of Manchester, Coffee Co., Tenn., writes: "I have been using your medicines for the last sixteen or eighteen years in my Poor-house. I am superintendent of the Coffee County Poor-house and Asylum combined. Your 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' are the best medicines for the diseases for which they are recommended, that I ever used. They saved my wife's life at the time of 'change of life.' I have been recommending your medicine to many afflicted women and have also guaranteed that if it did not cure I would pay back the money spent for it. I have told our druggist that if the people came back and said Doctor Pierce's medicines did not give satisfaction, to give them back their money and charge it to me. I have not once been called upon to refund. I have never found anything to equal the 'Favorite Prescription' for diseases of women."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Grip

Brought On Sciatic Rheumatism.

Nervous Prostration Followed.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Gave Back Health.

"I was laid up during the winter of 94-95 with sciatic rheumatism and nervous prostration brought on by a severe attack of La-Grippe. The rheumatic pains were so severe at times that it was impossible for me to turn in bed. I was unable to sleep. I had two of our best physicians in attendance, took all the advertised remedies for troubles of this kind but got no help whatever until I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Six bottles restored me to health; I am better than for years; in fact am entirely relieved. I can say with a clear conscience that it was Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine that restored me to health. When the pains of sciatica and rheumatism were most severe I secured almost immediate relief by the use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. I have recommended Dr. Miles' Remedies to many people."—Fred Myers, Redfield, S. D.

"I was taken with pain in my heart and under the left shoulder; with such heavy oppressed feeling in my chest that I could hardly breathe. I had palpitation so bad and my heart would throb so that it would shake my whole bed. I also had a weak, all-gone feeling in the region of my heart. My doctor treated me for liver and stomach trouble but I failed to receive any benefit until a friend recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Restorative Nervine. I used both and one box of the Anti-Pain Pills. I believe I am completely and permanently cured."—Mrs. J. W. Golding, Noblesville, Ind.

Free Treatment Time Extended

The British Doctors Extend the Offer of Free Services for Three Months to All Invalids Calling Before Nov. 29th.

In pursuing this course, the staff of physicians of the English Medical Institute grant the request of scores of invalids throughout the country who were unable to see the doctors before October 25th. Medical services will be given entirely free for three months (medicines excepted) to all invalids who call for treatment before Nov. 29.

These services include examination, advice and all minor surgical operations. If your case is incurable you will be kindly told so and advised against spending money for useless treatment.

The object in making this liberal offer is to become rapidly acquainted with the sick and to demonstrate the wonderful merit of their new treatment.

The doctors treat all forms of disease and deformities and guarantee all curable cases undertaken. Weakness of either sex, catarrh and catarrhal deafness, heart, lung, stomach, kidney and bladder affections. All diseases of the skin, blood, brain and nervous system. Goitre, cancer, without pain, epilepsy, rheumatism and rectal diseases. Impaired vitality, knotted veins and shrunken conditions are positively cured by their new treatment.

OHIO SHOWS GAINS.

Fuller Returns Shows Increase Majority For the State Ticket.

A LARGE VOTE WAS POLLED.

Chairman Dick Claims Plurality of the Republican State Ticket Will Be Over 90,000—Mayor Tom Johnson Defeated.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 6.—One hundred and ninety precincts out of 199 in Cleveland give Laylin, Rep., for secretary of state, 25,559, and Bigelow, Dem., 30,423. The Democrats have elected Lawrence, Tilden and Beacom common pleas judges; Starr, circuit judge; Salen, county clerk; Stage, solicitor, and Burke, coroner. The Republicans elect Kennedy common pleas judge; Barry, sheriff; Evers, surveyor, and White, probate court. Burton and Beidler, Republican congressmen, are re-elected.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—Chairman Dick, at the Republican headquarters late last night, had complete returns from 86 of the 88 Ohio counties, showing a Republican plurality for state candidates of 90,807. The two counties not heard from are Putnam and Noble. The former gave a Democratic plurality of 1,451 and the latter a Republican plurality of 751 last year. Deducting this difference of 700, he estimated the Republican plurality in Ohio at 90,107, but he expects both Putnam and Noble counties will show Republican gains and that the official vote will exceed these figures. Although seventeen counties have not returned their total vote, it is estimated as close to 800,000.

Toledo, Nov. 6.—Toledo complete gives Laylin, Rep., 11,582; Bigelow, 6,512. In 1901 the city gave Nash, Rep., 10,455; Kilbourne, Dem., 9,975. The entire Republican county ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 3,000 to 7,000. Congressman Southard leads the Republican ticket with a majority of 7,000 in the county.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—In this (Franklin) county, which also constitutes the Twelfth congressional district, the Republican plurality in the state ticket is 2,000, while Huling, the Republican candidate for congress, is defeated by 500, due to local opposition to Huling.

ODELL'S PLURALITY 12,885.

State Legislature Is Controlled by the Republicans.

New York, Nov. 6.—Official figures on the vote for governor vary but little from the unofficial reports. According to returns made to the executive at Albany by the several county clerks, the plurality for Odell, Rep., is 12,887. Only three counties above the Bronx were carried by the Democratic nominee, the aggregate plurality for Coler in these counties being 1 011. This and the Greater New York plurality of 122,074 given to Coler was met and overcome by an upstate Republican plurality of 135,972, the difference being a net plurality of 12,887, against 111,126 been more successful as regards the minor offices than in the case of the governor. In some quarters it is asserted that by reason of his endorsement by the Prohibitionists, Cunneen, the Democratic nominee for attorney general, has made such gains over the head of the ticket that he has been elected. There are also claims that when the returns for judge of the court of appeals are all in it will be found that Judge Gray has defeated his Republican opponent.

The state legislature is controlled by the Republicans by a reduced majority, but one so large as to admit of no doubt of the return of Mr. Platt to the United States senate.

The New York delegation in the lower house of the Fifty-eighth congress will number 37, instead of 34, as in the present congress. It will contain 20 Republicans and 17 Democrats, whereas the present delegation stood 22 Republicans and 12 Democrats. All of the more noted members of the delegation have been returned, including Sereno E. Payne, chairman of the ways and means committee.

Not the Success Anticipated.

Copenhagen, Denmark, Nov. 6.—The time for subscribing to the stock of the Danish West Indian company expired yesterday. Of the about $1,000,000 nominal capital, only one-fifth was subscribed for, notwithstanding the advertisement given to the concern by King Christian and Crown Prince Frederick taking stock. The promoters, who are anti-salers, are downcast because of the weakness of the sentiment in favor of aiding the Danish West Indies.

The leaders of the movement intend to appeal to King George of Greece, Queen Alexandra and the Dowager Czarina of Russia to buy shares. The banks and a few individuals will probably finance the matter and stand the losses, since the treaty providing for the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States was rejected partly on account of their promises.

ALLIED PRINTING TRADES UNION LABEL COUNCIL EAST LIVERPOOL O.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1902.

The political contest in New York over-shadowed that in any other state. The Democrats there based their hopes of success not only on the off-year idea, but on the belief that there was a large number of Republican voters who were not in full accord with President Roosevelt, and would not vote to support his administration. Then, too, in the cities comprising Greater New York, the Democratic factional war had died out, and the party was able to present a united front to the forces of Republicanism. But they failed to understand that, while some Republican politicians, notably those in the metropolis, were lukewarm in their adhesion to the president and his policies, the vast mass of the voters in the country districts believe in Mr. Roosevelt most heartily. The count of the ballots developed this error in their judgment. While the metropolis returned a phenomenal Democratic plurality, the honest, thinking voters of the remainder of the Empire state gave their endorsement of the Republican party and a Republican national administration by so thumping a plurality that it overcame the reactionary and socialistic Democracy of Greater New York, and re-elected Governor Odell and the Republican state ticket by a safe plurality. The great state has done nobly.

Five Republican congressmen are elected in West Virginia. Doubtless the state would have elected twice that number had it been entitled to them. West Virginia is prosperous and appreciates the fact. New towns and new industries are springing up all over the state and an intelligent and enterprising population is flocking in. That is the sort of population that appreciates the fact that business interests, to be safe, must be protected, and votes accordingly.

In another column we publish a candid and thoughtful article on the subject of Ohio river improvement. It will repay careful perusal on the part of every business man. East Liverpool is going to be heard from at the Parkersburg convention and to make her influence count. The agitation now begun will bear fruit if effort is not relaxed. Keeping everlastingly at it is the way to get what you want from congress.

Reports of night prowlers and suspicious characters continuing to frighten people in various parts of the city are eloquent arguments in favor of the strict enforcement of the mayor's edict to rid the city of all such characters.

It may be accepted as final that Theodore Roosevelt will be the Republican presidential candidate in 1904, if he lives. He is a fearless statesman and a splendid American.

There are other things to be thankful for besides the fact that the election is over. For instance, East Liverpool has had one day without a morning fog.

The Republican majority in congress is still growing. Democrats always succeed best in figuring up their gains before the returns are all in.

And now some Democrats are saying they were beaten by their "fool friends." But why use the plural in speaking of Tom Johnson?

The more Kennedy's vote is analyzed the more eloquently it speaks of the sentiment of the people against tariff-tinkering.

The only portion of Ohio where Tom Johnson got any support was in Cleveland, and he did his campaigning away from there.

Foot ball games in which nobody's collarbone or shoulder blade is broken would be a popular innovation.

The best thing Tom Johnson can do is to pay his back taxes and start up Salt river.

OBITUARY

Christian Craft.

The sudden and unexpected death yesterday afternoon of Christian Craft, at his home in Oakland, was a grievous surprise to his relatives and many friends. He had been ill for some time of asthma and last Monday a physician was called to see him, but there was nothing alarming in his symptoms at this time. Yesterday morning he complained of suffering internally during the night, but was in good spirits during the forenoon. At noon he was given some light nourishment and his wife and daughter, Mrs. Eckhart, left him for a few moments to attend to some household duties. Mrs. Eckhart returned in a short time and found him dead. The cause of death is attributed to an attack of neuralgia of the heart.

He was born in Hesse, Germany, in 1832, and come to this country 21 years ago, locating in Pittsburg. For many years he operated a cigar factory on Kincaid street. He came to this city about three months ago and bought a home in Oakland, where he resided up to the time of his death. A wife and three children, Mrs. Eckhart, residing with her parents; August Craft, of the East End, and another daughter living in Knoxville, Pa., survive him. He was a highly esteemed old gentleman and a member of several secret societies. The funeral services will be held some time during Saturday, the burial to be either at Riverview cemetery or at Pittsburg.

George R. Wilson.

Salem, November 6.—George R. Wilson died at his home here yesterday, aged 62 years. He had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for nearly a year, having been confined to his bed since last May. Mr. Wilson was born in Beaver county, Pa., and resided there the greater part of his life. His wife died nine years ago and one year ago he moved here from East Palestine, where he had resided for a short time. L. L. Wilson and Nettie F. Wilson, both of this city, are the only children. The remains were taken this morning to East Palestine. From there they were taken overland to the New Salem Presbyterian church, in Beaver county, where services were held about 3 o'clock.

Mrs. William Metz.

Columbiana, November 6.—Mrs. William Metz, living east of town, upon whom an operation was performed at Riverside hospital, Lisbon, about three weeks ago, died at the hospital Tuesday morning. She recovered from the operation and her death was caused by tubercular trouble and dropsy. Mrs. Metz was 50 years of age, a member of Grace Reformed church and a most excellent woman. She is survived by a husband and three children. The children are Mrs. Harvey Rich, of East Palestine; Mrs. Elmer May, of New Springfield, and Webster, who lives at home. Funeral services were held at 10:30, Rev. Fred Cromer officiating.

Mrs. Esther Feezel.

Mrs. Lulu Huston, of this city, left yesterday for Clarkson to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Esther Feezel, which occurred this morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. Mr. McCombs preaching the sermon. Mrs. Feezel had been sick but a few hours when death came. Together with Mrs. Huston, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Sadie Hickman, and a son, Alfred, both of Clarkson. Mrs. William Sebring, of Sebring, is a granddaughter.

AT THE THEATER

Among the many attractions booked to appear at the Grand is one that calls for more than ordinary comment. It is a magnificent production of "The Gates of Justice," produced under the personal direction of Harry Jackson, author of "Over the Sea," "The Denver Express" and other well known successes. It abounds in thrilling climaxes, abundance of clean comedy, a beautiful story well told and a number of the most sensational features ever seen upon any stage. At the Grand tonight.

Harry Emery's big production of "The Burglar And the Waif" comes to the Grand November 8. It is from the pen of C. T. Dazey, who has a number of successes to his credit. It is a play of the real sort and said to be true to life and fairly bristling with that magnetic quality which for a better name we will call heart interest, because it touches the heart, plays upon the emotions and appeals to the better side of mankind.

Thrilling classic of the sea? Frank S. Davidson has dramatized Robinson Cruso, holding vital theme, showing Crusoe sailing from home, the wreck of his ill-fated ship on the island of Despair in the South Seas. Mr. Van Osten has given a sumptuous staging, and in addition to this he carries a Marine band and orchestra of 20 musicians. At the Grand Friday night.

A play which never lacks interest and which can be witnessed with the same enthusiasm the second time as was the first, is the general verdict of all who have witnessed the splendid scenic production of "The Electrician," which is the initial performance with which the Irene Myers company will open their week's engagement at the Grand commencing next Monday evening.

"Ten Nights in a Barroom" was played by a competent company to a crowded house at the Grand last evening. It is an old but wholesome play, and the favor with which it was received shows that performances which teach a healthy lesson are still popular.

the majority of the residents. Within the past six months he returned from the penitentiary at Columbus, where he served a term for shooting in the West End. The sentence that can be imposed upon a person found guilty of the charge preferred against Hopkins is not less than one year and not more than 20 years in the penitentiary.

Hopkins was arrested this morning at about 11 o'clock by Officers Rhue and Morley. He was taken to the city hall without the least trouble. His face was badly bruised, giving every evidence of having been in a mixup, and he presented a sight almost as bad as did Burgess. To the charge he pleaded not guilty, and stated that he was only guilty of fighting in self defense.

His story of the affair does not tally in any particular with that offered by Burgess. He said in the presence of the mayor that he went into the saloon and bought a drink, handed a quarter to the bartender and was waiting on the change when two men started at him with chairs raised above their heads. He also said that he would never had cut any one had he not been forced to in self defense. The mayor bound him over to court, that being all that he could do under the circumstances.

Mayor Davidson set the time for Hopkins' preliminary hearing for 2 o'clock, this afternoon, but owing to an unexpected happening the hearing was postponed until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. In answer to a summons Burgess reluctantly appeared in the mayor's office to be present at the hearing and while sitting there he fell over in a faint. He was removed to his home in a carriage, and it is barely possible that he may not be sufficiently recovered tomorrow to leave his bed. If so, the hearing will be postponed again. He is suffering greatly from his wounds and is weak from loss of blood.

WELLSVILLE

A FINE CONCERT

Marks the Opening of the High School Entertainment Course in Wellsville.

One of the finest entertainments in the way of a concert that Wellsville people have had the opportunity of listening to for many months was that given last evening in the opera house by the Slayton Woman's Symphony orchestra, who came here under the direction of the Brockway Lecture bureau.

It was the first entertainment of the winter series to be given for the benefit of the high school. This course was gotten up by C. J. Berg, a local newspaper man, but the entire proceeds are to go into a fund for the high school library.

Of the entertainment too much cannot be said. The Hecker quartet soloists were of a high order and each individual part of the entertainment went to show that the orchestra is one of the finest musical organizations that ever appeared in this city.

The next entertainment on the winter course will be the Brockway Jubilee Singers. They will be here and appear in the opera house on the evening of December 25.

AGAINST EMPIRE TEAM

Arrangements for an Interesting Match With the Brunos Saturday.

Manager Bunting, of the Bruno Athletic foot ball team of this city, is making arrangements with the manager of the strong Empire team for a game to be played at the latter town Saturday afternoon. The Empire team was successful in holding down the West End Rovers, of East Liverpool, in a game recently, neither side being able to score. The Empire team is much stronger than the Brunos, averaging in weight nearly 15 pounds more to the man.

The game will probably be one of the fastest of the season for the Brunos. The local team has not been scored against this season. They will endeavor to maintain this record in the Saturday game. According to present arrangements the Wellsville boys will go to Empire on the 3 o'clock train and return on the "growler."

C. & P. IMPROVEMENTS

Additions to the Shops—Extension of Yard Facilities Talked Of.

Work upon the improvements at the C. & P. shops at Twelfth street is progressing rapidly, and it is expected that everything will be finished before the first of next month. The new blacksmith repair shop will be a great improvement, and is much needed.

It has been rumored that the C. & P. will soon purchase the low land property lying just below the Carroll-Porter boiler works for yardage purposes, being seriously crowded with the present facilities for handling freight. If the land is purchased it will probably mean eventually the extending of the yards to Yellow Creek.

Arrested For Train Jumping.

George Kineskey and Joseph Crites, foreign laboring men, were arrested at 2 o'clock a. m., in the C. & P. yards by Detective Moore, of the railroad company. They were charged with train jumping. Before Mayor Fogo they pleaded not guilty. They said that they had walked from Toronto to this city being too poor to pay their railroad fare. Both claim they were looking for work. They are still locked up pending more thorough investigation.

Our Anniversary Month.

Sixteen years ago this month we began business in East Liverpool.

We began with a floor space of 800 square feet. Six times we have moved and enlarged until now we have more than 40,000 square feet.

We wanted to show you pictures of our stores at the different times in our history, but the engravers disappointed us.

We're sorry for this for they would have given you a good idea of our enormous growth.

As it is we'll have to ask you to consider this line —

It represents our size in 1886.

Now, consider this one

It represents our present size

50 TIMES AS LARGE

as when we began.

Are we doing business in the same proportion? Yes: some months we do five times as much business as we did our entire first year.

THIS MONTH IS TO BE

one of our BIG ones. We've made all preparations for it. For months we've been getting ready for this our Anniversary Month. We've the Biggest Stock---the Cleanest Stock---the most Varied Stock we ever had.

We're going to make this

The Banner Month of Our History

you and your friends who want Bargains will be here early to help us for there's going to be plenty doing at the Big Store this month.

OIL BUSINESS ACTIVE

The Carson Field a Money-Maker. More New Wells Started.

Work in the Carson oil field still continues unabated. Miller & Murray commenced another well on the Samuel Carson farm Monday. Freshwater & Son's well on the Carson Bros.' farm was started to pumping yesterday and will make 20 barrels a day.

Freshwater & Carson and Freshwater & Son, who have been selling their oil to the Eureka Oil company, controlled by the Standard, have cancelled their contracts with that company and are negotiating today with another company for the sale of it.

Several wells in the field which are producing gas have been fitted up and the farmers in the vicinity are having it put in their homes. John R. Scott, who has a good gas well on his farm, is fitting his house and will use gas for heating and lighting. Luther Carson, James Carson, Mack Carson and Joseph Ramsey each have put gas in their homes.

This field has been a money-maker, although no enormously big wells have been struck. It bids fair to be a good stayer.

To Operate Near Chester.

The La Belle Oil & Gas company, of Wellsburg, has been chartered with a capital stock of $6,000. The incorporators are J. E. Wright, of Steubenville; G. W. Hannan, George E. House, Ed Jones and A. A. Franzheim, of Wheeling. The company will commence operations at once near Chester. Two wells have been located, one on Chief J. H. Allison's farm and one on Lee O. Conant's farm near Fairview.

Belmont Teacher Killed.

St. Clairville, November 6.—C. F. Dillon, a well known teacher in this county, was killed near Morristown. He was principal of the Belmont schools and while returning from his home in Morristown to Belmont the team he was driving ran away, upsetting the buggy and dragging him some distance. He was found by the roadside dead.

ANOTHER RACE

Owners of Billy W And Maud M Want a Match And Will Probably Have It.

There is some talk of another race between Billy W, owned by Frank Dickey, and Maud M, owned by G. W. Meredith. These horses raced a very pretty match race at Columbian park Tuesday afternoon, Billy W winning after five hard heats. The backers of Maud M are positive that she is the fastest horse, and Billy W, having backers equally as confident of his ability, it is almost an assured fact that the race will come off. Many contend that had Maud M had an experienced driver Tuesday she would have been the winner.

Mr. Dickey when seen today stated that nothing had been definitely arranged for the match, but thought that it would likely occur.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

A CHAPTER ON BELLEEK.

John Hart Brewer, of Trenton, N. J., first attempted the manufacture of Belleek ware in this country. He commenced his experiments in 1882, and in the following year brought over from England William Bromley and his son from the Belleek works in Ireland. Subsequently the elder Bromley joined the Willets Manufacturing company, of the same city, and introduced the manufacture of the egg shell there, and at the present time there are no less than five or six establishments in Trenton where the same class of ware is made. Among many specialties recently introduced is a new style of decoration which has been worked out by Miss Kate Seers, a Kansas girl, who studied modeling in Boston. Going to Trenton for the purpose of pursuing her studies in this direction, one day in 1891, while engaged in working over the wet Belleek, the idea of carving delicate designs in the dry clay occurred to her, and after conducting a series of experiments her efforts were crowned with success. The process of modeling which has been formed in the wet clay and dried is taken before it has been in the kiln, and with knives or other tools the design is cut so as to leave the background as thin and transparent as possible when finished. As the dry Belleek, besides being thin, is extremely brittle, and crumbles easily, the carving is an exceedingly difficult operation. It is a very slow process, necessarily, since at any moment the knife is liable to cut through the wall and ruin the piece. The marks which appear on the various productions of Belleek porcelain are of considerable interest to collectors and admirers of this beautiful ware. Mr. Goss has adopted as his factory mark his family crest, a falcon rising ducally gorged, which is printed on each piece in blank. The mark of the Belleek factory in Ireland consists of the four Irish emblems, the watch tower, the hound, the harp of Erin, and the shamrock, and is printed on that ware in green or black. The manufacture of Belleek ware was introduced into this country by English potters, who had learned the process at the potteries in England and Ireland, and could therefore lay claim to originality so far as the product is concerned, yet, in a measure, the ware as made in America differs materially from the foreign in many respects, and has been developed in new directions so far as it has come to have distinctive characteristics of its own which entitle it to be ranked with an original American production.

LARGE ADDITION PLANNED.

The officials of the Salem China company will soon put in a new fire protection system. It will be known as the sprinkling system. The company decided to do this before making any changes as has been contemplated for some time. Next spring it is the intention of the company to make a large addition to the plant. The business has increased to such an exient that it is necessary to make provisions to handle the trade. The sprinkling system to be placed in the pottery will be unlike any other in the city. Some idea of the vastness of the work will be known when it is stated that it will take three months to complete the work. When this system is once installed it will be practically impossible to destroy the plant by fire. Every inch of the ceiling and floor will be covered so that at a moment's notice the water can be turned on to quench an incipient blaze which appears in any way dangerous. The pottery officials will have special connections with the water works. The officials will not depend on the water secured from the water-works alone and have decided to construct a large cistern to obtain all the water necessary. In addition to this the company will place in its own pumps. When completed the pottery people will have the most complete system of fire protection of any plant in the city.

ENGLISH TRADE IS BETTER.

The Staffordshire, England, Sentinel, of recent date, says there was a slight improvement in the condition of the potting industry during the past week. This improvement was not confined to one section of the trade, but reached nearly every department and was most pronounced in the Australian market and other colonial markets. Trade with the United States is slowly improving, and the demand for the best class of dinner ware is increasing, these being in most instances well decorated. Travelers out in the states speak more hopefully of better trade than for some time past. This applies all round, but more particularly to the electrical trade. Hollowware pressers are working more regularly, and sanitary pressers report employment as good in all branches. Flat pressers report employment as good in all lines and are working full time.

PAINFULLY INJURED.

Blaine Brown, a cousin of George Drake, of the glost kiln crew at the Union, was painfully injured on election day while hunting near Washington, Pa. There was a premature discharge of the gun and the contents entered his left hand, near the wrist. The wound is a serious one, but it is not known yet if amputation will be necessary.

COMPLAIN OF GARBAGE.

The jiggermen at the Union are complaining of the garbage barrels that line the alley west of the plant, between Walnua and Broadway. They cannot lower their windows on account of the stench, and unless the nuisance is soon abated the board of health will be notified.

LANDED FINE FISH.

Lambert Myers, bench boss of the biscuit end at Cartwright's, was one of a party of four that was fishing across the river from Walker one night last week. Mr. Lambert landed two nice 4-pound catfish, and a 3-pound perch. Altogether the party caught 52.

John Marshall, batterout for jiggerman Fred Goppert, at the Union has been laid up for several days with a sore arm.

James Brooks has changed from the biscuit to the glost end at William F. Brunt's, and is now William Dunn's bench mate.

Elmer McDole, of the glost kiln crew at William H. Brunt's, will leave Saturday for Barberton to resume his old job as bench boss.

Frank Curry, a finisher at the Union, who has been seriously ill for a week with tonsilitis, was back at work again yesterday.

Al McShane, of the glost end at McNicol's, is extra motorman on the Chester and East Liverpool line, and was on duty last Sunday.

Fred Stetson, of the glost kiln at the Union, and James Jones will leave Friday for West Virginia to spend a couple of days hunting.

John Quinn, who has been employed lately as mould maker at the American China company, Sebring, has accepted a similar situation at William Brunt's.

Miss Bessie Demerling fainted yesterday morning in the decorating room at William H. Brunt's, and was sent to her home on Thompson's hill.

Miss Maude Giles, a gilder, employed in the decorating department at the Union, is very ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hull, in Toronto.

Miss Annie Tyndall has resigned as taker-off in the dipping department at the Union to accept a situation in the printing department at Brunt's. Miss Hattie Smith succeeded her.

Andrew McCartney, a placer in the glost kiln crew at D. E. McNicol's, is preparing to make a visit to his old home in Staffordshire, England. He has not yet decided on the exact time for his departure.

One of the McNicol kiln crew was out rabbit hunting one day this week, and during the progress of the sport, saw a "bunny" and in his excitement, yelled lustily: "Here he goes, boys," forgetting that he carried a gun.

Commission Purchases Rice.

Manila, Nov. 6.—The Philippine commission has quietly purchased upward of 20,000 tons of rice in India and on the Asiatic coast, in order to avert the rice famine which is threatening many provinces.

The plans of the commissioners were concealed in order to avoid a further disturbance of the Oriental market and so as to prevent possible combinations with the view of raising prices. The government's stock of rice gives it control of the local market and prevents operators from charging excessive prices.

NAVIGABLE RIVER THE YEAR AROUND

What It Would Mean to the People of the Prosperous Ohio Valley.

PROJECT IS PRACTICABLE

And Engineers' Estimates Are That an Expenditure of $60,000,000 Would Ensure a 9-Foot Stage for 1,000 Miles, or from Pittsburg to Cairo.

Now that the election is over the people of Ohio, and especially those close to the river, have already begun to turn their attention again to the improvement of their waterway. The recent difficulties and privations of the towns down the river in the matter of coal, largely owing to a low stage forbidding navigation at a critical moment, were more annoying than usual simply because they were associated with worse troubles occurring in Pennsylvania and along tidewater.

What the people want is a navigable stage of water from Pittsburg to Cairo all the year around. In the program of the Ohio Valley Improvement association this demand takes this technical form: "Slackwater from Pittsburg to Cairo, with a minimum stage of nine feet." In order to hasten the work, the members of the association argue that the whole system should be dealt with as a single improvement. So much investigation has been put upon the preliminaries of the task that the estimates of cost are supposed to be as nearly accurate as they can be made beforehand. According to these estimates an outlay of $60,000,000 will insure a depth of nine feet throughout the whole reach of 1,000 miles.

The military engineres in charge of the work for the government are responsible for the plan of making a depth of nine feet. A great deal of work had already been done to provide a stage of six feet. But the engineers are more farsighted than the ordinary run of river men. They could remember that the Ohio was once in its history an important military highway, and they could divine that the whole scheme of waterway improvement in the Mississippi should be gauged in a great measure by the magnitude of the canal at the isthmus. Business men also saw the importance of having the work on the Ohio completed by the time the isthmian canal is ready for use.

Now it appears that the multitudes interested in Mississippi improvements are being urged by unwonted activity in the light of the activity along the Ohio. But it must be remembered that the Ohio Valley Improvement association has not yet obtained the legislation it desires, that is, a single act of congress providing for the whole enterprise, with a sufficient appropriation to begin work all along the line, and authorizing completion under a continuous contract system.

The efforts to delay the beginning of work at the isthmus will probably not be prolonged when it is found that the United States is really ready to dig the big ditch. It gives South American diplomatists at home and elsewhere a little fame to have interfered in the world's business. But it will give them something besides fame if they push their interference to a point where it would become a nuisance.

Meanwhile the Ohio Valley association is shortly to meet at Parkersburg. It will no doubt come near formulating exactly what it hopes for in the form of legislation. Then the case will come again to the attention of the committee of congress on rivers and harbors. There is no part of the state of Ohio which will not in the outcome be benefited by the improvement. It is as much a part of the isthmian waterway system as the isthmian canal itself. For that reason it is to be hoped that the Ohio valley people will leave nothing vague in their plans at their coming meeting.

NEARER TO WHEELING

The Lake Erie, Alliance & Wheeling Being Rushed to the Southward.

Wheeling, November 6.—The Lake Erie, Alliance & Wheeling, the new road that expects to shortly enter this section down along the river and into Martin's Ferry, has just issued a time table which is of interest to this section, inasmuch as it shows the extension of the road about twenty-two miles towards the terminal. The terminus of the road was formerly at Bergholz, but now trains are running through to Piney Fork, which is the temporary terminus.

When the road will enter Wheeling is rather indefinite, as considerable difficulty is being experienced in the securing of the right of way from Piney Fork to the river.

When the road is completed it will mean much for the river district and Jefferson county, as it will afford another road to the lakes that will in a measure relieve the over-congested conditions of the roads at present in use and will also permit of a growth in the industries and mining business of the section.

The Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling is still in a very congested condition and several engines have been transferred from the Baltimore & Ohio to help out. The Wheeling & Lake Erie is also very busy in the handling of coal, and a greater demand has been made for that product with the approach of winter. The Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling is in a better position to handle heavy traffic now than it was several months ago, for the work of widening the tunnels and double tracking of the road is progressing towards completion. Several important changes will also be made in the train schedule on this road about the middle of the month and the Massillon trains will run through to Cleveland.

THE PINKHAM CURES

ATTRACTING GREAT ATTENTION AMONG THINKING WOMEN.

Mrs. Frances Stafford, of 243 E. 114th St., N.Y. City, adds her testimony to the hundreds of thousands on Mrs. Pinkham's files.

When Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies were first introduced skeptics all over the country frowned upon their curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by the new discovery has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands, doubts and skepticisms have been swept away as by a mighty flood, until to-day the great good that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and her other medicines are doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, physicians and thinking people.

Merit alone could win such fame; wise, therefore, is the woman who for a cure relies upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Hearst Complaint Filed.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The complaint of William Randolph Hearst, of New York, against anthracite coal carrying railroads charging that the latter's rates for the transportation of coal from the anthracite fields to New England, New York, Maryland and the District of Columbia, are unreasonable and unjust, was filed in the interstate commerce commission yesterday. The commission immediately sent notifications of the complaint to the railroad companies named as defendants, as follows: Philadelphia and Reading railway, Lehigh Valley, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, Central of New Jersey, New York, Susquehanna and Western, Erie, New York, Ontario and Western, Delaware and Hudson, Pennsylvania, and Baltimore and Ohio. The roads have until the 20th inst. to file their answer.

The complaint alleges that the rates subject the consumers at the points named, and the producers of such coal who are not common carriers or corporations owned and controlled by common carriers, to unreasonable prejudice and disadvantage, in violation of the interstate commerce act. It charges that the rates are discriminating and prejudicial to the interests of dealers and consumers of anthracite coal as compared with the transportation rates for bituminous coal for much longer distances, and also as compared with the defendants' rates and charges on other carload freight traffic generally. It is alleged that the Lehigh, Central of New Jersey, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, and Erie, New York, Susquehanna and Western, and the Philadelphia and Reading roads have entered into a freight pooling agreement.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." SOCIAL EVENTS

BAIR-STEELE

PROMINENT YOUNG COUPLE WEDDED AT STEUBENVILLE.

Superb Decorations And Impressive Ceremony—Many Guests Present from This City.

The wedding of William Frederick Steele, of this city, and Miss Katherine Bair, of Steubenville, which took place at the bride's home last evening, was one of the most elaborate social events that has been seen there for some time. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Higgins, of the First Presbyterian church of Steubenville.

The decorations of the beautiful house were elaborate. Masses of green ferns and pink and white chrysanthemums made a beautiful background for the ceremony. Prof. Vorsortz's orchestra was in attendance, and to the strains of a beautiful wedding march the ribbon bearers, Masters Albert Childes and James Lowrie, came down one of the stairways. They were followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Helen McGowan, of Steubenville. The bride, leaning on the arm of her father, made her appearance and at the same time the groom, accompanied by Frederick Lawrence, of the East Liverpool Potteries company, of this city, made their appearance on the other side of the hall leading to the parlor of the Bair residence.

The contracting parties took their places beneath a canopy of flowers in the corner of the parlor. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was tendered the newly wedded pair, followed by an elaborate wedding supper.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bair, of Steubenville. The father of the bride is one of the leading merchants of the county seat of Jefferson county, and she is well known in the society and social circles of that city.

The groom is well known in East Liverpool and is manager of the George F. Brunt Porcelain company, in which establishment he has demonstrated his business ability during the past few years.

The couple left Steubenville last night for the east. They will visit in Philadelphia, New York, Washington, Baltimore and Old Point Comfort. They will be gone for three weeks befofe returning to this city, where they will make their home. The presents received were very valuable and numerous.

Those from East Liverpool who were in attendance at the wedding were Mrs. Mary Steele, mother of the groom; Miss Sadie Steele, Mrs. Charles Bright, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vodrey, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bough, Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, Mrs. Robert Hill, T. R. Hall, Dr. Joseph Cartwright, J. C. Kelly, Homer Clark, Misses Clara Stewart and Laura Hill.

A DELIGHTFUL EVENT

Was the Eucher Party Given By the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association.

A most delightful social event was the euchre party given last evening in the Knights of Columbus hall by the Ladies' Catholic Benefit association. The ladies took care of the large crowd in a most acceptable manner.

The play continued until after midnight, when dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

About 150 people were present who indulged the moments all too fleeting. In the main room the euchre players were assembled and in the parlor immediate to the hall way the players were at tables where the game was "progressive peanuts."

Prizes were offered, those bearing away the trophies of the evening being as follows:

Progressive euchre—First, Dr. Frank Harrison, oak rocker; second, Herbert Crites, pair of fancy slippers; third, George Hendricks; fourth, John Maloney, consolation prize. Among the ladies, Mrs. Herbert Crites won first, oak rocker; second, Miss Anna Maloney; third, Miss Anna Maley, fourth (consolation), Mrs. Michael O'Malley.

In the game of progressive peanuts the first prize was accorded to Mrs. Gillgallon and the second to Miss McKeone.

AT ST. ALOYSIUS

CHAS. WALSH AND MISS AGNES LYNCH WEDDED TODAY.

Beautiful Ceremony Followed By Wedding Breakfast And Much Enjoyment.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred this morning at 6 o'clock in St. Aloysius' church, when Miss Agnes Lynch and Charles Walsh were united in marriage by the Rev. Father Mahan in the presence of a large circle of friends and relatives.

The usual beautiful ceremony provided by the Catholic ritual was most impressively carried out, and the young couple with the bridesmaid, Miss Lynch, a sister of the bride, made a pleasing picture.

Following the ceremony the newly wedded couple were driven to the home of the bride, on Bradshaw avenue, where, with a number of the relatives and friends they enjoyed a choice wedding breakfast. After this they again repaired to a carriage and were driven to the depot, taking the west bound train for Cleveland, New York and other points. Returning to this city they will go to housekeeping immediately.

The big crowd of friends that accompanied the happy ones to the depot derived much pleasure from well arranged plans of bidding them a farewell. Every person of the party had a quantity of rice and some had pairs of old shoes. What they did with them is easily guessed. The train and platform were literally covered with the rice and the interior of the train was strewn with placards such as "They are just married," "Were you ever in the same boat?" "This is Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walsh, newly wed."

The groom is the oldest son of J. C. Walsh, the Sixth street landlord, and is a young man of good standing. He has for two years been prominently connected with the East Liverpool baseball team, as manager, and has a large number of friends. The bride is the estimable daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lynch, of Bradshaw avenue, and she possesses traits that draw all acquaintenances to her and cause them to look upon her as a lady of high character and lovable disposition.

Married Nineteen Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, of Lincoln avenue, are celebrating their nineteenth wedding anniversary today. They were married in East Liverpool and have resided in this city ever since. The event will be observed by a supper at the home this evening at which all the members of the family will be present, in addition to a few intimate friends.

Gave a Surprise.

The East Liverpool lodge Daughters of Rebekah gave quite a pleasant surprise last evening for Mrs. W. E. Warren at her home in Chester. Mrs. Warren was much surprised to see 100 ladies at her home. The evening was spent in music, and an oyster supper was prepared by the guests who brought with them quite a supply.

THE HIGHEST PRAISE

For the Briggs Piano from a Gifted Pianist—Unsolicited Testimonial.

As is customary in every case where a first-class instrument is necessary the Smith & Phillips Music company, of this city, was called upon to provide the piano for the Slayton Woman's Symphony orchestra upon the occasion of its visit to this city last Tuesday evening.

Knowing that it would be useless to send any but the very best in the large establishment, since the class of music played and the extent to which every instrument used by the superb aggregation is taxed, would render it impossible to use an inferior one, the local company supplied a celebrated Briggs piano. When the instrument was removed from the opera house it was found, upon opening the same, that a note had been placed beneath the lid. The letter was written by Miss Stella M. Hecker, the gifted pianist with the company, and reads as follows:

"I can recommend with pleasure the Briggs piano, particularly for good action and quality of tone.

"STELLA M. HECKER."

The commendable expression of Miss Hecker, coming as it did purely voluntary, is gratifying to the firm here, and greatly appreciated by it.
